MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1887.

Whereas it is provided by section sixteen of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1887, that the Commissioners of Customs (hereinafter referred to as the Commissioners) may from time to time make, revoke, and vary regulations, either general or special, respecting the detention and forfeiture of goods, the importation of which is prohibited by that section, and the conditions, if any, to be fulfilled before such detention and forfeiture, and may by such regulations determine the information, notices, and security to be given, and the evidence requisite for any of the purposes of the said section, and the mode of verification of such evidence.

And whereas on the first day of December eighteen hundred and eighty-seven the Commissioners made certain Regulations, and it has become necessary to vary them in respect of the two matters hereinafter referred to.

Now, therefore, the Commissioners, in pursuance of the powers vested in them, do hereby vary the said Regulations as follows:—

1. The amount for which security by bond is to be given under Regulation No. 4 shall be such sum not less than double the value of the goods as the Commissioners may require.
