Secretary for Scotland.—Session 1906.
Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899.

FORFAR CORPORATION WATER.

(Construction of Additional Waterworks; Compulsory Acquisition of Lands and Way-Leaves; Powers to take Parts only of Properties, and for Disposal of Properties not required; Contracts and Agreements with Persons, Companies, &c.; Diversion, Appropriation, and Distribution of Waters; Compensation Water; Discharge of Water into Streams and Watercourses; Provisions for Securing Purity and Preventing Pollution of Water; Recovery of Penalties for Pollution; Pressure of Water; Rates, Assessments, and Charges; Application of Moneys and Borrowing of Additional Money; Incorporation, Application, Amendment, or Repeal of Acts; other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland on or before the 16th day of December next under and in pursuance of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Forfar (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for a Provisional Order

(hereinafter called "the Order") for effecting all or some of the following among other objects, powers, and purposes, that is to say:—

1. To authorise the Corporation to make, construct, lay down, erect, maintain, and use the following work or some part or parts thereof, viz.:—

An aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes to be wholly situate in the Parish of Tannadice and County of Forfar commencing in the bed or channel of the stream known as the Whiteburn at a point 560 yards or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a north-westerly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying the road leading from Newmill of Inshewan to Boghaugh over the said stream, and terminating in the existing well or man-hole of the Corporation, situate on the stream known as the Den of Ogil burn at or near the north end of the western embankment of the Corporation's Den of Ogil Reservoir.

Together with all necessary embankments, dams, weirs, channels, sluices, outlets, outfalls, catch-water drains, aqueducts, culverts, cuts, tunnels, bridges, wells, tanks, basins, gauges, filters, filtering apparatus, stand-pipes, main and distributing pipes, junctions, valves pumps, pumping stations, engines, houses, buildings, works, apparatus, and conveniences in connection with the said work hereinbefore described or necessary or convenient for diverting, taking, conducting, distributing, and regulating the waters hereinafter mentioned, and for diverting any sewerage or drains which might pollute or otherwise injuriously affect the same or the water supply of the Corporation, and for conducting, inspecting, maintaining, repairing, cleansing, managing, or using the said work hereinbefore described or required for any of the purposes of the water undertaking of the Corporation, or the other objects and purposes of the Order.

2. To authorise the Corporation to deviate laterally and vertically in the construction of the said intended work hereinbefore described from the line, situation, and levels thereof as shown on the Plans and Sections hereinafter mentioned to the extent delineated thereon respectively, or to such extent as may be prescribed by the Order, and also from time to time to extend, alter and enlarge, or to replace the intended works, mains and pipes, and to increase the number, size, and capacity thereof for the purpose of collecting, storing, conducting or distributing the waters hereinafter mentioned.

3. To authorise the Corporation to carry the works hereinbefore mentioned or any of them through, over, under, along, across or into, and for that purpose to open, break up, cross, stop up, appropriate, alter, divert and use temporarily or permanently, and either compulsorily or by agreement, or to acquire easements, servitudes or rights-of-way or other rights over, in, under or along any lands, highways, roads, lanes, paths, passages, bridges, rivers, streams, culverts, sewers, drains, water courses, and gas, water, telegraphic, electric, telephonic, or other mains and pipes, and to carry conduits, pipes, and other works through, over, under, across, along, upon, or into the same so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of making, maintaining and using the said works or any of them before-mentioned, and to exercise all usual and necessary powers.

4. To authorise the Corporation to purchase, acquire, enter upon, appropriate, take, and use temporarily or permanently, and either compulsorily or by agreement, and to hold for the purposes of the works hereinbefore mentioned and of the Order and of their water undertaking all such lands, houses, springs, streams, waters, and other property in the Parish of Tannadice aforesaid as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the intended works hereinbefore mentioned, or some of them, or some part, or parts, thereof, and for the other purposes of the Order, or rights of user thereof, and easements, servitudes, way-leaves, privileges, and powers through, over, in, or under the same, and notwithstanding Section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, to purchase and take by compulsion a part, or parts, of any land, house, building, or manufactory without being required or compelled to purchase the whole thereof, and also to sell, feu, lease, and dispose of any lands, houses, or other property which they may acquire under the powers of the Order, and which may not be required for the purposes thereof, in such way and manner, and to such person or persons as the Corporation may think fit, or as the Order may provide, and to provide for the disposal of the price or consideration which may be received in respect of such sale or otherwise, and to provide that with respect to such lands, houses, and other property the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts in regard to superfluous lands shall not apply.

5. To empower the Corporation and the owners of and other parties interested in such lands, houses, springs, streams, waters, and other property aforesaid, and any Companies, Corporations, Commissioners, Trustees, and other bodies or persons, whether under legal disability or not, to contract and agree with each other for the acquisition by the Corporation of such lands, houses, springs, streams, waters, and other property, or rights of user thereof, easements, servitudes, way-leaves, privileges, powers or authorities, through, in, over, or under the same, absolutely, or by way of feu, lease in perpetuity or otherwise, at such price and subject to such feu-duty, ground annual, or rent, or for such other consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as may have been or may be agreed to between them, and to sanction and confirm all agreements, conveyances, contracts of feu, and of ground annual, leases, and other deeds necessary for these purposes.

6. To authorise the Corporation by means of the intended works hereinbefore mentioned or one or other or some of them, and the existing water works of the Corporation to intercept, divert, take, impound, appropriate, store, use, and distribute for the purposes of the Forfar Water Act, 1878 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1878") and of the Order, including compensation water, the waters of the said stream called the Whiteburn, and of all or some of the affluents, streams, springs and waters flowing into or arising within that stream, which waters now flow partly into the unnamed Cut conveying the same into the Bog Stream, and partly into the river South Esk, thence into the navigable estuary of the river South Esk at Montrose, and thence into the sea; and also the waters of all springs, streams, and water courses, or some of them, which will or may be intercepted by the intended aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes hereinbefore described, or which may be found in, upon, or under any lands acquired by or for the time being belonging to the Corporation, or over or in respect of which the Corporation may have or may acquire water or other easements or servitudes.

7. To make provision with respect to the quantity of water which shall be allowed to pass down the Whiteburn before any water is taken by the Corporation, and the time and manner of delivery thereof, or otherwise to define the amount of compensation to be given by the Corporation in respect of the proposed diversion, taking, or impounding of waters under the powers of the Order, and to make such other provisions as to such compensation as the Order may prescribe or as may be agreed on or otherwise.

8. To authorise the Corporation at any time to discharge water from any of their existing or intended waterworks into any available stream or water course, or into any stream or water course with which any of their existing or intended works may communicate, or can be made to communicate, or into any stream or water course crossed by any aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes, and to make provision for compensating all persons for any damage which may be caused by the exercise of such power.

9. To enable the Corporation by agreement to purchase or to take on lease for such term or terms of years as they may think fit, or otherwise to acquire, and to hold any lands, waters, springs, streams and other real or heritable property within the drainage area of any of their existing reservoirs or works, or of any of the works to be authorised by the Order, or servitudes, way-leaves, or restrictions in or over the same which may, in their opinion, be necessary or desirable for securing the purity of the water in the drainage area of the said reservoir and works, and for protecting their water supply against pollution, nuisance, encroachment, or injury; and to provide that no such lands shall be deemed to be superfluous lands within the meaning of the Land Clauses Acts, and to enable the Corporation to let, sell, feu, or otherwise dispose of any land so to be acquired by them on such terms, conditions, and restrictions as regards the use thereof as to the Corporation may seem fit, and to provide for the application of the proceeds arising from any such sale.

10. To confer on the Corporation all powers necessary for the prevention of pollution in connection with their existing water undertaking and the said intended works, and to prevent the fouling or contamination of any streams, springs, or waters forming directly or indirectly any portion of their water supply, and to make provision for the recovery by summary proceedings by the Corporation, of penalties for the pollution of reservoirs, streams, water-courses, water-springs and drainage areas over which the Corporation have any power or user, or which they may acquire, or in which they are interested.

11. To provide that the water to be supplied from any main or pipe of the Corporation laid or to be laid need not be constantly laid on under pressure, or be supplied in any case at a level above or at a greater pressure than can be supplied or afforded by gravitation from the service reservoirs or tanks from which the supply is taken.

12. To provide that the existing water works of the Corporation and the works to be authorised by the Order shall for all purposes form part of the water undertaking of the Corporation, and be held under and subject to the provisions of the Act of 1878 and of the Order.

13. To empower the Corporation and any Landowner, Lessee, Trustee, Statutory or other body or person to enter into, or execute, or grant any agreement, deed, or other writing for, or with reference to, the taking or acquisition and the use of lands, houses, waters, streams, roads, easements, servitudes, way-leaves, or property required for the purposes of or otherwise in relation to the Order, and to sanction and confirm any such agreement, deed, or writing entered into, or executed, or granted at any time before the confirmation of the Order by Parliament.

14. To empower the Corporation to levy, impose, assess, and recover rates, assessments, rents, and charges, or new or increased rates, assessments, rents and charges for the purposes of their water undertaking, and for carrying into effect the purposes of the Order; to alter existing rates, assessments, rents and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, assessments, rents, and charges.

15. To authorise the Corporation for the purposes of the Order to apply any moneys already borrowed or authorised to be borrowed by them under the powers of the Act of 1878 and of the Provisional Order confirmed by the Forfar Water Order Confirmation Act, 1891 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1891"), and also to borrow, and from time to time to re-borrow additional money on mortgage, bond, cash credit, or in any other manner competent to them, on the credit and security of their existing water works, and of the water works proposed to be authorised by the Order, and of the rates, assessments, rents, and charges, and other income now or hereafter leviable by, or accruing to the Corporation in respect of their water undertaking; to provide that the additional money so to be borrowed shall rank pari passu along with or postponed to the moneys authorised to be borrowed under the Act of 1878 and the Order of 1891, or otherwise to define the rights, privileges, and priorities of the holders of mortgages, bonds, or other securities already granted or to be granted by the Corporation; to make provisions for and relating to a Sinking Fund with respect to the additional money to be borrowed under the Order and to extend and make applicable to the Order and to the additional money thereby authorised to be borrowed, all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1878 applicable to the money thereby authorised to be borrowed.

16. To vary or extinguish all rights, powers, and privileges inconsistent with, or which would or might in any way interfere with, the objects or purposes of the Order, or any of them, and to confer all rights, powers, and privileges which may be necessary for carrying the same into effect.

17. To incorporate with, and extend, or make applicable to the purposes of the Order all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1878, the Lands Clauses Acts, the Waterworks Clauses Acts 1847 and 1863; the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845, with respect to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof, and with respect to the crossing of roads or other interference therewith and other matters; the Commissioners Clauses Act 1847; the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts 1892 to 1903; the Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897; the Local Government (Scotland) Acts; and any Acts amending any of the said Acts, with such exceptions from, or alterations or modifications of the said Acts as may be thought expedient or be prescribed by the Order, and to amend and interpret the same; and to alter, vary, amend, or repeal the Act of 1878 and the Order of 1891, or some part or parts thereof respectively.

Duplicate Plans and Sections describing the line, situation, and levels of the work hereinbefore described, and the lands, houses, and other property which may be taken for the purposes thereof, or in connection therewith, with a Book of Reference to the said Plans, containing the names of the Owners and Lessees or reputed Owners and Lessees, and of the Occupiers of such lands, houses and other property, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November, 1905, be deposited for public inspection in the office at Forfar of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Forfar; and a copy of the said Plans, Sections and Book of Reference respectively, and of this Notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the said 30th day of November, 1905, be deposited with the Clerk of the Parish Council of the said Parish of Tannadice at his office or residence in Tannadice.

The Petition for the Order and the Draft Order and printed copies thereof respectively, will be lodged on or before the 16th day of December, 1905, in the office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, and on or before the same day a printed copy of the Draft Order will be deposited in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and if the subsequent procedure shall be by way of Private Bill, this Notice and the deposits with reference to the said intended application will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

Dated this seventh day of November, 1905.

BOMBAY, BARODA, AND CENTRAL INDIA
RAILWAY COMPANY.

1. NOTICE is hereby given that, in view of the purchase of the Company's undertaking by the Secretary of State in Council of India on 31st December next, and the consequent necessary conversion of the present Consolidated Stock into Railway Capital and India Three per Cent. Stock in the proportions arranged (viz., £26, 9s. 9d. Railway Capital and £133, 12s. 6d. India Stock for each £100 of the present Consolidated Stock), the Transfer Books of the Company will be closed as from 30th November next, and will not be reopened there after for transfers of the present Consolidated Stock as such.

2. The Stockholders registered in the Company's books at 30th November next will, as soon as possible after that date, be duly advised, by personal notice, of the date at which it will be necessary for them respectively to send in their Certificates to the Company for conversion. Interim receipts will be given for such Certificates on lodgment at these Offices, and such receipts will state the date at which the document representing their proportion of the Railway Capital will be ready for delivery to them. The Transfer Books of the said Railway Capital will not be opened before 1st February 1906.

3. The Bank of England will notify the respective holders when their proportion of India Three per Cent. Stock has been duly registered in the books of the Bank. The Bank will, however, only register such holdings free from all claims or orders previously attaching to the Consolidated Stock on the books of the Company. All persons, therefore, who desire the transfer of India Three per Cent. Stock issued to Stockholders of the Company under this notice to be restrained on its registration on the books of the Bank, must obtain and furnish to the Bank the necessary new restraining order. It will be necessary in every case to give instructions to the Bank in respect of the payment of Dividends. Forms for the purpose will be forwarded to all Stockholders in due course.

By order.
