FROM FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12. TO TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16. 1804.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, Oct. 13. 1804.

Copy of a letter from Vice-Admiral Sir JOHN THOMAS DUCKWORTH, K. B. Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at Jamaica, to WILLIAM MARSDEN, Esq. dated at Port Royal the 21st of July 1804.

SIR,

You will herewith receive a letter from Captain Mudge, of his Majesty's ship Bianche, which you will please to lay before the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I am, &c. J. T. DUCKWORTH.

Bianche, off Corrofoa, north three miles, 29th June 1804.

SIR,

Lying-to, under the guns of Saint Cruz (Corrofoa) at four P. M. I saw an armed schooner standing in from sea, as soon as she was hull out I made sail, and after a hard chase, the frigate running eleven knots under her royals and top gallant studding sails, at nine P. M. captured the Dutch schooner Nimrod, mounting four four-pounders, copper-bottomed and fastened, and but two years old; she is the fastest vessel I have met with since I have been in the West Indies, and was one of the two schooners that engaged the Flying Fish, having then on board fifty men.

I am, &c. ZACHARY MUDGE.

To Vice-Admiral Sir J. T. Duckworth.

WHITEHALL, Aug. 18.

The King has been pleased, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon David Baird and John Stuart, Esquires, Major-Generals in the army, who have received his Majesty's licence to accept and wear the insignia of the Ottoman Order of the Crescent (of the superior degree), transmitted to them by the Grand Signior:

And the Order of the Crescent having been instituted by his Majesty's ally the Grand Signior, in commemoration of the signal and important services rendered to the Ottoman Empire by the glorious achievements of the British

GLASGOW, 3d Oct. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

THE late JAMES REID, Merchant in Inverness.

Several meetings of the creditors of Mr Reid were held since his death, and in consequence of directions given by the meeting to Alexander Murray, merchant in Inverness, he disposed of the shop goods and other effects; and he has now made up a state and scheme of division among the creditors who have produced their claims, with oaths of verity, and proper vouchers; and requests the creditors to meet, within the Mason Lodge of Inverness, upon the 15th day of November next, at 12 o'clock noon, to receive their dividends, and grant discharges thereof, with an obligation for his rebel. Also to determine, whether the outstanding debts shall be expected to fall. In the mean time, such of the creditors as have not produced their claims, properly authenticated, are desired to do so immediately, otherwise they will have no share of the fund of division; and Alexander Murray will not consider himself any ways responsible to them for his intrusions, under the directions of the meetings of the creditors.

Such persons as were indebted to Mr Reid, by account or otherwise, are desired immediately to make payment to A. Murray, to prevent diligence being done against them.

INVERNESS, Oct. 10. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN GILLIES, Grocer in Glasgow.—Mr Duncan McKellar, merchant in Glasgow, having been chosen trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said John Gillies, and his nomination confirmed by the Lord Ordinary on the bills, hereby intimates, that the Sheriff of the county of Lanark has fixed Thursday the 25th day of October next, and Thursday the 8th day of November next, at 11 o'clock forenoon each day, for the public examination of the bankrupt, and others in the knowledge of his affairs, within the Sheriff Court-house at Glasgow; and that on Friday the 9th day of November next, at 11 o'clock forenoon, a meeting of the creditors is to be held, within the Black Bull Inn at Glasgow, for choosing commissioners, and instructing the trustee as to the management of the estate; previous to which meeting the trustee requests those creditors, who have not already done so, will lodge in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths to the verity thereof; certifying those who neglect to do so on or before the 18th June next, being ten months from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, will have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.

GLASGOW, 16th Oct. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

HUGH GIBSON & COMPANY, Carriers and Leather Cutters in Newnaw, and of WILLIAM GIBSON and HUGH GIBSON, the individual partners thereof.

That upon the application of the said Hugh Gibson and Company, and the said William Gibson and Hugh Gibson, individuals, with the consent of a creditor to the extent required by law, the Lord Armadale, Ordinary officiating on the bills, on the 15th inst. sequestrated the whole estates, real and personal, of the said Hugh Gibson and Company, and William Gibson and Hugh Gibson, as individuals; and appointed the creditors to meet at Newton Stewart, within the house of James Brown, vintner there, upon Tuesday the 23d inst. at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of choosing an interim factor on said sequestrated estates; and upon Tuesday the 20th day of November next, at the same place and hour, for the purpose of naming a trustee or trustees in succession upon the above mentioned sequestrated estates, in terms of the statute.—Of all which intimation is hereby given.

EDINBURGH, 16th Oct. 1804.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

SIMON COLLIE, Merchant in Inverness.—At the statutory meeting of creditors, held here this day, Mr Collie proposed to pay them a composition of ten shillings per pound of his debts, and find sufficient security accordingly. The meeting entertained the proposal, and fixed a meeting of his creditors to be held, at Mr Little's house here, on Friday the 2d November next, at one o'clock afternoon, for deciding upon this offer.—Of which this intimation is given to all concerned.

INVERNESS, 10th October 1804.
