ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—Nov. 17. 1804.

Copy of a letter from Commodore Hood, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marsden, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship the Centaur, Barbadoes, Sept. 1. 1804.

SIR,

IN sending you to Captain Shipley's account of the boats of his Majesty's ship Centaur, cutting two privateer schooners out of Basseterre, Guadaloupe, it scarcely needs comment on the great gallantry of Lieutenant Sibley, the other officers and men, and they deserve my warmest praise for the cool and persevering conduct they exhibited under so severe a fire from the enemy's numerous batteries; and the judgment of Captain Shipley, in sending them at a proper moment, aided the successful termination of this business without much loss. I have the honour to be, &c.

SAM. HOOD.

His Majesty's Ship Centaur, off Guadaloupe, July 31. 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE to acquaint you, that last night Lieutenants Sibley, Outridge, and Pearce, and Mr Lloyd midshipman, with four boats, accompanied by a proportion of petty officers, seamen, and marines, all volunteers from his Majesty's ship under my command, made a successful and gallant attack on the enemy's privateers in Basseterre Roads, Guadaloupe, bringing out, without an air of wind, a schooner, name unknown, of two guns, and L'Elisabeth, mounting six guns, pierced for twelve, and having 65 men on board, most of which were either killed, drowned, or swam on shore, under a dreadful fire of grape and musquetry, from the numerous batteries and troops which lined the beach.

Lieutenant Sibley's spirit and judgment, in conducting the attack, I cannot too much commend; and he speaks in the highest terms of the brave officers and men under his orders. L'Elisabeth is esteemed the fastest sailing privateer out of Guadaloupe, and has been uncommonly fortunate this war. Though I am under the necessity of inclosing a list of the killed and wounded in the boats, I must remark, it is smaller than might reasonably have been expected. His Majesty's ship has recaptured the Elisabeth of Liverpool, from the coast of Africa, taken by the Decide; and detained, on suspicion, the Grecian ship St Nicholas, with produce, from Guadaloupe. I am, &c.

(Signed) CONWAY SHIPLEY.

To Commodore Hood, &c.

List of Killed and Wounded.

Robert McKan, seaman, killed.
 Mr Blythe, master's mate, slightly wounded.
 Peter Maryan, James Thompson, Isaac Wolfe, James Daniel, seamen, badly wounded.
 Two of the enemy brought out wounded.
