EXTRA GLASGOW CIRCUIT.

FEBRUARY 1907.

Tuesday, 26th February 1907, at half-past ten o'clock.

The Right Hon. Lord KINNEAR and
The Hon. Lord JOHNSTON.

T. B. MORISON, Esq.,
Advocate-Depute.

Messrs. GEORGE A. SLIGHT and ALEXANDRE RAE, Clerks.

WAR OFFICE, January 15, 1907.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of the Decoration of the Victoria Cross being delivered to the representatives of the under-mentioned Officers and men who fell in the performance of acts of valour, and with reference to whom it was notified in the London Gazette that they would have been recommended to Her late Majesty for the Victoria Cross had they survived:—

London Gazette, 27th May 1859.

“Private Edward Spence, 42nd Regiment, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for the decoration of the Victoria Cross had he survived. He and Lance-Corporal Thompson, of that Regiment, volunteered, at the attack of the Fort of Ruhya, on the 15th April 1858, to assist Captain Cafe, commanding the 4th Punjab Rifle, in bringing in the body of Lieutenant Willoughby, from the top of the Glacis. Private Spence dauntlessly placed himself in an exposed position so as to cover the party bearing away the body. He died on the 17th of the same month from the effects of the wound which he received on the occasion.”

London Gazette, 21st October 1859.

“Ensign Everard Aloysius Lisle Phillipps, of the 11th Regiment of Bengal Native Infantry, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for the decoration of the Victoria Cross, had he survived, for many gallant deeds which he performed during the Siege of Delhi, during which he was wounded three times. At the assault of that city he captured the Water Bastion with a small party of men, and was finally killed in the streets of Delhi on the 18th of September.”

London Gazette, 2nd May 1879.

Lieutenant Teignmouth Melvill, 24th Foot.
Lieutenant Nevill Josiah Aylmer Coghill, 24th Foot.

“Lieutenant Melvill, of the 1st Battalion 24th Foot, on account of the gallant efforts made by him to save the Queen’s Colour of his Regiment after the disaster at Isandlwana, and also Lieutenant Coghill, 1st Battalion 24th Foot, on account of his heroic conduct in endeavouring to save his brother officer’s life, would have been recommended to Her Majesty for the Victoria Cross had they survived.”
