Notice is hereby given that, upon a special recommendation from the Army Council, and with the assent of the Treasury, Mr. George Edmond Hoppett, having served as a Clerk of the Second Division for upwards of eight years, has been promoted to a Second Class Assistant Accountantship in the Army Accounts Department, with a special certificate granted exceptionally by the Civil Service Commissioners.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 15TH MARCH 1907.)

CAITHNESS-SHIRE (CONTROL OF DOGS)
ORDER OF 1907.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, the Dogs Act, 1906, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Power to make Regulations.

1.—(1.) The Local Authority of the District specified in the Schedule to this Order may, in accordance with the provisions of this Order, make Regulations, with a view to the prevention of worrying of cattle (including sheep), for requiring that dogs or any class of dogs shall, during all or any of the hours between sunset and sunrise, be kept by the owners thereof under control in manner prescribed by the Regulations.

(2.) The Regulations may apply to the whole or any part of the District, and may exempt any class of dogs either generally or under prescribed conditions.

Confirmation of Regulations.

2.—(1.) Regulations made under this Order shall not take effect unless and until they have been submitted to and confirmed by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries.

(2.) Unless the Board otherwise direct, the following provisions shall apply—

(i.) Notice of intention to apply for confirmation of any Regulations shall be given in one or more of the local newspapers circulating within the District in two successive issues two weeks at least before the making of the application.

(ii.) For two weeks at least before an application, a copy of the Regulations proposed to be confirmed shall be kept at the office of the Local Authority of the District, and be open during office hours thereat to the inspection of ratepayers of the District without fee or reward.

(iii.) The Clerk of the Local Authority shall on the application of any such ratepayer furnish him with a copy of the proposed Regulations on payment of sixpence.

(3.) A copy of any Regulations made by a Local Authority under this Order, signed and certified by the Clerk of that Local Authority to be a true copy and to have been duly confirmed, shall be evidence, until the contrary is proved, in all legal proceedings, of the due making, confirmation, and existence of the Regulations, without further or other proof.

Seizure of Dogs where Regulations are Contravened.

3. Any dog in respect of which an offence is being committed against a Regulation made under this Order may be seized and treated as a stray dog under the powers conferred by section three of the Dogs Act, 1906.

Extension of Definition in Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

4. Dogs shall be animals for the purposes of the following sections of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894 (namely):—

Section forty-three (powers of police);

Section forty-four (powers of inspectors); and also for the purposes of all other sections of the said Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on the provisions of those sections and this Order, including such sections as relate to offences and legal proceedings.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

5. The provisions of this Order shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Short Title.

6. This Order may be cited as the CAITHNESS-SHIRE (CONTROL OF DOGS) ORDER OF 1907.

In witness whereof the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries have hereunto set their Official Seal this fifteenth day of March nineteen hundred and seven.

T. H. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland in the ensuing month of April by Petition for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 for all or some of the following among other purposes that is to say:

To incorporate the Committees of the Universities of Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Saint Andrews for the training of teachers constituted under a Minute of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland dated the 30th day of January 1905 (hereinafter called "the Committees") as bodies corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal with power to purchase and hold lands and other property for the purposes of their respective constitutions or otherwise in connection therewith, and to sell exchange convey and dispose of such lands or property or any part or parts thereof and to confer on the Committees all or some of the other rights powers and privileges of a body corporate.

To authorise the Church of Scotland and the United Free Church of Scotland or either of them (hereinafter referred to as "the Churches") or other body of management of any college or colleges for the training of teachers or any persons trustees or others holding property funds or endowments for the training of teachers, to demit or transfer their powers of management of any such college or colleges property funds or endowments and to transfer or convey or cause to be transferred or conveyed all or part of the college premises property and equipment of any such college or colleges belonging to or held in trust by or for them to any of the Committees or partly to one and partly to another or others of them including any funds or endowments in connection therewith, and to provide that every such transfer or conveyance shall or may operate to discharge and release the Churches or other body of management and the persons and trustees (if any) making or being parties to such transfer or conveyance from all trusts dispositions liabilities and obligations affecting the premises and property so transferred and conveyed or any part or parts thereof, and also to provide that the Committees may be discharged and relieved of all or any of such trusts dispositions liabilities and obligations, and to make all necessary and incidental provision for carrying into effect the said objects and purposes aforesaid and the provisions of the said Minute relating to the transfer of training colleges.

To authorise the Committees and the Churches to enter into Agreements for all or any of the purposes of the Order and to give effect to and if necessary to confirm with or without additions or alterations any agreement or agreements already made and entered into or which may hereafter be made and entered into between the Churches or either of them or other body of management of any college for the training of teachers or any Committee or Committees thereof or any Trustees representing those bodies respectively or others on the one hand and any one or more of the Committees on the other hand for the transfer or in connection with the transfer to the Committees or partly to one and partly to another or others of them of any such college belonging to the Churches or either of them or other body of management or held in trust by or for them and of all buildings property and equipment held or used in connection with any such college.

To make provision if thought fit in connection with the transfer of any such colleges aforesaid or otherwise for the affording of religious instruction either by the Churches or other body of management as aforesaid or by the Committees in accordance with the terms of the said Minute or otherwise or of any agreement which may have been entered into by or which may hereafter be entered into between the Churches or other body of management as aforesaid and the Committees and if necessary to confirm any such agreement.

To vary or repeal any trusts conditions or restrictions applicable to any property funds or endowments held for Training College purposes in Scotland, to provide that any such property funds or endowments may be held for or applied to the Training Colleges or the Committees or any of them, and to authorise the Churches or others as aforesaid to apply property and funds which may now or hereafter be held by them for or in connection with the training of teachers to the purposes of religious instruction in connection with such Colleges.

To authorise the Churches or either of them or other body of management as aforesaid for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of the Order to act by a Committee or Sub-Committee, and to confirm any actings of any Committee or Sub-Committee.

To enable the Churches or one of them or other body of management as aforesaid and the Committees or any one or more of them to enter into and carry into effect agreements and to do all such other acts and things as may be necessary or convenient for the execution of any of the powers of the Order or of any of the provisions of the said Minute of the 30th day of January 1905.

To vary or extinguish any existing rights or privileges which might interfere with the objects of the Order and to confer other rights and privileges and to amend alter vary or repeal so far as may be necessary the said Minute or any public or local Act or Order Ordinance or Minute that may be affected by the Order.

To provide for the payment of the costs of the Order by the Committees in such proportion as may be fixed by the Order or otherwise in such manner as the Order may prescribe.

Printed copies of the Petition and draft Order will be deposited at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on or before the 17th day of April next.

The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 in which case the procedure may be by way of private bill, and this notice will subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament apply to such Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland on or before the 17th day of April, 1907, by Petition under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

1899, for a Provisional Order (hereinafter called "the Order") promoted by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Galashiels (who are hereinafter called "the Corporation") for the following or some of the following objects, powers, and purposes, that is to say:—

1. To authorise and empower the Corporation to make and maintain the main and branch sewers, conduits, lines of pipes, and other works hereinafter described, or some one or more of them, or some part or parts thereof, with all necessary drains and storm overflows, outfalls, junctions, syphons, culverts, manholes, walls, embankments, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and to exercise the various powers and authorities hereinafter mentioned, or any of them, that is to say:—

First.—A Main Intercepting Sewer, Conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 1), partly in the County of Selkirk and partly in the County of Roxburgh, commencing in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk at a point on the south bank of the stream or river called the Gala Water, 190 yards or thereabouts, measured along the course of said stream, above the bridge which forms an entrance to Buckholm Mill from the south side of said stream, and terminating in the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh, at a point, on a stone wall, erected along the toe of the embankment of the road leading from the Gas Works to the Melrose Road, 113 yards or thereabouts southwards, measured along the line of said wall, from the south boundary of the North British Railway Company's ground, also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 2), to be wholly situated in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point to the north-east of where Plumtreehall Brae crosses the North British Railway, and terminating at a point in Work No. 1, 40 yards or thereabouts measured in a westerly direction, from the west side of a footbridge, which forms the entrance to Comelybank Mill from the south side of the Gala Water: also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 3), to be situated wholly in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point opposite to, and distant 44 yards or thereabouts north-eastwards from the highest point of a cauld or weir erected in the Gala Water at Buckholmside Skin Works, and terminating at a point in Work No. 2, 70 yards or thereabouts, measured in a north-easterly direction, from the termination of said Work No. 2: also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 4), to be wholly situated in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point in the middle of the Ladhope Burn, 19 yards or thereabouts above the north-east side of the bridge carrying High Buckholmside over the Ladhope Burn, and terminating at a point in Work No. 1, two yards or thereabouts below the south-east side of the bridge across the Gala Water, called Hunter's Bridge: also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 5), to be wholly situated within the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point where the road leading from Galashiels Railway Station joins the Melrose Road, terminating at a point in Work No. 1 in line with Stirling Place: and also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 6), to be wholly situated within the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point where the road leading to Langhaugh Mill joins the Melrose Road, and terminating in Work No. 1 at a point 13 yards or thereabouts below the north-west boundary of Gala Mill.

Second.—A Main Sewer, Conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 7), partly in the County of Selkirk and partly in the County of Roxburgh, commencing in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk at a point within the garden belonging to the property called "Lynhurst," or "Abbotsview," 27 yards or thereabouts north-westwards from the boundary between the said garden and the North British Railway, and six yards or thereabouts south-westwards from the north-east boundary between said garden and a garden belonging to a house called "Kingsknowes," and terminating in the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh at a point on the east side of the Gala Water, 40 yards or thereabouts below the south side of the bridge known as Galafoot Bridge, carrying a road across the Gala Water from the Gas Works to the Melrose Road: also a branch sewer, conduit, or line of pipes (Work No. 8), to be wholly situated in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, commencing at a point on a foot-path in line with the south gable of the dwelling-house belonging to the Galashiels Gas Light Company, and terminating at a point in Work No. 7, 97 yards or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction, from the termination of said Work No. 7.

Third.—A cauld or weir (Work No. 9), across the Gala Water, situated partly in the Parish of Galashiels and County of Selkirk, and partly within the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh, at a point 143 yards or thereabouts, in a south-easterly direction, along the course of the stream from the point where the Mill Lade re-enters the Gala Water, together with a conduit or line of pipes (Work No. 10), to be wholly situated in the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh, commencing at north end of said cauld or weir (Work No. 9), and terminating at a point on the west bank of the River Tweed 240 yards or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction along the course of the River from the south side of the bridge carrying the North British Railway over the River Tweed.

2. To make and maintain all necessary works, conveniences, and appurtenances in connection with the works, or any of them before described, and for connecting all, or any, of the existing sewers, drains, conduits, or outfalls presently discharging directly, or indirectly, into the River Gala, or into any of the tributaries thereof, or into any mill-leads or dams connected therewith, or with any mills, manufactories, or works, with the main sewers, drains, and works to be constructed and maintained under the Order, or for discharging, conducting, or diverting the whole, or part, of the sewage water or contents of any existing sewers, drains, conduits, or outfalls into the said main sewers, drains, and works to be authorised by the Order, or into any subsidiary works to be constructed, or some of them, and to make, provide, and maintain such accommodation works as may be required, or as may be provided by agreement with the owners or other persons interested, through whose lands any of such works are intended or may be constructed: To authorise and provide for the underpinning or otherwise securing or strengthening any houses or buildings which may be rendered insecure by the said intended works, and which houses and buildings may not be actually required to be taken for the purposes thereof.

3. To authorise the Corporation in the construction of the works hereinbefore described to deviate from the lines, situations, and levels thereof, as delineated on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned to the extent defined thereon, or as may be provided by the Order.

4. To cross, stop up, appropriate, alter, break up, and divert, temporarily or permanently, or to acquire easements, servitudes, or rights of way over, or under any lands, highways, streets, occupation, or other roads, railways, bridges, lanes, paths, passages, sewers, drains, river banks, water courses, electric apparatus, and gas and water and telephonic and telegraphic pipes, posts and wires, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of making and maintaining the said works, or for any of the purposes of the Order, and to exercise all other usual and necessary powers.

5. To authorise the Corporation to purchase, feu, lease, or acquire by compulsion or by agreement, and to hold, use, and apply lands and other property for the purposes of the said works, and to acquire compulsorily, or by agreement, and to hold the lands and other property hereinafter mentioned for the purposes of sewage purification, and purposes incidental thereto, and to appropriate and use such lands respectively for those, or any of those, purposes, and to exempt such lands from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the sale of superfluous lands. The lands intended to be so acquired for the Purification Works and purposes incidental thereto are the following:—Part of the lands of Langlee, all in the Parish of Melrose and County of Roxburgh, as embraced in the following boundaries and limits, viz.:—Beginning at a point 83 yards westwards from the west abutment of the cattle creep underneath the railway at Gala Bridge, where the present Parliamentary and Municipal Boundary intersects the south boundary of ground belonging to the North British Railway Company, running in an easterly direction along the south boundary of the North British Railway Company's ground to a point in the centre of the River Tweed, thence turning and running up the centre of the River Tweed to the point where the Old Municipal Boundary formed by the intersection of the centre lines of the Rivers Tweed and Gala begins, thence turning and following the Old Municipal Boundary up to the middle of the Gala Water to a point where the Old Municipal Boundary leaves the Gala Water and runs northward, and thence turning and still following the said Boundary to the point where the Boundary began.

6. To authorise and empower the Corporation on the said lands hereinbefore described, or on any part or parts thereof, to carry out the treatment and purification of the sewage and other discharges from the main and branch sewers and drains constructed and to be constructed, and to prevent the sewage and refuse of the Burgh of Galashiels and the discharges from the works and manufactories therein from being discharged into the River Gala or the tributaries thereof, or the River Tweed, and to discharge the effluents from the Purification Works into the said rivers.

7. To authorise the Corporation to divert and discharge the contents of any existing main and branch sewers and any mills, works, and manufactories, into the main or branch sewers, drains, and works proposed to be authorised by the Order, and for effecting such purpose to vary, extend, diminish, take up, remove, replace, or enlarge, or alter the direction or levels of any existing main and branch sewers, or outfalls of sewage, or water presently running and discharging or flowing towards, or into any existing main or branch sewers, and to connect all existing sewers, pipes, or outfalls with the proposed sewers and drains, to be constructed under the Order, and to abstract, discharge, intercept, and divert the whole, or part, of the contents of any existing main or branch sewers and drains, and also the contents of all other sewers and drains presently discharging directly or indirectly into the said River Gala or tributaries, and of the mill-leads and dams aforesaid into the said main or branch sewers and drains, or one or more of them, and to make all necessary sluices, valves, pipes, off-lets, or overflows or appurtenances which may be required for carrying out the said purposes of the Order.

8. To divert, abstract, take, use, and appropriate by means of the cauld or weir (Work No. 9) hereinbefore described, the water of the Gala, into the main conduit (Work No. 10) for the purpose of generating power, by means of a turbine, and to discharge the contents of the said main conduit (Work No. 10) into the River Tweed.

9. To provide that the Corporation may, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 90 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, acquire parts only of any property they may require in the construction of the said works, or any of them, without being required to take the whole of such property.

10. To authorise the Corporation to purchase and acquire by agreement from any person, whether under legal disability or not, for the purpose of the works aforesaid, the lands before referred to, and any other lands, in addition to the lands before mentioned, and to enter into agreements for, and in connection with, such purchases, and to confirm any agreements made, or to be made, before the passing of the Act confirming the Order.

11. To clean the bed or channel of the River Gala from the point of commencement of the said Work No. 1, together with any dams, mill-leads, connected therewith, and the banks, sides, and slopes of the same, and to remove all mud, silt, or other material, which may, or will, render the water polluted or impure, and to dispose of all such material as may be removed as the Corporation think fit, and for affecting the said purposes to enter at all times upon any part or parts of the said river and banks thereof, and dams and mill-leads, and to use all existing or necessary accesses, roads, and conveniences, and to empower the Corporation to require or compel any person or persons, who, by law, are liable for the removal or abatement of nuisance within the said river, mill-leads, and dams to remove or abate the same.

12. To take power and right of access to and from the main and branch sewers and works to be authorised by the Order, and to any existing main and branch sewers for repair and maintenance of the works and for cleansing and flushing, and also to close all the inlet and open the outlet sluices or appurtenances on the mill-leads, so as to temporarily drain off water from the same during the execution or repair of works, and also power to discharge into the River Gala and mill-leads or dams, and into the River Tweed, the contents of the said main sewers, drains, or works.

13. To empower the Corporation to enlarge existing sewers and drains, and to make such alterations in the positions of existing sewers and drains, and to construct, lay down, and maintain all necessary and proper drains, channels, conduits, cuts, tunnels, sluices, by-washes, upstands, manholes, offlets, overflows, cleansing shafts, entrances, culverts, ventilators, and settling and depositing tanks or places, works, and conveniences necessary to be used in connection with the main and branch sewers, conduits, and lines of pipes and branch sewers, and other works before mentioned, or in connection with any existing main and branch sewers, or for any other of the objects and purposes of the Order.

14. To provide for and to regulate, prescribe, limit, control, or prohibit the discharge or passing into the proposed main and branch sewers, drains, conduits, or pipes, or into any existing or future main and branch sewers and drains, or pipes, of any poisonous, noxious, and polluting and discolouring liquids and matter, or any solids, and of the sewage and other offensive and injurious matter, or any steam or heated water, and all other matters, or liquid, or solid substances which may pollute, discolour, or render impure the water of the River Gala or the River Tweed, or injure or impede the said main and branch sewers, drains, conduits, and pipes, which may proceed or flow from any houses, buildings, and from any mills, manufactories, bleach-fields, paper works, skinneries, tanneries, glue works, distilleries, gas works, and all other works and buildings, of whatsoever nature or description situate within the Burgh of Galashiels or adjacent to the banks of the River Gala or its tributaries, or to the mill-leads, or situate in any part of the limits of the jurisdiction of the Corporation, and from any houses, buildings, mills, manufactories, bleach-fields, paper works, distilleries, skinneries, tanneries, glue works, gas works, and all other works, of whatsoever nature or description, which may at any time hereafter be erected or established on, or adjacent to, the banks of the river and its tributaries, and mill-leads, or situate within any part of the jurisdiction or area of the Corporation (which houses, buildings, mills, and works, and others aforesaid, are in this notice called "the buildings, mills, and other works"), and to make it compulsory on owners, lessees, and occupiers of buildings, mills, and other works, or some of them, to purify and render innocuous any discharge from the same to the satisfaction of the Corporation before being permitted to be discharged or passed into the main sewers, conduits, or pipes, or branch sewers, or into the existing main and branch sewers, and to regulate, control, and limit the quantity of water, which may be taken from the river by the owners and occupiers of any buildings, mills, and other works.

15. To authorise and empower the Corporation to permit any owners or occupiers of houses, buildings, mills, and manufactories, and other works, or any buildings and others aforesaid which may at any time after the passing of the Order be erected within the Burgh, or within or beyond the jurisdiction of the Corporation to join or connect with the main or branch sewers or other works or any existing main or branch sewers, and that on such terms and conditions as to payment and otherwise as the Corporation shall think fit, and to prohibit all junctions except with the consent of the Corporation.

16. To prohibit or restrict, or to empower the Corporation to prohibit or restrict all persons, bodies, and authorities from discharging, throwing, casting, or putting or causing to be discharged, thrown, cast, or put, or to fall or to be carried into the River Gala and its tributaries, or into the River Tweed, or any of them, or into the dams, mill-leads, or any of them, or into any cut, ditch, sewer, drain pipe, channel, stream, or water course communicating with the said Rivers and tributaries and others as aforesaid, or any of them, any poisonous, noxious, or polluting solid or liquid or discolouring matter, or any sewage or other offensive or injurious matter, or any dead animal, fish or of any kind, dirt, lime, ashes, sawdust, the refuse of any manufactory, manufacturing process, or quarry rubbish, cinders, or any other waste, or any putrid or other offensive or injurious matter which will or may render the water in the River polluted, discoloured, or impure, and to prohibit and prevent or regulate the washing, steeping, or submerging of skins, hides, leather, bark, or any other substance or material in the River or in any of the mill-leads or mill-dams thereon or thereof.

17. To prohibit or restrict, or to enable the Corporation to prohibit or restrict all persons, bodies, and authorities from opening into the River Gala and its tributaries, or into the River Tweed or any of them, or into the dams, mill-leads, or into any cut, ditch, sewer, drain pipe, channel, stream, or water course, communicating as aforesaid, any ditch, drain pipe, channel, with intent or in order thereby to provide for the flow or passage of any poisonous, noxious, or polluting liquid, or poisonous, noxious, or polluting solid or liquid matter or sewage, or other offensive or injurious matter, or any other matter which will or may render the water polluted, discoloured, or impure, into the River Gala and its tributaries, or any of them, or into the mill-leads, or into any cut, ditch, sewer, drain pipe, channel, stream, or water course communicating with the same or any of them.

18. To prohibit the opening by any person, body, or authority not authorised by the Corporation of any sewer, drain, or pipe into the existing or proposed main and branch sewers, conduits, or pipes authorised by the Order, and to prohibit the sending or permitting to flow or pass into the same of any liquid substance or matter that would, in the opinion of the Corporation, be injurious to the construction or use of the sewers, conduits, pipes, or works.

19. To empower the Corporation to exercise as regards the River Gala and mill-leads thereon within the Burgh of Galashiels the powers of local and sanitary authorities under the Rivers Pollution Prevention Act and the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and any other Acts, or any of them, and with such amendments or enlarged powers as the Order may provide.

20. To confer such powers as may be necessary or expedient upon the Corporation to cause any sewers and drains belonging to them, or to any other local and sanitary authority or person beyond the jurisdiction of the Corporation, to communicate with the main sewers and pipes of the Corporation on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between them and the Corporation, or, failing agreement, or as may be determined by or under the provisions of the Order, and to enable such authorities or persons to execute all necessary works for the purpose, and to appropriate and apply funds and raise additional funds by rates and assessment or otherwise therefor.

21. To provide for the exclusion or diversion of rain and surface water from the sewers and drains to be constructed, and to prevent the same, except with the consent of the Corporation, from flowing into any existing sewers or any main and branch sewers constructed under the Order, and to provide for the diversion and exclusion in whole or in part of rain and surface and flood water accordingly, and to provide, if the Corporation think fit, a separate system of drainage for the same; and to authorise the Corporation to remove, if they think fit, and to charge for the removal of trade refuse. To abolish privies, middens, and all receptacles for noxious refuse. To require all owners to connect their property with the drainage to be provided by the Order in such a way and manner as the Corporation may decide. To require houses to be drained by a combined operation and to apportion the cost thereof. To constitute the Burgh as extended into one drainage area for all purposes.

22. To authorise and empower the Corporation to impose, levy, and assess within the Burgh as the same may be extended under the Order, new and additional rates, assessments, charges, and contributions, differential or uniform or graduated for the purposes of the Order, and for the construction and maintenance of the works authorised by the Order, and of any existing main and branch sewers and all other subsidiary works, and for the purchase of lands, on and from the owners and occupiers or from the owners or occupiers of all lands and heritages situated within the Burgh of Galashiels according to the extended boundaries thereof under the Order, and to make provision for the recovery and collection of all such rates, charges, contributions, and assessments in such way and manner as the Order will provide, or to adopt and incorporate with the Order the provisions of the General Police and Improvements (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1903, and the provisions of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, or either of them, and any Acts amending or extending the same with respect to the levying, collecting, and recovering of assessments, and to make the same with such alterations, enlargements, additions, modifications, or amendments as may be necessary applicable to the levying, collecting, and recovering the rates, charges, contributions, and assessments under the Order.

23. To empower the Corporation to apply their funds and to borrow money for the purposes of the Order on the security of the rates, assessments, and charges to be authorised by the Order, and of the rates and assessments which the Corporation may levy under the Burgh Police Acts or the Public Health Acts, or under any of them, and of such amount and in such way and manner, whether by mortgage, cash credit, terminable annuity, or otherwise, as shall be considered expedient, and to re-borrow and to provide for a sinking fund for the repayment of borrowed money.

24. To authorise the Corporation to make, alter, and vary and rescind bye-laws and regulations for the better carrying out of the purposes of the Order, and to attach penalties to the breach or non-observance of any of the provisions of the Order, and to provide all necessary means for enforcing such bye-laws and regulations and penalties for breach thereof, and of any of the other provisions of the Order.

25. To provide, vary, and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects, powers, and purposes of the Order as may be necessary and expedient in carrying out the said several objects, and to confer all such powers as are usually inserted in Orders of a like nature.

26. To incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts and the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the temporary occupation of lands during execution of works and with respect to the crossing of railways and interference therewith and other purposes, and the Galashiels Municipal Extension Police and Water Act, 1876, the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1903, the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and Acts amending and extending the same, the Rivers Pollution Prevention Act, 1876, with such amendments, alterations, and variations as the Order may prescribe or as may be expedient.

27. To amend and so far as necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid to repeal all or some of the provisions of the North British, Edinburgh, Perth and Dundee, and West of Fife Railway Amalgamation Act, 1862, and all other Acts relating to or affecting the North British Railway Company, or the undertakings belonging to, amalgamated with or held on lease or worked or authorised or vested in that Company; the Galashiels Municipal Extension and Police and Water Act, 1876; the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, 1892 to 1903; the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897; the Town Council (Scotland) Acts, 1900 and 1903, and all or any other Acts affecting the Order or its purposes or amending or extending any of the said Acts, and to incorporate and re-enact and make applicable to the Order all or some of the provisions of some one or more of the aforesaid Acts.

28. To extend for all municipal, police, public health, and all other purposes whatsoever the existing boundaries of the Burgh of Galashiels, and to include and incorporate therein the area and lands and heritages before described, to be acquired for the purification works and purposes incidental thereto, or some part or parts thereof, as part of the said Burgh of Galashiels, and to separate for the purposes of such extension and of the Order the said area and the lands and heritages therein from the County of Roxburgh, and from the management, jurisdiction, and administration of the local or other authority thereof, under any Acts of Parliament public or private, or Provisional Orders, and to exempt the said area proposed to be annexed from all County rates and other assessments, and from all other tolls, rates, assessments, and charges now enforceable or which may be levied or charged under any existing public or private local Acts or Orders in force or applicable within the said areas or part thereof, and to include the same within the Burgh of Galashiels and the County of Selkirk.

29. The said area and the lands and heritages intended to be annexed to the Burgh of Galashiels are hereinafter referred to as "the District annexed." The existing boundaries of the said Burgh and the district annexed are respectively shown on the map to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and if any discrepancy between the description of the boundaries and the boundaries as shown on the said map, the Order will provide that the map will prevail.

30. To transfer to the Burgh and to the Town Council of the Burgh all or some of the powers, authorities, jurisdictions, and provisions applicable to or exercisable by any local or other authorities presently exercising jurisdiction within the district annexed, and to extend to the district annexed and to the inhabitants thereof the same municipal franchises and all rights, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations that are enjoyed and are possessed by or are incumbent on the inhabitants of the existing Burgh, and to extend the powers and jurisdictions of the Town Council and of the Magistrates and of the Dean of Guild Court and any other Court to and over the districts annexed, and to make applicable thereto all or some of the provisions of any public or private or local Acts, statutes, enactments, charters, deeds, agreements, or Orders and Bye-laws and Regulations in force within or applicable to the existing Burgh or the inhabitants thereof.

31. To make all provisions incidental to the purposes of such extension and convenient for carrying out the same, and for giving full effect to the purposes thereof.

32. And Notice is hereby given that on or before the 30th day of March, 1907, a copy and duplicate thereof showing the boundaries of the existing Burgh of Galashiels and also the boundaries of the District proposed to be annexed will be deposited for public inspection with the Town Clerk of the Burgh of Galashiels at his Office in Galashiels, and a copy of the said map will also be deposited at the Office of the Board of Agriculture.

33. And Notice is further hereby given that duplicate plans and sections, describing the lines, situations, and levels of the works respectively hereinbefore described, and of the lands and property, which may be taken for the purposes thereof, and of the Order and of the works and conveniences connected therewith or which may be taken under the powers of deviation before mentioned, and also of the other lands and property which may be taken for the other purposes before mentioned of the Order, together with a book of reference to the said plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees and occupiers of such lands, property, and works, and a copy of this Notice as published in the "Edinburgh Gazette" will on or before the 30th day of March 1907, be deposited for public inspection in the Office at Selkirk of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Selkirk, and also at the Office of the Sheriff Clerk at Galashiels, and also at the Office of the Principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Roxburgh, at Jedburgh and Melrose respectively, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to the parishes aforesaid or to the said Burgh of Galashiels, together with a copy of this Notice, will be deposited, on or before the said date, for public inspection as regards the said Parishes at the Office of the Clerk of the Parish Council of each of such parishes, and so far as regards the Burgh of Galashiels with the Town Clerk at his Office at Galashiels.

34. The Petition for the Order and printed copies thereof and of the Draft Order will be lodged at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, on the 17th day of April next, and on the same day a printed copy of the Draft Order will be deposited in the Office of Clerk of the Parliaments and in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

35. The subsequent procedure will be by way of Provisional Order unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of Private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Order.

Dated this 18th day of March, 1907.
