E. by N. distant seven or eight leagues, I had the good fortune to decoy within musket shot, a large French privateer, who struck after we had fired at him for three quarters of an hour; she proved to be L'Alliance, pierced for twelve guns, having only six mounted, four six-pounders and two nines, commanded by Jaques Dunoque, manned with sixty-eight men, out three days from Samaria, and had taken nothing; she is a fine vessel, but much cut in her sails and rigging, and had only one man slightly wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c. J. A. GORDON.

Sir J. T. Duckworth, K. B. &c. Franchise, at Sea, Sept. 14. 1804.

SIR—I have the honour to acquaint you, that yesterday, after a chase of eight hours, his Majesty's ship Franchise under my command, was fortunate to come up with and capture the Uranie French privateer schooner, of three guns and forty-four men, belonging to the city of St. Domingo, out thirteen days, and has taken nothing. The Uranie is supposed to be the fastest sailing vessel in these seas.

I have the honour to be, &c. JOHN MURRAY.
