THE WEMYSS & DISTRICT TRAMWAYS COMPANY LTD.

IN terms of section 46 of the Tramways Act, 1870, the above Company hereby give notice that they have made the following Bye-laws and Regulations, viz. :—

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS made by The Wemyss & District Tramways Company Limited, under the powers conferred on the Company by the Tramways Act, 1870.

1. The Bye-laws and Regulations hereinafter set forth shall extend and apply to all carriages of the Company, and to all places with respect to which the Company have power to make Bye-laws or Regulations.

2. No passenger shall smoke inside any carriage, or compartment of any carriage, not especially provided for that purpose.

3. No passenger or other person shall, while travelling in or upon any carriage, play or perform upon any musical instrument.

4. A person in a state of intoxication shall not be allowed to enter or mount upon any carriage, and if found in or upon any carriage shall be immediately removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

5. No person shall swear or use obscene or offensive language whilst in or upon any carriage, or commit any nuisance in or upon or against any carriage, or wilfully interfere with the comfort of any passenger.

6. No person shall wilfully cut, tear, soil, or damage the cushions or the linings, or remove or deface any numberplate, printed or other notice, in or on the carriage, or break or scratch any window of or otherwise wilfully damage any carriage. Any person acting in contravention of this Regulation shall be liable to the penalty prescribed by these Bye-laws and Regulations in addition to the liability to pay the amount of any damage done.

7. A person whose dress or clothing might, in the opinion of the conductor of a carriage, soil or injure the seats, linings or cushions of the carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, or a person who, in the opinion of the conductor, might for any other reason be offensive to passengers, shall not be entitled to enter or remain in any carriage, and may be prevented from entering any carriage, and shall not enter any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor, and, if found in any carriage, shall, on request of the conductor leave the carriage upon the fare if previously paid, being returned. Provided that on carriages run for artisans, mechanics or daily labourers, no artisan, mechanic or daily labourer shall be prevented from entering or requested to leave a carriage under the provisions of this bye-law on the ground of the condition of his clothing if such condition is solely due to the nature of his employment.

8. Each passenger shall, upon demand, pay to the conductor or other duly authorised officer of the Company the fare legally demandable for the journey.

9. Each passenger shall show his ticket (if any) when required so to do to the conductor or any duly authorised servant of the Company, and shall also when required so to do either deliver up his ticket or pay the fare legally demandable for the distance travelled over by such passenger.

10. A passenger not being an artisan, mechanic, or daily labourer, within the true intent and meaning of the statutory provisions relating to the Company, shall not use or attempt to use any ticket intended only for such artisans, mechanics or daily labourers.

11. Personal or other luggage (including the tools of artisans, mechanics, and daily labourers) shall, unless otherwise permitted by the conductor, be placed on the front or driver's platform, and not in the interior or on the roof of any carriage.

12. No passenger or other person not being a servant of the Company shall be permitted to travel on the steps or platforms of any carriage, or (without the permission of the conductor) stand in the interior of any carriage, and any person so travelling or standing shall cease to do so immediately on request by the conductor.

13. No person, except a passenger or intending passenger, shall enter or mount any carriage, and no person shall hold or hang on by or to any part of the outside of any carriage.

14. When any carriage contains the full number of passengers which it is licensed to contain, no additional person shall enter, mount, or remain in or on any such carriage when warned by the conductor not to do so.

15. No person shall enter, or mount, or leave, or attempt to enter, mount, or leave, any carriage whilst in motion.

16. No dog or other animal shall be allowed in or on any carriage, except by permission of the conductor. No person shall take a dog or other animal into any carriage after having been requested not to do so by the conductor. Any dog or other animal taken into or on any carriage in breach of this Regulation shall be removed by the person in charge of such dog or other animal from the carriage immediately upon request by the conductor, and in default of compliance with such request, may be removed by or under the direction of the conductor.

17. No person shall travel in or on any carriage of the Company with loaded firearms, or with any highly inflammable or other dangerous or objectionable material.

18. No passenger shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the execution of his duty upon or in connection with any carriage or tramway of the Company.

19. The conductor of each carriage shall enforce or prevent the breach of these Bye-laws and Regulations to the best of his ability.

20. Any person offending against or committing a breach of any of these Bye-laws or Regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

21. The expression "conductor" shall include any officer or servant in the employment of the Company and having charge of a carriage.

22. There shall be placed and kept placed in a conspicuous position inside of each carriage in use a printed copy of these Bye-laws and Regulations.

23. These Bye-laws shall come into force on the first day of August 1907.

J. OGILVY SHEPHERD, Secretary of the Company.
