THE MOTOR CARS REGULATION (BURGH OF ABERFELDY) ORDER, 1907, dated 28th June 1907.

Whereas by section 9, as read with section 18, of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is provided that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Secretary for Scotland with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the Local Authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas by section 10, as read with section 18, of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is provided that Local Authorities, within the meaning of section 9 of the said Act, shall give public notice of any regulation of the Secretary for Scotland, made in pursuance of the said Act, prohibiting or restricting the use of motor cars on any highway, or part of a highway, or limiting the speed of motor cars within any limits or place, and for the purpose of giving effect to any such regulation shall place notices in conspicuous places on or near the highway, part of a highway, limits or place, to which the regulation refers:

And whereas the Town Council of the Burgh of Aberfeldy, being the Local Authority of the said Burgh, have applied to me to make regulations under section 9 of the said Act, and I am of opinion that it is desirable to give effect to the said application to the extent hereinafter mentioned.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in me in that behalf, I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby make the following regulations under the said section 9:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Motor Cars Regulation (Burgh of Aberfeldy) Order, 1907," and the regulations hereby prescribed shall take effect within the limits or places referred to therein on and after the respective dates at which, for the purpose of giving effect thereto, the Local Authority shall place notices in conspicuous places on or near such limits or places.
2. A person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour within the limits or places specified in the schedule to these regulations.

Given under my hand and seal at Whitehall, this 28th day of June 1907.

L. S.

JOHN SINCLAIR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland,

Schedule.
