CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
August 23, 1907.

NOTICE is hereby given that, upon a special recommendation from the Postmaster-General, and with the assent of the Treasury, Messrs. Robert Finlay and John Allan, having served as Clerks of the Second Division for upwards of eight years, have been promoted to First Class Clerkships in the Accountant's Office, Edinburgh, of the General Post Office, with special certificates granted exceptionally by the Civil Service Commissioners.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
August 23, 1907.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for situations as Male Learner in Dublin in the Department of the Postmaster-General will be held in Dublin, on the 30th October 1907, under the Regulations dated the 1st March 1907, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

Appointments will be offered to not fewer than four of the Candidates highest on the list, provided they obtain the necessary aggregate of marks and are duly qualified in other respects.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 10th October, an application in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.
BURGH OF BRIDGE OF ALLAN.

Notice is hereby given that the Town Council of the Burgh of Bridge of Allan have made application to the Secretary for Scotland praying that regulations under the Motor Car Act should be made restricting the rate of speed of Motor Cars to ten miles an hour within the limits specified in the application.

Notice is hereby further given that the application, and a map on a sufficient scale showing the roads proposed for restriction and the points where restriction begins and ends, may be inspected at the Office of the Town-Clerk, Fountain Road, Bridge of Allan, between the hours of 10 A.M. and 1 P.M., and that objections to the making of any such regulations may be sent in writing to the Secretary for Scotland, at the Scottish Office, Whitehall, London, at any time within fourteen days of the date of publication of this advertisement. A copy of any such objection should be sent at the same time to the Town-Clerk.
