WHITEHALL, October 17, 1907.

THE King has been pleased to issue a Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect:—

EDWARD, R. and I.

EDWARD THE SEVENTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India, to all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting!

Whereas We are desirous of distinguishing by some mark of Our Royal Favour the many heroic acts performed by Miners and Quarrymen and others who endanger their own lives in saving or endeavouring to save the lives of others from perils in Mines or Quarries within Our Dominions and in territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction, We do by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors institute and create a new Medal to be awarded for such acts of gallantry:

Firstly.—It is ordained that the Medal shall be of two classes which shall be designated and styled "The Edward Medal of the First Class" and "The Edward Medal of the Second Class."

Secondly.—It is ordained that the Edward Medal of the First Class shall consist of a circular Medal of Silver with Our Effigy on the obverse, and on the reverse a design representing the rescue of a miner with the inscription "For courage."

Thirdly.—It is ordained that the Edward Medal of the Second Class shall consist of a circular Medal of Bronze of a similar design.

Fourthly.—It is ordained that the Medals shall only be awarded to those of Our Faithful Subjects and others who, in saving or endeavouring to save the lives of others from perils in Mines and Quarries within Our Dominions and in territories under Our Protection or Jurisdiction, have endangered their own lives, and that such award shall be made only on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Fifthly.—It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer either of these decorations shall be published in the London Gazette, and that a Register thereof shall be kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

Sixthly.—It is ordained that each Medal shall be suspended from the left breast, and the riband, of an inch and three-eighths in width, shall be dark blue with a narrow yellow stripe on either side: Provided that when the medal is awarded to a woman it shall be worn on the left shoulder, suspended from a riband of the same width and colour, fashioned into a bow.

Seventhly.—It is ordained that any act of gallantry which is worthy of recognition by the award of the Edward medal, but is performed by one upon whom the Decoration has already been conferred, may, on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Medal is suspended; and for every such additional act an additional Bar may be added.

Eighthly.—In Order to make such provision as shall effectually preserve pure these most honourable Decorations, it is ordained that if any person, on whom either of such Decorations is conferred, be guilty of any crime or disgraceful conduct which, in our judgment, disqualifies him for the same, his name shall, by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, be forthwith erased from the Register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred, and his Medal shall be forfeited. And every person to whom the said Medal is given shall, before receiving the same, enter into an agreement to return the same, if his name shall be so erased as aforesaid under this regulation. It is hereby further declared, that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstances demanding such forfeiture. Moreover, We shall at all times have power to regrant a Medal to any person whose Medal may at any time have been forfeited.

Given at Our Court at Saint James, the thirteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seven, in the seventh year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

H. J. GLADSTONE.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACTS.

COUNTY COUNCIL ELECTORAL DIVISION OF EAST WEMYSS, IN THE COUNTY OF FIFE.

WHEREAS by his Order, dated 15th August 1904, the Secretary for Scotland determined the contents and boundaries of the Electoral Divisions of West Wemyss and East Wemyss, in the Parish of Wemyss and County of Fife:

And whereas the boundaries of the Police Burgh of Buckhaven, Methil, and Innerleven, in the said Parish, were extended under the provisions of the Buckhaven, Methil, and Innerleven Burgh Extension Act, 1906, so as to include part of the area formerly included in East Wemyss Electoral Division:

And whereas, in view of the foregoing change of circumstances, the County Council of the County of Fife have represented to me that the said Electoral Division of East Wemyss should be restricted to the portion thereof which lies outwith the extended Burgh boundaries, and have applied to me for an Order in terms of section 51 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1889, providing for a readjustment and redescription of the contents and boundaries of the Electoral Division of East Wemyss aforesaid:

And whereas I am of opinion that it is expedient to give effect to the application of the County Council:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable John Sinclair, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, in virtue of the powers conferred upon me by the said Act, do hereby order as follows:—

The Order of the Secretary for Scotland dated 15th August 1904 is hereby recalled in so far as concerns the Electoral Division of East Wemyss; and from and after the date hereof the contents and boundaries of the said Electoral Division shall be as follows:—

That part of the Parish of Wemyss which lies to the east of a line beginning at a point at the Parish Boundary 150 feet north-west from the north corner of the Standing Stone Plantation, thence along the north-west side of said plantation to the Standing Stone Road, thence north-eastward along said road to the north end of Newton Farm service road, thence along said road and through Newton Farm steading till the public road from Kirkcaldy to Leven is reached, thence in a direct line to the chimney of the Michael Pit, thence southwards in a direct line to the sea at high water mark, but exclusive of the portion of of the Parish of Wemyss which is included within the limits of the Police Burgh of Buckhaven, Methil, and Innerleven, as extended (1) in terms of Interlocutor by the Sheriff of Fife of date 4th February 1902; and (2) in terms of the Buckhaven, Methil, and Innerleven Burgh Extension Act, 1906.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Whitehall this eighteenth day of October 1907.

L. S.

JOHN SINCLAIR,
His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.
