By His Majesty's Command.

WINSTON S. CHURCHILL.

At the Court at St. James', the 13th day of October 1910.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the late King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the 19th day of March 1908 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order), His Majesty provided for the transfer, on and from the 1st April 1908, to the Territorial Force of certain units of Yeomanry and Volunteers, and in connection with such transfer made certain provisions with reference to the property belonging to or held for the benefit of such units:

And whereas, it being intended at the date of the principal Order that the units specified in the first column of the Schedule to that Order (in this Order referred to as the original Schedule), should, on transfer to the Territorial Force, become the units and be known by the titles specified in the second column of the original Schedule, it was provided by the principal Order that the several units or parts of units of the Yeomanry or Volunteers detailed in the first column of the original Schedule should be transferred to the Territorial Force, and should thereafter be units of the Territorial Force, and should be respectively known by the titles specified in the second column of the original Schedule:

And whereas amongst the units so detailed in the first column of the original Schedule were included the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order, and the titles by which such units on transfer to the Territorial Force were to be respectively known specified in the second column of the original Schedule were those detailed in the second column of the Schedule to this Order:

And whereas, partly owing to the fact that such intentions were never fully carried into effect, and partly owing to clerical errors, the said units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order on transfer to the Territorial Force actually became the units, and became known by the titles detailed in the fourth column of the Schedule to this order:

And whereas the third column of the original Schedule was intended to detail the county associations by which the several units of the Territorial Force detailed in the second column of that Schedule were to be administered, but owing partly to such changes of intention as aforesaid, and partly to clerical errors, the county associations which have actually administered the units of the Territorial Force corresponding to the units of the Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order are those detailed in the fifth column of that Schedule, and not (so far as they differ) those detailed in the third column of that Schedule:

And whereas in the first column of the original Schedule amongst the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers there detailed there are mentioned the 9th Royal Scots (except H Company) and the Scottish Rifles, 1st Lanarkshire Volunteer Rifle Corps (except K Company), and those units should have been mentioned without the exception of such companies as aforesaid:

And whereas by reason of the premises it is expedient that the original Schedule should be amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the principal Order shall have effect, and shall be deemed always to have had effect as if—

(A) for the units of the Territorial Force and county associations in the second and third columns of the original Schedule respectively set opposite such of the units of Yeomanry and Volunteers detailed in the first column of the original Schedule as are detailed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order, there were respectively set opposite such last mentioned units the units of the Territorial Force and county associations detailed in the fourth and fifth columns of the Schedule to this Order; and

(B) in the first column of the original Schedule the said exceptions of Company H of the 9th Royal Scots, and company K of the Scottish Rifles, 1st Lanarkshire Volunteer Rifle Corps, were deleted.

The Honourable Mr. Justice Lush (Charles Montague Lush).

WHITEHALL, October 14, 1910.

The King was pleased, on Wednesday last, the 12th October, at Marlborough House, to present to Mrs. Lilian Nathalie Dawes the Albert

Medal of the Second Class which, but for his untimely death, would have been awarded to her late husband, Captain Nicholas Bernard Edwin Dawes, R.E., Officiating Chief Engineer and Secretary to the Government of Mysore, in recognition of his gallantry in endeavouring to save life, as detailed below:—

On the afternoon of Friday, the 30th July, 1909, Captain Dawes was engaged upon the difficult and dangerous task of reconstructing a large dam across the Canvery River at Krishnarajkatte, Mysore State, while the river was in full flood.

Captain Dawes and a workman were on a raft towed by a boat consisting of two dugouts lashed together. Weighted barrels had been lowered to the river bottom from the raft, which was then pulled towards the boat and allowed to drift towards a hawser for the purpose of being drawn to an island in the river. While the party were being hauled to land the strong current caused the dugouts to heel over, and the coolies becoming frightened matters were made worse, the occupants of the last boat and raft having to jump into the river.

Captain Dawes swam to within about 10 feet of the island, and then turned round and seemed to be counting the men to see that all were safe. He noticed one man being carried down mid-stream towards the breach, and swam out to help him. He was swept through the breach, and must have been dashed against a rock, as there was no shout for help or other signal of distress. His body was not recovered until three days later. The Indian was washed ashore some 500 or 600 yards down stream in a badly bruised condition.
