FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1910.

EARL MARSHAL'S OFFICE.

3 CLEVELAND ROW, S.W.,

November 1, 1910.

THE King's Most Excellent Majesty having been pleased to command me, as Earl Marshal of England, forthwith to prepare and countersign letters to be passed under the Royal Sign Manual, requiring the attendance of the Peers and Peeresses of Great Britain at the solemnity of the Royal Coronation of His Majesty and of Her Majesty the Queen, and the King having been further pleased to command me to prepare such letters also for those Peers of that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, called Ireland, whose right to vote at the election of a representative Peer for Ireland has, on claim made on their behalf, been admitted by the House of Lords of the United Kingdom, and who are not now Members of the House of Commons of the United Kingdom, I do hereby request that all those Peers who, in conformity to the above regulations, are entitled to assist at the solemnity of the Royal Coronation of Their Majesties, will be pleased to transmit their respective addresses to me, at this office, and that the Dowager-Peeresses and Peeresses who may claim to attend at the said Coronation, will be also pleased to transmit their respective Christian names and addresses to me, in order that their letters of summons may be prepared without delay.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.

EARL MARSHAL'S OFFICE,

3 CLEVELAND ROW, S.W.,

November 1, 1910.

THE Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c., which are to be worn by the Peers at the Coronation of Their Most Sacred Majesties King George the Fifth and Queen Mary.

These are to give notice to all Peers who attend at the Coronation of Their Majesties, that the robe or mantle of the Peers be of crimson velvet, edged with miniver, the cape furred with miniver pure, and powdered with bars orr ows of ermine (i.e., narrow pieces of black fur), according to their degree, viz. :—

- Barons, two rows.
- Viscounts, two rows and a half.
- Earls, three rows.
- Marquesses, three rows and a half.
- Dukes, four rows.

The said mantles or robes to be worn over full Court dress, uniform, or regimentals.

The coronets to be of silver gilt; the caps of crimson velvet turned up with ermine, with a gold tassel on the top; and no jewels or precious stones are to be set or used in the coronets, or counterfeit pearls instead of silver balls.

The coronet of a Baron to have on the circle or rim, six silver balls at equal distances.

The coronet of a Viscount to have, on the circle, sixteen silver balls.

The coronet of an Earl to have, on the circle, eight silver balls, raised upon points, with gold strawberry leaves between the points.

The coronet of a Marquis to have, on the circle, four gold strawberry leaves and four silver balls alternately, the latter a little raised on points above the rim.

The coronet of a Duke to have, on the circle, eight gold strawberry leaves.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.

EARL MARSHAL'S OFFICE,
3 CLEVELAND ROW, S.W.,
November 1, 1910.

THE Earl Marshal's Order concerning the Robes, Coronets, &c., which are to be worn by the Peeresses at the Coronation of Their Most Sacred Majesties King George the Fifth and Queen Mary.

These are to give notice to all Peeresses who attend at the Coronation of Their Majesties, that the robes or mantles appertaining to their respective ranks are to be worn over the usual full Court dress.

That the robe or mantle of a Baroness be of crimson velvet, the cape whereof to be furred with miniver pure, and powdered with two bars or rows of ermine (i.e., narrow pieces of black fur); the said mantle to be edged round with miniver pure two inches in breadth, and the train to be three feet on the ground; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz.:—a rim or circle with six pearls (represented by silver balls) upon the same, not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Viscountess be like that of a Baroness, only the cape powdered with two rows and a half of ermine, the edging of the mantle two inches as before, and the train a yard and a quarter; the coronet to be according to her degree, viz.:—a rim or circle with pearls (represented by silver balls) thereon, sixteen in number, and not raised upon points.

That the robe or mantle of a Countess be as before, only the cape powdered, with three rows of ermine, the edging three inches in breadth, and the train a yard and a half; the coronet to be composed of eight pearls (represented by silver balls) raised upon points or rays, with small strawberry leaves between, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Marchioness be as before, only the cape powdered with three rows and a half of ermine, the edging four inches in breadth, the train a yard and three quarters; the coronet to be composed of four strawberry leaves and four pearls (represented by silver balls) raised upon points of the same height as the leaves, alternately, above the rim.

That the robe or mantle of a Duchess be as before, only the cape powdered with four rows of ermine, the edging five inches broad, the train two yards; the coronet to be composed of eight strawberry leaves, all of equal height, above the rim.

And that the caps of all the said coronets be of crimson velvet, turned up with ermine, with a tassel of gold on the top.

NORFOLK,
Earl Marshal.

NOTE.—Only those Peers and Peeresses who reply to the above intimation before the first day of January 1911, will receive the Royal Command to attend the Ceremony of the Coronation.

It is to be understood that the above Orders refer to all English, Scottish, and Irish Peers (except Peers who are minors, and Irish Peers who have seats in the House of Commons), Peeresses in their own right, the widows of Peers, and the wives of living Peers, including the wives of Irish Peers who have seats in the House of Commons.

With respect to such widows of Peers who have remarried under the rank of the Peerage, they, according to former precedent, are considered as not entitled to such summons.

As to widows of Peers who have remarried with a Peer of lower degree, their precedence, according to precedent, is that of their last husband.

Peers and Peeresses in their own right whose highest dignity is in the Peerage of Scotland or Ireland will wear robes and coronets of such dignity, as also the wife or widow of such Peer.

[The following Notice is substituted for that relating to the same Order which appeared in the Edinburgh Gazette of Friday, October 28th, 1910]:—

Education (Scotland) Act, 1908.

ORDER No. 5 BY THE SCOTCH EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT.

SCHOOL BOARD OF KIRKCALDY AND DYSART.

At Dover House, Whitehall, the twenty-seventh day of October 1910.

By the Lords of the Committee of the Privy
Council on Education in Scotland.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of section 22 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908 (8 Edward VII., cap. 63), it is enacted that where it is represented to the Department by a School Board that it would be expedient that the district or part of a district of the said school board should be united with the adjacent district or part of district of another school board, so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board, the Department shall consult with the authorities concerned, and may cause a local inquiry to be held, and, if they are of opinion that the districts should be united, may by order provide for uniting the said districts as aforesaid:

And whereas it has been represented to the Department by the School Board of the Burgh of Kirkcaldy that it would be expedient that the district of the said School Board should be united with the adjacent district of the School Board of the Burgh of Dysart so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board:

And whereas the Department, after consulting with the authorities concerned and causing a local inquiry to be held, are of opinion that the said districts should be united as aforesaid:

And whereas it is expedient that the said districts should be united as aforesaid:

And whereas a proposed Order to that effect was duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette of 26th August 1910, in terms of subsection (2) of section 22 as aforesaid:

And whereas all objections and representations respecting the same have been duly considered :

Now therefore the Department, in virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred upon them by the enactment above recited, do hereby order as follows: videlicet ;

1. The district of the School Board of the Burgh of Kirkcaldy shall, from and after the date at which this Order shall commence to have effect, be united with the district of the School Board of the Burgh of Dysart so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one School Board.

2. The existing school boards of the Burgh of Kirkcaldy and the Burgh of Dysart shall cease to exist, and there shall be established in their room for the districts united as aforesaid one school board to be called "The School Board of Kirkcaldy and Dysart."

3. The said School Board of Kirkcaldy and Dysart (hereinafter referred to as "the School Board") shall consist of the eighteen members who at the date hereof constitute the said existing school boards. The said members shall hold office until the school board election to be held in the year 1911 in terms of section 27, subsection (1) of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908, after which date the number of members of the School Board shall be thirteen.

4. The whole property heritable and moveable, real and personal, including the respective school funds and any funds held in trust, belonging to the existing school boards, and all debts and obligations due to the existing school boards, shall be transferred to and vested in the School Board; and all teachers, janitors, officers, and other employees in the service of the existing school boards shall be transferred to, and become teachers, janitors, officers, and employees in the service of the School Board.

5. The whole debts and liabilities of the existing school boards shall be taken over by, and become debts and liabilities of, the School Board.

6. The whole expenses of the proceedings in connection with this Order shall be defrayed out of the school fund of the School Board.

7. In this Order the expression "the Department" means the Scotch Education Department.

8. This Order shall commence to have effect on the 1st day of December 1910.

J. STRUTHERS,
Secretary to the Scotch Education
Department.

Education (Scotland) Act, 1908.

ORDER NO. VI. BY THE SCOTCH EDUCATION
DEPARTMENT.

SCHOOL BOARD OF NEWBURGH.
SCHOOL BOARD OF ABDIE.

At Dover House, Whitehall, the first day of November 1910.

By the Lords of the Committee of the Privy
Council on Education in Scotland.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Scotch Education Department (hereinafter called "the Department") by the School Board of Newburgh that it would be expedient that a part of the adjacent district of the School

Board of Abdie, being the part hereinafter referred to and defined, should be united with the district of the School Board of Newburgh, so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one School Board :

And whereas on the 30th day of July 1909 the Department issued an Order bearing to annex a part of the parish of Abdie (being that part now included within the burgh of Newburgh in terms of a deliverance of the Sheriff of Fife dated the 21st day of July 1907) to the district of the School Board of Newburgh :

And whereas doubts have arisen as to the competency of the said Order, and it is expedient that these doubts should be removed and the representation of the School Board of Newburgh aforesaid given effect to :

And whereas the Department have consulted with the authorities concerned and, after due inquiry into the circumstances, are of opinion that it is expedient that the said part of the district of the School Board of Abdie should be united with the district of the School Board of Newburgh, so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one School Board.

And whereas a proposed Order to that effect was duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette of 12th August 1910, in terms of subsection (2) of section 22 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908, 8 Edward VII., cap. 63 :

And whereas no objections or representations respecting the same have been received :

Now therefore the Department in pursuance of section 22 of the enactment above recited, and in virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred on them, hereby Order as follows :—

1. The part of the Parish of Abdie annexed to the Burgh of Newburgh by deliverance of the Sheriff of Fife as aforesaid, being part of the district of the School Board of Abdie, shall be united with the district of the School Board of Newburgh so as for all purposes to constitute a district under the said School Board of Newburgh.

2. In respect of the foregoing arrangement the School Board of Newburgh shall pay annually to the School Board of Abdie in satisfaction of all competent claims, and as one of the terms on which this Order is pronounced, the sum of one guinea for five years. Such payment shall be made in equal half-yearly instalments of ten shillings and sixpence, payable on the 11th November and 15th May in each year, the first instalment being payable on the 11th November 1909.

3. Notwithstanding the date hereof, this Order shall be held to have taken effect as from the 30th day of July 1909.

J. STRUTHERS,
Secretary to the Scotch Education
Department.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.

November 1, 1910.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that an Open Competitive Examination of Candidates for registration as Temporary Boy Clerks will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Leeds, Liverpool, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Plymouth, Southampton, Glasgow, Belfast, and Cork, commencing on the 3rd January 1911, under the Regulations dated the 27th September 1910, and published in the London Gazette of the same date.

The number to be registered will depend partly on the requirements of the service, and partly on the number of Candidates who may show sufficient proficiency; but it is not likely to be less than 150, if so many shall be found competent: that is to say, 135 for service in London, Edinburgh, and provincial towns in England, Scotland, and Wales, and 15 for service in Dublin and provincial towns of Ireland exclusively.

No Candidate will be admitted to the Examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service

Commission, has not received on or before the 7th December an application, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
