

size, nor the thickness of her sides, that was so well-intended.

I beg most earnestly to solicit Sir Andrew Mitchell's patronage in favour of Messrs Howes and Ridgeway, (Master's Mates,) as two very meritorious and promising young men, having considerably more than served their time, and passed for Lieutenants; their conduct on this occasion, as well as for several years before, with me, has been much to my satisfaction, and in my humble opinion, to entitle them to promotion, as well as for Mr Balfour the First Lieutenant; as you, Sir, must be the best judge of the situation we have reduced the French ship to, so as to render her chance of escape from our numerous cruisers almost an absolute impossibility.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Copy of a letter from Captain Langford, Commander of his Majesty's sloop Lark, to William Marsden, Esq. dated Port Praya, island of St Jago, Feb. 8. 1805.

Sir—I have the honour to inform you, that in consequence of information of a Spanish merchant schooner being at anchor off the Bay of Senegal, I proceeded immediately in quest of her, and had the good fortune to meet with her at that anchorage. She proves the Spanish schooner the Carmerara, pierced for sixteen guns, having only two on board, laden with wine, formerly in possession of the French, employed as a privateer by Victor Hughes at Cayenne, has done considerable mischief to the British trade on this coast; was now intended to have been presented by the Governor of Senegal to Victor Hughes, as a further annoyance to our trade on this part of the coast. I have the honour to be, &c.

FREDERICK LANGFORD.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES MELLEES, Merchant in Stirling.

MR MELLEES having, at a meeting of creditors, held 5th March last, offered a composition to his creditors of 5s. 6d. in the pound of all his just and lawful debts, payable at 9 and 15 months, and suggested Bailie John Sutherland, merchant in Stirling, as his cautioner, again renewed the offer at a subsequent meeting, regularly called and held on 3d April current: Which offer the meeting having deliberately considered, unanimously accepted, and declared themselves satisfied with the cautioner proposed.

That a report of the proceedings having been since made up by the trustee, and a bond of cautionry for the composition and expence, lodged with the clerk, along with a list of debts proven against the estate, and list of creditors who agreed to accept the composition, and other writings, from which it appeared that upwards of 9-10ths in number and value of the creditors had acceded to the offer, an application was made to the Lord Ordinary on the bills, to approve of the composition offered, and to discharge the bankrupt of all debts contracted prior to the 13th December 1804, the date of the sequestration, except as to the payment of the composition, and also for an exoneration of the trustee, &c. On this petition Lord Bannatyne, Ordinary, gave the following deliverance:—“Edinburgh, 22d April 1805.

The Lord Bannatyne, Ordinary, officiating upon the bills, having heard this petition, appointed the same to be intimated upon the wall of the Bill Chamber, and also upon the walls of the Parliament House, for fourteen days, and likewise to be advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette in terms of statute.” Agreeably to this deliverance the present intimation is accordingly made by the trustee.
