TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1911.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of July 1911.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section 5 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, it is enacted that—

“(1) It shall not be lawful to sell any substance to which this section applies by retail, unless the box, bottle, vessel, wrapper, or cover in which the substance is contained is distinctly labelled with the name of the substance and the word “Poisonous,” and with the name and address of the seller of the substance, and unless such other regulations as may be prescribed under this section by Order in Council are complied with; and, if any person sells any such substance otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this section or of any Order in Council made thereunder, he shall, on conviction under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding five pounds.

“(2) The Substances to which this section applies are sulphuric acid, nitric acid, hydrochloric acid, soluble salts of oxalic acid, and such other substances as may for the time being be prescribed by Order in Council under this section.”

And whereas it is expedient that liquid preparations containing more than five per cent. by weight of free ammonia should be prescribed as substances to which the said section shall apply.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to prescribe, and it is hereby prescribed, that as from the 1st of February 1912, liquid preparations containing more than five per cent. by weight of free ammonia shall be substances to which section 5 of the said recited enactment applies.
