Now, therefore, the Board, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by section 4 of the Sea Fisheries (Scotland) Amendment Act, 1885, do hereby make the following Byelaw (No. 26) to replace the expired Byelaw (No. 20), in so far as the Firth of Clyde is concerned :—

the four sides, will pass without pressure when the net is wet, (4) that the length of the boat from which the net is used shall not exceed 40 feet over all, and shall be propelled by means of sails or oars, and not by any mechanical power other than a motor engine, (5) that no otter boards shall be used, and (6) that in the case of motor boats no beam trawl or other trawl shall be carried on board.

2. Except in so far as it is altered by this Byelaw, Byelaw No. 17 shall remain in force.

3. This Byelaw shall come into force from and after the date of its confirmation by the Secretary for Scotland, and shall remain in force until 31st January 1917, unless it is sooner revoked or altered.

By Order of the Fishery Board for Scotland.
