BOARD OF TRADE, WHITEHALL GARDENS,
December 8, 1911.

The King has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class upon Mr. Arthur James Dye, Skipper of the Steam Drifter "Marie," of Yarmouth.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the Decoration has been conferred:—

The Steam Drifter "Marie," when about 65 miles N.E. by N. of Haisborough Lightship, North Sea, at 10 P.M. on the 30th September 1911, shipped a heavy sea, which broke the skylight, flooded the cabin, and extinguished the cabin light. The mate, who was in his berth asleep, was awakened by the sudden inrush of water, and, finding the cabin in darkness, lit a match. Immediately the gas from a tin of carbide of calcium exploded, and the cabin was set on fire.

The Skipper, Arthur James Dye, hurried below from the wheelhouse, seized the burning tin in his hands, and threw it into the galley, from which it was rolled on to the deck. Dye seized it again and tried to push it overboard. It rolled inboard at the first attempt, but he again took hold of it, and ultimately managed to throw it overboard.

In rendering these services Dye's left hand and his face were badly burnt, and on arrival in port he had to receive treatment at the hospital. A gale was blowing at the time, with a heavy sea.
