"Fourth,—That, in the event of the Company being wound up, the holders of the said Cumulative Participating Preference Shares shall be entitled to have the surplus assets of the Company applied in the first place in repaying to them the amount paid up on the Cumulative Participating Preference Shares held by them respectively.

"Fifth,—That the said Cumulative Participating Preference Shares be offered to the Members in proportion to the number of Ordinary Shares held by them, but in the event of the Cumulative Participating Preference Shares not being subscribed by the Members, the said Shares shall be under the control of the Directors, who shall be at liberty to allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons as they think fit."

The Court has pronounced the following Interlocutor on said Petition:—

"Edinburgh, 10th January 1912.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form, and to be advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the Scotsman and Glasgow Herald newspapers; and allow all parties having interest to lodge Answers within eight days after such intimation and advertisement; further, dispense in the meantime with the addition of the words 'and reduced' to the Petitioning Company's name. "DUNEDIN, I.P.D."

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.
