NATIONAL INSURANCE ACT, 1911.

The National Health Insurance Joint Committee have made the following Order under section 78 of the above-named Act:—

Whereas by section 58 of the National Insurance Act, 1911 (in this Order called the Act), it is amongst other things enacted that the Insurance Commissioners shall as soon as may be after the passing of the Act appoint an Advisory Committee for the purpose of giving the Insurance Commissioners advice and assistance in connection with the making and altering of Regulations under Part I. of the Act, consisting amongst other persons of representatives of approved societies:

And whereas by section 78 of the Act it is amongst other things provided that if any difficulty arises with respect to the constitution of the Advisory Committee the Insurance Commissioners with the consent of the Treasury may by Order make any appointment and do anything which appears to them necessary or expedient for the establishment of the Advisory Committee, and that any such Order may modify the provisions of the Act so far as may appear necessary or expedient for carrying the Order into effect:

And whereas by the National Insurance (Joint Committee) Regulations, 1912, it is amongst other things provided that the Joint Committee of the several bodies of Commissioners established under the Act (in this Order called the Joint Committee) shall exercise and perform either alone or jointly with the several bodies of Commissioners as the case may require such of the powers and duties of such bodies under sections 58 and 78 of the Act as may be necessary to enable the Joint Committee to exercise and perform the several powers and duties of the Joint Committee under the Act and those Regulations :

And whereas by those Regulations it is amongst other things provided that certain of the powers and duties of the several bodies of Commissioners under Part I. of the Act, with respect to the making of Regulations under that part of the Act, shall be exercised and performed by the Joint Committee, and for that purpose it is necessary in accordance with the provisions of section 58 aforesaid that the Joint Committee should establish an Advisory Committee for the purpose of assisting them in connection with the making and altering of those Regulations :

And whereas before the Joint Committee can grant approval to a society for the purposes of the Act it is necessary that regulations prescribing the form of certain of the rules of such a society should be prescribed by the said Commissioners and by reason of the premises a difficulty arises with respect to the constitution of the Advisory Committee :

Now therefore, the Joint Committee, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Act and by the said Regulations and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, do hereby, with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, order as follows :—

(1) The requirement of section 58 of the National Insurance Act, 1911, that the Advisory Committee shall amongst other persons comprise representatives of Approved Societies, shall be modified so as to require that the first Committee appointed under section 58 of the Act shall comprise in place of representatives of those societies representatives of such bodies of persons corporate or unincorporate as in the opinion of the Joint Committee are desirous of transacting insurance business under Part I. of the Act and of either themselves applying for approval under that part of the Act or of establishing a separate section for that purpose, and the said section 58 shall have effect accordingly.

(2) This Order shall come into force upon the date upon which it is made, and shall continue in force and have effect until revoked by any subsequent order made by the Joint Committee for the purpose, provided that any such revocation shall not affect any appointment made under the provisions of this Order.

(3) This Order may be cited as the National Health Insurance (Advisory Committee) Order 1912.
