FOREIGN OFFICE, April 9, 1912.

With reference to the Notice published in the London Gazette of January 26th last, His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received a telegram from His Majesty's Ambassador at Rome, stating that an official notification from the Italian Government, dated the 6th inst., declares an extension of the blockade of the Ottoman Red Sea littoral, from the 8th inst., from Ras Isa to a point of the coast north of Loheia, situated 15° 40' north latitude and 42° 43' longitude east of Greenwich.

A period of five days, dating from the commencement of the blockade, will be allowed to neutral ships within which to leave places now blockaded. Neutral vessels proceeding to the sanitary station at Kamaran in connection with pilgrims to Mecca will be able to approach the island by a passage from the southern side under the supervision of the blockading squadron.
