HOUSING, TOWN PLANNING, &c.,
ACT, 1909.

THE ROYAL BURGH OF INVER-
KEITHING.

WHEREAS the Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Inverkeithing (hereinafter referred to as "The Council") being the Local Authority within the said Burgh under the Housing, Town Planning, &c., Act, 1909, passed a resolution on the fifteenth day of March 1912, applying to Us, the Local Government Board for Scotland, to authorise the Council to prepare a Town Planning Scheme for the whole of the land within the said Royal Burgh, and for certain portions of land situate within the area administered by the County Council of the County of Fife and the Dunfermline District Committee of the said County Council, all as shown on the "Map No. 2" referred to in the said resolution, on which Map the boundaries of the area proposed to be town-planned are edged with red.

And whereas the resolution of the Council, together with the map marked "Map No. 2" referred to therein, has been transmitted to Us, and We have inquired into the application and into the circumstances connected therewith.

Now therefore We, the Local Government

Board for Scotland, do hereby, under the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of section 54 of the Housing, Town Planning, &c., Act, 1909, authorise the Council to prepare a Town Planning Scheme with reference to the land (including land already built upon and land not likely to be used for building purposes) to which the aforesaid application relates.

And We do further authorise the Council in the preparation of the scheme as aforesaid to provide therein for the demolition or alteration of any of the buildings on the land included in the area in respect of which a scheme may be prepared as aforesaid, so far as may be necessary for carrying the scheme into effect.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board for Scotland, this eleventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twelve years.

(Signed) GEORGE M'CRAE,
Vice-President.

(Signed) JOHN T. MAXWELL, Secretary.
