

"And whereas the duties of this officer have been extended to include the supervision of recruiting generally, thus necessitating an alteration in his title :

"We beg leave to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction this officer being styled in future 'Inspector of Recruiting,' no change being made in the emoluments of the office.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of June 1912.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of May 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Royal Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by an Order in Council of His late Majesty, bearing date the 12th August 1907, officers of Your Majesty's Navy who are placed on the Retired List whilst serving on the staff of the Inspection and Experimental Departments, or in posts at the Admiralty connected with those Departments, are allowed to count their service subsequent to retirement for an increase of their retired pay :

"And whereas we have had under our consideration the services rendered by Lieutenant John Ambrose Slee, R.N., who was in July 1908 appointed to take charge under the Admiral Commanding Coast Guard and Reserves of Shore Wireless Telegraphy Stations and Signal Stations :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the application to this officer of the same regulations regarding increase of retired pay as have been authorised by the afore-mentioned Order in Council for officers on the staff of the Inspection and Experimental Departments or in posts at the Admiralty connected with those Departments.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's

Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of June 1912.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 29th day of May 1912, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we consider that the arduous and responsible duties devolving upon the boatswain in charge of the moorings at Gibraltar merit special recognition :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the payment to a boatswain when holding that appointment of a special allowance of four shillings a day, in addition to his other emoluments, to take effect as from the first day of December 1911 :

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
