BOARD OF TRADE, WHITEHALL GARDENS,
September 10, 1912.

The King has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Albert Medal of the Second Class upon Alfred Barlow and William D. M'Kay, of Sydney, New South Wales.

The following is an account of the services in respect of which the Decoration has been conferred:—

While James Edward Morgan was bathing at Lane Cove, Sydney, New South Wales, on the 26th of January 1912, he was attacked by a shark when some distance from the shore.

In response to his cries for help, Alfred Barlow and William D. M'Kay, who were in the water, went to his assistance, and succeeded in bringing him to land. While they were actually engaged in doing so, the shark made a second attack on Morgan, and inflicted injuries to which he succumbed.

The rescuers were fully aware of their danger, and incurred very considerable risk in rendering their services.
