TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1912.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December 1912.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland as in the said first-named Act provided has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said first-named Act: provided always, that notice of such Representation and of the time it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected, by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered.

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland has made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of the County of Perth at Perth, dated the 9th May 1912, and made on a Petition of the Reverend J. Caithness Ingles and others, being persons assessed for the relief of the poor in the Parish of Crieff, in the County of Perth, or householders residing within 100 yards of the United Free Church Burial Ground, Crieff, finding that the said United Free Church Burial Ground, Crieff, is in a condition offensive to health and contrary to decency.

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 11th day of October 1912, notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 21st day of November 1912, and that the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 21st day of November 1912.

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and has been fixed in the manner required by the said Order in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—

That burials be forthwith discontinued in the United Free Church Burial Ground, Crieff, subject to reservation of the right of interment in the said Burial Ground, at decease, of Margaret Morris, of Galvelmore Street, Crieff. Provided always as regards all interments in the said Burial Ground after the date of this Order that the following conditions be observed: (1) that the exercise of the right of burial shall not be injurious to the public health or offensive or contrary to decency, (2) that notice shall be given to the Clerk to the Parish Council of Crieff on the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened, (3) that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of three feet at least, and, where possible, at a depth of four feet, from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin, and that without the exposure of another coffin.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of December 1912.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Strachie.

Sir Francis Hopwood.

Sir William Conynham Greene.

WHEREAS by the eighty-eighth section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is enacted that, where in accordance with the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, His Majesty exercises jurisdiction within any port, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to declare that port a port of registry, and by the same or any subsequent Order in Council to declare the description of persons who are to be registrars of British ships at that port of registry, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat.

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the Islands of the Pacific Ocean known as the British Solomon Islands Protectorate, and within all the ports thereof in accordance with the said Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890.

And whereas, under and by virtue of the Pacific Order in Council, 1893, provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's Jurisdiction within the said Islands.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that it is expedient to declare the port of Tulagi in the said Islands a port of registry, and to declare the description of persons who shall be registrars of British ships thereat, and to make regulations with respect to the registry of British ships thereat.

And whereas the provisions of section one of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, have been complied with.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Him in this behalf by the hereinbefore recited Acts, or some or one of them, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to declare and order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the British Solomon Islands Maritime Order in Council, 1912.

2. The port of Tulagi, in the British Solomon Islands Protectorate (hereinafter called "the Protectorate"), shall be a port of registry for British ships.

3. The Registrar of British ships at the said port shall be such officer in the public service of the Protectorate as the High Commissioner for the Western Pacific from time to time appoints by writing signed by him, and in default of such appointment shall be the Collector of Customs at the said port.

4. The Resident Commissioner in the Protectorate may from time to time, in case of the absence or intended absence from Tulagi, or in case of the illness, of the Registrar, appoint by writing under his hand a fit person to be the Deputy of the Registrar for the time therein mentioned; but every such appointment shall be revocable at pleasure by the said Resident Commissioner by writing under his hand.

The person so appointed shall, during the continuance of his appointment, have all the power and authority of the Registrar.

5. The Registrar shall have and use a seal bearing such style and device as the High Commissioner for the Western Pacific shall from time to time direct.

6. Every signature or seal affixed to any instrument purporting to be the signature or seal, as the case may be, of the Registrar, shall for all purposes under this Order, without any proof thereof, be presumed to be genuine, and shall be taken as genuine until the contrary is proved.

7. The Registrar of Shipping at Tulagi shall have the same powers as any Registrar of Shipping appointed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the said Act and of this Order the said Registrar shall have the same powers as by the said Act are conferred for the purposes of registration and measurement on any officer of Customs or any officer of the Board of Trade.

8. The High Commissioner for the Western Pacific shall, with regard to the performance of any act or thing relating to the registry of a ship registered at Tulagi, or of any interest therein, be considered as in all respects occupying the place of the Commissioners of Customs.

9. Where it appears to the Resident Commissioner in the Protectorate that, by reason of special circumstances, it would be desirable that permission should be granted to any British ship to pass, without being previously registered, from the port of Tulagi to any port within His Majesty's Dominions, the said Resident Commissioner may grant a pass accordingly, and such pass shall for the time being and within the limits therein mentioned have the same effect as a certificate of registry.

10. Fees not exceeding the amounts named in the schedule to this Order shall be taken in respect of the matters mentioned in the same schedule.

11. All fees authorized to be taken under this Order shall be applied to general revenue.

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 9th day of December 1912, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 11th day of August 1884, and the 11th day of February 1904, it is provided that in calculating, for purposes of pension, the services of Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers, and of Officers promoted from those ranks under His late Majesty's Order in Council of the 28th March 1903, fractions of a year's service in each of the several grades through which the Officers have passed shall be valued for pension if together they total a complete year or complete years, the pensionable value of the year or years so made up being calculated beginning with the fraction in the lowest grade:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it would be more equitable if the pensionable value of any year or years composed of such fractional parts were assessed beginning with the fraction in the highest grade:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to approve of fractions of a year's service in the different grades being assessed for pension under the following rules, viz.:—

"(a) When the fractions of a year's service in each grade for which a separate rate of Pension or Retired Pay is assigned do not, in the aggregate, equal 365 days, no Pension or Retired Pay to be allowed in respect thereof.

"(b) When such fractions equal or exceed one, two, or three full years in the aggregate, Pension or Retired Pay to be awarded for one, two, or three years respectively as follows:—

"For each day of the fraction of service in the highest grade $\frac{1}{365}$ th of the annual rate assigned to such service.

"For each day of the balance required to make up the one, two, or three full years, $\frac{1}{365}$ th of the annual rate or rates assigned to service in the lower grade or grades from which such balance is taken.

"(c) The minimum and maximum rates of Retired Pay to be inclusive of this addition.

"(d) The above provisions to apply to all Commissioned Warrant and Warrant Officers, and to Officers promoted from those ranks under Order in Council of the 28th March 1903, placed on the Pension or Retired List on or after the 29th June 1912.

The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."
