ROYAL BURGH OF PEEBLES.

EXTENSION OF BURGH BOUNDARIES.

NOTICE is hereby given that an Initial Writ has been lodged with the Sheriff of the Sheriffdom of the Lothians and Peebles at Peebles, at the instance of the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Royal Burgh of Peebles, craving that the boundaries of the Burgh be extended to include an area of land which is being built upon situated to the south of the present Burgh boundary, and outlined on red on a plan produced therewith.

The proposed extended boundaries are described as follows:—Beginning at the point of junction on the present Burgh boundary of the field marked number 667 on the Ordnance Survey Sheet, the property of William Thorburn, Esquire of Craigerne, the field marked 668, the property of James Inglis, Esquire of Tintah, and the plantation on Cademuir Hill, the property of Sir Duncan Edwyn Hay of Smithfield and Haystoun, Baronet, the boundary runs south-eastwards between the said plantation and the field marked number 667, until it reaches a point 295 feet or thereby from said point of junction; the boundary then inclines to the south-east between the said plantation and the field marked number 665, the property of the said Sir Duncan Edwyn Hay, for a distance of 568 feet or thereby; then north-eastwards it runs in a straight line between the fields marked numbers 664 and 665, the property of the said Sir Duncan Edwyn Hay, till it joins the public road leading to Bonnington, a distance of 1180 feet or thereby; then eastwards in a straight line between the fields marked numbers 663 and 644, the property of the said Sir Duncan Edwyn Hay, a distance of 785 feet or thereby; then along the eastern boundary of the said field marked number 644, a distance of 1350 feet or thereby; then north-eastwards in a straight line a distance of 290 feet or thereby; and again north-eastwards in a straight line across the public road to Haystoun till it joins the present Burgh boundary, a distance of 164 feet or thereby.

The extended boundary takes in the field marked number 667, the property of the said William Thorburn, Esquire, and the fields marked numbers 644 and 665, the property of the said Sir Duncan Edwyn Hay.

Notice is further given that the Sheriff has issued the following Deliverance:—

“Edinburgh, 5th February 1913.—The Sheriff, having considered the foregoing Initial Writ and relative Condescendence, appoints a copy thereof and of this Deliverance to be served on the County Clerk of the County of Peebles; further, appoints intimation of the import of the said Initial Writ and Condescendence, and of this Deliverance, to be made by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Peebleshire Advertiser newspaper and the Peebles News newspaper; and allows all parties having interest to lodge objections to the prayer of the Initial Writ, if so advised, within fourteen days from the date of the last advertisement; meanwhile appoints the said Initial Writ with the relative Condescendence and Plan to remain in the hands of the Sheriff Clerk, Peebles, for the inspection of all concerned.

(Signed) “CHARLES C. MACNOCHIE.”

The date of the last advertisement in terms of the above is 12th February 1913.
