FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 11th day of February 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855," as amended by "The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885," it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of the Secretary for Scotland that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland as in the said first-named Act provided has been received by him, in pursuance thereof to order that no new burial ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of the Secretary for Scotland or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said first-named Act: provided always, that notice of such Representation and of the time it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such burial ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered.

And whereas the Secretary for Scotland has made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute at Ayr, dated the 19th November 1912, and made on a Petition of the Parish Council of Maybole, in the County of Ayr, finding that the Old Kirkbride Burial Ground, situated at Dunduff, Fisherton, is overcrowded and in a condition which is offensive or contrary to decency under Section 4 of the said Act:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that the said Burial Ground should be closed as hereinafter directed.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 16th day of December 1912, notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 27th day of January 1913, and that the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order in Council or notice thereof should be fixed on the doors of the church of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such Representation one month before the said 27th day of January 1913.

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and has been fixed in the manner required by the said Order in Council.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—
