TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1913.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 17th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS MAJESTY was this day pleased to declare His Consent to a Contract of Matrimony between His Royal Highness Prince Ernest Augustus Christian George, born Prince of Great Britain and Ireland, Duke of Brunswick and Luneburg, only surviving son of His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland and Teviotdale, K.G., and Her Royal Highness Princess Victoria Louise Adelaide Mathilde Charlotte, born Princess of Prussia, only daughter of His Majesty the German Emperor, King of Prussia, K.G., which Consent His Majesty has caused to be signified under the Great Seal, and to be entered in the Books of the Privy Council.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
 Lord Privy Seal.
 Master of the Horse..
 Lord Chamberlain.
 Lord Parker.
 Sir Cecil Spring-Rice.

WHEREAS by section 18 of the Extradition Act, 1870, it is enacted that if by any law or ordinance made after the passing of the said Act by the Legislature of any British Possession provision is made for carrying into effect within such Possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British Possession, His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any Foreign State, or by any subsequent Order, either—

Suspend the operation within any such British Possession of the said Act or any part thereof, so far as it relates to such Foreign State, and so long as such law or ordinance continues in force there and no longer ;

Or direct that such law or ordinance or any part thereof shall have effect in such British Possession, with or without modifications and alterations, as if it were part of the Act :

And whereas by certain Orders of Her Majesty Queen Victoria in Council Her Majesty was pleased to direct that certain enactments respectively enacted by the Legislatures of the Cape of Good Hope, Griqualand West, and Natal, should have effect in the said British Possessions respectively without modification or alteration as if they were part of the Extradition Act, 1870 :

And whereas under the provisions of an Act enacted by the Legislature of the Cape of Good Hope, shortly entitled "The Griqualand West Annexation Act, 1877," the Province of Griqualand West was, on the 15th day of October, 1880, annexed to and thenceforth became a portion of the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and it was provided by the said Act that all laws in force in the said Province at the time of the annexation thereof, so far as the same should not be repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of that Act, should remain in force within that portion of the Colony formed by the said Province until the same should be altered or repealed by law :

And whereas on the 31st day of May 1910, the Union of South Africa was established under the provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, shortly entitled "The South Africa Act, 1909," and each of the said British Possessions, the Cape of Good Hope and Natal, is now a Province forming part of the Union established as aforesaid :

And whereas the Parliament of the Union has under the provisions of the said Act full power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Union :

And whereas the Union is a British Possession within the meaning of section 26 of the Extradition Act, 1870 :

And whereas by section 28 of an Act enacted by the Parliament of the Union, the short title of which is "The Administration of Justice Act, 1912," it has been provided that all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, of the Imperial Parliament shall be vested in and exercisable, and shall be performed in the Union by any Magistrate in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the Union :

And whereas His Majesty has been pleased not to exercise his power of disallowance in respect of the said Act :

Now therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the Extradition Act, 1870, and in exercise of the powers in that behalf in the said Act contained, both by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct as follows :—

(1) Section 28 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1912, of the Union of South Africa shall have effect in the Union without modification or alteration as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.

(2) The Orders of Her Majesty Queen Victoria in Council enumerated in the Schedule appended hereto are revoked as from the commencement of the said Act.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Privy Seal.

Master of the Horse.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Larker.

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice.

WHEREAS by an Order of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council, dated the 8th day of August 1901, it was provided that, subject to the provisions of such Order, the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, should apply as if the Territories named in the First Schedule of such Order were a British Possession, and that Part II. of the said Act should apply to the Colonies, Possessions and Territories mentioned in the First and Second Schedules of such Order :

And whereas the Territories specified in Schedule I. of the said Order were the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Southern Rhodesia, Barotsiland - North Western Rhodesia, the British Central Africa Protectorate, and North Eastern Rhodesia, and the Colonies and Possessions specified in Schedule II. thereof were the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, the Colony of Natal, Basutoland, the Orange River Colony, and the Transvaal :

And whereas by a further Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the 1st day of June 1907, the said Order in Council was amended by the insertion of Swaziland amongst the Territories mentioned in Clause 2 (a) and Schedule I. of the said Order :

And whereas by an Order of His said late Majesty in Council, dated the 6th day of July 1907, and known as the Nyasaland Order in Council, 1907, it was amongst other things provided that the Territories theretofore known as the British Central Africa Protectorate should be known as the Nyasaland Protectorate, and that a Governor and Commander-in-Chief should be appointed in and over the said Protectorate in place of a Commissioner :

And whereas under and by virtue of an Act passed in the 9th year of His said late Majesty's reign, shortly entitled the South Africa Act, 1909, the Colonies of the Cape of Good Hope, Natal, the Transvaal, and the Orange River Colony have been united in a Legislative Union under one Government under the name of the Union of South Africa, and now form Provinces of the said Union :

And whereas by an Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the 4th day of May 1911, and known as the Northern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1911, the Territories theretofore known as Barotsiland-North Western Rhodesia and North Eastern Rhodesia were included within the limits of the said Order, and it was amongst other things provided that the Territory within the limits of the said Order should be known as Northern Rhodesia :

And whereas it is expedient to consolidate and amend the above recited Orders of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council, dated the 8th day of August 1901, and the 1st day of June 1907 :

And whereas by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty has power and jurisdiction in and over the Territories known as the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia, Swaziland, and the Nyasaland Protectorate :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the powers in this behalf, by the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. This Order may be cited as the South Africa Fugitive Offenders Order in Council, 1913.

2. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, shall apply as if the Territories named in the First Schedule of this Order were a British Possession.

3. In the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, as hereby applied to the Territories named in Schedule I. of this Order, and in this Order with reference to the said Territories, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression "Governor" means the officer for the time being exercising the functions—

(a) As regards the Bechuanaland Protectorate, Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia, and Swaziland, of the High Commissioner for South Africa.

(b) As regards the Nyasaland Protectorate, of the Governor of the Protectorate.

4. The jurisdiction under Part I. of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, to hear a case and commit a fugitive to prison to await his return may be exercised in the Territories named in Schedule I. of this Order by any person having in the said Territories authority to issue a warrant for the apprehension of persons accused of crime and to commit such persons for trial.

5. Part II. of the Fugitive Offenders Act, 1881, shall apply to the British Possessions and Territories mentioned in Schedules I. and II. of this Order.

6. The Governor of each of the British Possessions and Territories named in the Schedules of this Order shall cause this Order to be proclaimed therein, and this Order shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by such Proclamation.

7. The Orders of His late Majesty King Edward the Seventh in Council, dated the 8th day of August 1901, and the 1st day of June 1907, shall, as from the date of the coming into operation of this Order, be revoked, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, or to any proceedings commenced before the said date.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of March 1913, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by Orders in Council bearing dates the 29th day of June 1895, and the 9th day of August 1898, provision was made for the entry of Officers belonging to the Mercantile Marine on a Supplementary List of Lieutenants and Sub-Lieutenants of the Royal Navy :

"And whereas we are of opinion that the growing requirements of Your Majesty's Fleet again necessitate the adoption of a similar measure with a view to increasing the list of Lieutenants :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the entry on a Supplementary List of the Royal Navy of a number of Officers of the Mercantile Marine, not exceeding 100, under the following conditions, namely :—

"Candidates must be Officers of the Royal Naval Reserve who have completed twelve months' training in the Royal Navy or who at the time of their selection are undergoing such training.

"Those entered as Sub-Lieutenants to be eligible for promotion to Lieutenant after one year's service from the date of entry in the Royal Navy or on the date on which they would have become eligible for the rank of Lieutenant in the Royal Naval Reserve ; but power to be reserved to us to appoint them as Acting Lieutenants at any period of their service :

"In the case of Officers who may not have fulfilled the service required by the regulations of the Board of Trade for examination for Master, promotion to be subject to passing an examination to be held by the Board of Trade :

“Lieutenants on the Supplementary List to be eligible at our discretion for promotion to the rank of Commander on the Active List in exceptional cases :

“Rates of full pay, half-pay, and retired pay or gratuities to be at the rates shown in the accompanying Schedule :

“A Lieutenant on the Supplementary List may be granted the retired rank of Commander, at our discretion, under the conditions applicable to Lieutenants generally :

“Pensions for wounds or injuries, widows’ pensions, and compassionate allowances for children to be at the same rates and under the same conditions as those granted to Officers of the Royal Navy of corresponding rank :

“Officers on entry to cease to be entitled to retaining fees :

“The full equipment grant of £30 to be given to Sub-Lieutenants and £40 to Lieutenants in consideration of their having to obtain Naval uniform, provided they have not received any outfit allowance on appointment to one of Your Majesty’s Ships for training within the two years immediately preceding the date of entry on the Supplementary List :

“An Officer who has received outfit allowance within such two years to receive only half the equipment grant, or the difference between what he has already received and the full rate :

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

(Including service in the Royal Naval Reserve Officer and Sub-Lieutenant, R.N.)

Officers to be retired at the age of 45. Voluntary retirement may, however, be allowed from the age of 40, at the discretion of the Admiralty.

To be retired at any age if found physically unfit for further service, or in case of such misconduct or neglect of duty as, in the opinion of the Admiralty, renders the Officer unfit for further service.

“Sub-Lieutenant.

- (1) If retired physically unfit from causes beyond his own control. A gratuity of two calendar months’ full pay for each complete year of full pay service (including service in the Navy as a Royal Naval Reserve Officer).
- (2) If retired for unfitness due to causes within his own control, or for misconduct or neglect of duty. Such gratuity as Their Lordships may think fit, not exceeding the amount which would have been awarded under (1).

“Lieutenant.

“1. A Lieutenant retired at his own request, or at the age of 45, or for physical unfitness due to causes beyond his own control, shall be entitled to receive a gratuity, or retired pay on the following scale :—

- (a) If with less than 10 years’ full pay service (including service in the Royal Navy as Royal Naval Reserve Officer and Sub-Lieutenant, Royal Navy). A gratuity of six calendar months’ full pay for each complete year of such service.
- (b) If with 10 years’ full pay service as above £150 per annum
- If with 11 years’ service as above or if 41 years of age with 10 years’ service as above £160 per annum
- If with 12 years’ service as above or if 42 years of age with 10 years’ service as above £170 per annum
- If with 13 years’ service as above or if 43 years of age with 10 years’ service as above £180 per annum
- If with 14 years’ service as above or if 44 years of age with 10 years’ service as above £190 per annum
- If with 15 years’ service as above or if 45 years of age with 10 years’ service as above £200 per annum maximum

“2. A Lieutenant retired for unfitness due to causes within his own control, or for misconduct or neglect of duty may be allowed :—

- (a) If with less than 10 years’ full pay service (including service in the Royal Navy as Royal Naval Reserve Officer and Sub-Lieutenant, Royal Navy), such gratuity as the Admiralty think fit, not exceeding six calendar months’ full pay for each completed year of such service.
- (b) If with 10 years’ or more full pay service (including service in the Royal Navy as Royal Naval Reserve Officer and Sub-Lieutenant, Royal Navy), such retired pay as the Admiralty may think fit, not exceeding the rate which would have been awarded under clause 1 (b) above, or in lieu thereof, at the discretion of the Admiralty, a gratuity not exceeding the commutation value (as assessed by Your Majesty's Pensions Commutation Board) of such rate of retired pay."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 25th day of February 1913, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine force to a person being or having been an officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we have had under our consideration the emoluments payable to officers and men on the Pensioned List employed in the Royal Naval Recruiting Service :

"And whereas we consider it desirable that in future the rate of emoluments of Royal Naval Recruiting Officers should be assimilated to those of Royal Marine Recruiting Officers, and that certain alterations should be made in the case of men :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the proposals set out in the accompanying Schedule.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in the foregoing proposals :

"SCHEDULE.

"OFFICERS.

"1. The emoluments of R.N. Recruiting Officers appointed from the Retired List to be in future the same as for Recruiting Staff Officers, R.M., viz., £200 per annum inclusive of all allowances (except travelling and subsistence when travelling on duty), in addition to retired pay, the latter being exempt from abatement under the Rules of the Superannuation Act, 1887. No officer to share in the recruiting gratuities, and an abatement of £25 per annum to be made from the pay of officers provided with official quarters.

"2. A bonus of £50 to be awarded annually at the discretion of the Admiralty, to the R.N. Recruiting Officer whose district shows the most meritorious results during the preceding twelve months.

"3. The foregoing changes to take effect on the present holders of the appointments being relieved.

"MEN.

"4. The pay of Pensioner Naval Recruiters to be at the rate of 4s. a day temporarily, exclusive of recruiting gratuities and allowances for travelling and subsistence when travelling on duty, but inclusive of all other allowances.

"5. The rate of pay to be 3s. a day as soon as all the Recruiting Officers now serving in R.N. Districts have been relieved by officers drawing the revised emoluments, and increased recruiting gratuities become payable to the recruiters.

"The foregoing rates to be payable to all Pensioner Naval Recruiters appointed in future, and to Recruiters now serving when re-engaged for a fresh term of service."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 17th day of February 1913, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas the responsibilities which devolve upon the Senior Lieutenant in one of Your Majesty's Ships are recognised by the grant of Senior Lieutenant's Allowance :

"And whereas it has been found necessary in certain cases to employ Officers of junior rank to carry out the duties of Senior Lieutenant, and we are of opinion that the responsibilities devolving on these officers should be recognised by the grant of similar allowances to those authorised for Lieutenants :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment of Senior Lieutenant's allowance at the authorised rates to Sub-Lieutenants, Commissioned Warrant Officers and Warrant Officers doing the duty of First Lieutenant in ships where a Lieutenant is allowed by complement but not borne, such payment to take effect from the 30th September 1912.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of March 1913.

PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 28th day of February 1913, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 12th day of August 1875, the minimum pension of a Warrant Officer of the Royal Navy with fifteen years' service as such is fixed at £95 per annum, which does not, however, apply to Head Schoolmasters :

"And whereas Commissioned Warrant Officers promoted to that rank after fifteen years' service as Warrant Officer in accordance with the provisions of Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 19th July 1912 may be entitled under existing regulations to a smaller pension than they would have received if not so promoted, owing to there being no fixed minimum rate of pension for Commissioned Warrant Officers :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorise the establishment of a fixed minimum rate of pension of £95 per annum for Commissioned Warrant Officers, exclusive of Chief Schoolmasters, to take effect as from the 1st day of April 1912.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 12th day of March 1913.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.

Mr. Secretary McKenna.

Mr. M'Kinnon Wood.

WHEREAS by section 2 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, it is enacted that the several Articles named or described in the Schedule (A) to that Act shall be deemed poisons within the meaning of that Act, and that the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain may from time to time, by Resolution, declare that any article in such Resolution named ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning of that Act, and that thereupon the said Society shall submit the same for the approval of the Privy Council ; and that if such approval shall be given, then such Resolution and approval shall be advertised in the London Gazette ; and, on the expiration of one month from such advertisement, the article named in such Resolution shall be deemed to be a poison within the meaning of that Act.

And whereas by section 1 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, it is enacted that Schedule (A) to the Pharmacy Act, 1868, be repealed, and the Schedule to the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, substituted therefor, and that the said last-named Schedule may be amended by adding thereto or removing therefrom any article, or transferring any article from one part of the said Schedule to the other in the manner provided by section 2 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, for adding to the list of articles deemed to be poisons within the meaning of that Act.

And whereas the Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain did, on the 5th day of March 1913, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers vested in them by section 2 of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as modified by section 1 of the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, resolve and declare as follows :—

(a) That "Sulphonal" be removed from Part II. of the Schedule to the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, and that "Sulphonal and its homologues, whether described as Trional, Tetronal, or by any other trade name, mark, or designation," be substituted therefor.

(b) That "Diethyl-Barbituric Acid and other alkyl, aryl, or metallic derivatives of Barbituric Acid, whether described as Veronal, Proponal, Medinal, or by any other trade name, mark, or designation ; and all poisonous Urethanes and Ureides," ought to be deemed poisons within the meaning of the Pharmacy Act, 1868, as amended by the Poisons and Pharmacy Act, 1908, and ought to be deemed poisons in Part II. of the Schedule of Poisons to that Act.

And whereas the said Society have submitted their Resolution for the approval of the Privy Council, and the Lords of the Privy Council are of opinion that the said Resolution should be approved :

Now, therefore, their Lordships are hereby pleased to signify their approval of the said Resolution.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

Education (Scotland) Act, 1908.

ORDER No. 23 BY THE SCOTCH EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

SCHOOL BOARD OF CUPAR.

At Dover House, Whitehall, the seventeenth day of March 1913.

By the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education in Scotland.

WHEREAS by subsection (1) of Section 22 of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1908 (8 Edward 7, cap. 63), it is enacted that where it is represented to the Department by a school board that it would be expedient that the district or part of a district of the said school board should be united with the adjacent district or part of district of another school board, so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board, the Department shall consult with the authorities concerned, and may cause a local inquiry to be held, and, if they are of opinion that the districts should be united, may by Order provide for uniting the said districts as aforesaid :

And whereas it has been represented to the Department by the School Board of the Burgh of Cupar and the School Board of the Parish of Cupar (Landward) that it would be expedient that their respective districts should be united so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one school board :

And whereas the existing Boards are agreed upon the terms upon which such union should take place :

And whereas, after due consideration of the matter, the Department are of opinion that the said districts should be united as aforesaid :

And whereas it is expedient that the said districts should be united as aforesaid :

And whereas a proposed Order to that effect was duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette of 28th January 1913, in terms of subsection (2) of Section 22 as aforesaid :

And whereas no objections or representations respecting the same have been received :

Now therefore the Department, in virtue of the powers in that behalf conferred upon them by the enactment above recited, do hereby order as follows, videlicet :—

1. The district of the School Board of the Burgh of Cupar shall, from and after the date at which this Order shall commence to have effect, be united with the district of the School Board of the Parish of Cupar (Landward) so as for all purposes to constitute a district under one School Board.

2. The existing School Boards shall cease to exist, and there shall be established in their room for the districts united as aforesaid one school board to be called "The School Board of Cupar."

3. The said School Board of Cupar (hereinafter referred to as "the School Board") shall consist of the twelve members who at the date at which this Order shall commence to have effect constitute the said existing school boards. The said members shall hold office until the school board election to be held in the year 1914 in terms of the Education (Scotland) Acts, 1872 to 1908, after which date the number of members of the School Board shall be nine. The first meeting of the School Board shall be summoned by the Clerk to the School Board of the Burgh of Cupar, and shall be held on Thursday the twenty-second day of May 1913, at the hour and place named in the summons, and such meeting shall be deemed to be the first statutory meeting of the School Board.

4. The whole property, heritable and moveable, real and personal, including the respective school funds and any funds held in trust belonging to the existing school boards, and all debts and obligations due to the existing school boards, shall be transferred to and vested in the School Board without the necessity of any new conveyance or instrument, and shall be held by the School Board in property or in trust as the case may be; and save as hereinafter provided, all teachers, janitors, officers, and other employees in the service of the existing school boards shall be transferred to, and become teachers, janitors, officers, and employees in the service of the School Board :

Provided always that the School Board of Cupar shall not be bound to take over the Clerk and Treasurer to the School Board of the Parish of Cupar (Landward), but such Officer shall receive a pension of five pounds (£5) annually as compensation from the School Board of Cupar.

5. The whole debts and liabilities of the existing school boards shall be taken over by, and become debts and liabilities of, the School Board.

6. With respect to the deficiency in the School Fund of the School Board and the sum required to meet the same, the following provisions shall have effect, videlicet :—

(a) The deficiency in the School Fund shall be allocated upon the districts of the existing school boards so that the school rate to be levied in the district of the School Board of the Parish of Cupar (Landward) for a period of four years commencing with the sixteenth day of May 1913, shall be, as nearly as may be, one half of the school rate per pound to be levied in the district of the School Board of the Burgh of Cupar—that is to say, in each of the said four years the school rate per pound to be levied in the first-mentioned district shall be, as nearly as may be, one half of the school rate per pound to be levied in the second-mentioned school district.

(b) For the financial year from Whitsunday 1917 to Whitsunday 1918 and thenceforward, the deficiency in the School Fund of the School Board shall be met by a uniform rate levied in the district of the said School Board.

7. In this Order the expression "the Department" means the Scotch Education Department.

8. This Order shall commence to have effect on the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

J. STRUTHERS,

Secretary to the Scotch Education Department.

SMALL LANDHOLDERS (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1911.

ORDER BY THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE FOR SCOTLAND IN TERMS OF SECTION 7 (7) OF THE ACT PRESCRIBING CONDITIONS TO WHICH THE PROVISION OF ASSISTANCE FROM THE AGRICULTURE (SCOTLAND) FUND FOR FACILITATING THE CONSTITUTION OF NEW HOLDINGS SHALL BE SUBJECT.

WHEREAS by sub-section 7 of section 7 of the Small Landholders (Scotland) Act, 1911, it is enacted as follows:—

“Where, with a view to, or as incidental to, the registration of a new holder or holders in respect of any land, whether by agreement or otherwise, the Board are of opinion, upon consideration of a report by the Commissioner for Small Holdings, that assistance should be provided for the purpose of dividing, fencing, or otherwise preparing or adapting the land, making occupation roads, or executing other works, such as works for the provision of drainage or water supply, or erecting or adapting a dwelling-house or dwelling-houses or other buildings, or for any similar purpose, the Board may provide such assistance by way of loan or (except as regards dwelling-houses or other buildings) by way of gift, and subject to such conditions as they may prescribe. Conditions so prescribed and the provisions for their enforcement or for the case of their violation shall be as effectual as if they were contained in this Act.”

The Board of Agriculture for Scotland in pursuance of the provisions of the said sub-section prescribe the following conditions, which shall be applicable to any agreements to provide assistance from the Agriculture (Scotland) Fund for the purpose of facilitating the constitution of new landholders' holdings in accordance with schemes approved by the Secretary for Scotland after the date of this order.

Provision of Fencing.

Assistance to new holders for the purpose of fencing will be limited to the provision of material for fencing, and such assistance will be provided by means of loans to the holders repayable within a period not exceeding seven years.

For the purpose of schemes operative within the parishes declared Congested Districts previous to the 13th April 1911, the Board will provide the whole cost of erecting fences as a free gift in exceptional cases, where, in their opinion, such assistance is necessary for the formation of settlements of landholders.

The Making of Occupation Roads.

The Board will provide assistance solely for the purpose of making access roads to the holdings. Such assistance will be given as a free gift.

Drainage.

No assistance will be given for field drainage in respect of any holding; the cost of providing drainage for a dwelling-house or other buildings will be regarded as part of the cost of providing such buildings.

Water Supply.

Where the Board consider it necessary to give assistance for the provision of a water supply with a view to the registration of a new holder or holders they will provide such assistance as a free gift.

The Erection and Adaptation of Dwelling-Houses and other Buildings.

The repayment of loans for buildings will be spread over a period of 50 years, and £4 will be paid annually during that period in respect of each £100 borrowed, viz. :—£2 at Whitsunday and Martinmas in each year. This payment will include repayment of principal, interest on outstanding principal, and premium for insurance of buildings against fire.

Rate of Interest on Loans.

Interest will be charged on loans at the nominal rate of 3½ per cent. per annum.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Board of Agriculture for Scotland have hereunto fixed their Official Seal this seventeenth day of March nineteen hundred and thirteen.
