FROM FRIDAY, JULY 5. TO TUESDAY, JULY 9 1805.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, July 6.

The following letters, containing an account of the undermentioned captures, have been transmitted to WILLIAM MARSDEN, Esq. Secretary to the Admiralty, for the information of the Lords Commissioners.

SIR, His Majesty's ship Loire, at sea, June 25. 1805.

I have much pleasure in announcing to you the capture of the Valiant of Bourdeaux, a frigate privateer, carrying thirty guns, and two hundred and forty men, by his Majesty's ship under my command, in lat. 49 deg. 30 min. and long. 16 deg. 20 min. after a very hard chase of twelve hours; when nearly within gun-shot the Melampus and Brilliant hove in sight on the weather-bow, which obliged her to bear up, and threw her into our hands about two hours sooner than she otherwise would have been. She is reckoned one of the most complete ships ever fitted out at Bourdeaux, and is perfectly calculated to be taken into his Majesty's service, sails incomparably fast, carries twenty-four eighteen-pounders on her main deck, and six sixes (which she threw overboard in the chase) on her quarter-deck. The Valiant had been twenty days from Bourdeaux, was victualled and stored for a four months cruise; the only capture she has made is the Lord Charles Spencer Halifax packet.

I have the honour to be, &c.

FRED. MAITLAND.

SIR, Bacchante, off the Havannah, May 14. 1805.

I beg to acquaint you, that the Spanish schooner La Felix, a letter of marque, pierced for ten guns, but only six mounted, with a complement of forty-two men, commanded by Francisco Lopes, laden with coffee and bees wax, from the Havannah to Vera Cruz, was this day captured by his Majesty's ship under my command, after a chase of four hours.

She sailed the preceding evening, and was permitted to do so from her very great superiority of sailing, and is the first vessel that has quitted that anchorage since the embargo was laid on.

I have the honour to be, &c.

C. DASHWOOD.
