FROM FRIDAY, JULY 12. TO TUESDAY, JULY 16. 1805.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 10th of July 1805,
PRESENT,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
His Majesty, in Council, was this day pleased to declare the Right Honourable John Jeffereys Earl Camden, Lord President of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and his Lordship took his place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Robert Stewart, commonly called Lord Viscount Castlereagh, to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was, this day, by his Majesty's command, sworn one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased to deliver the custody of the Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster to the Right Honourable Dudley Lord Harrowby, the oath of Chancellor of the said Duchy was, this day, by his Majesty's command, administered to his Lordship.

WESTMINSTER—July 12.

This day, the Lords being met, and the Commons having come, the royal assent by commission was given to several public and private bills, after which the Parliament was prorogued by a commission from his Majesty.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Friday July 12. 1805.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

We have it in command from his MAJESTY to express the satisfaction with which he has observed the proofs you have given, in the course of the present Session, of your constant regard for the honour of his Crown, and the interests of his dominions; and particularly the measures which you have adopted for strengthening his MAJESTY'S hands at this important juncture, by the augmentation of the disposable military force of the kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His MAJESTY has directed us particularly to thank you, in his MAJESTY'S name, for the zeal and liberality with which you have granted the large supplies which the necessity of the public service has required.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

His MAJESTY has not yet been enabled to communicate to you the result of the negotiations in which he is engaged with Powers on the Continent; but you may rest assured that no step will be omitted, on his MAJESTY'S part, for promoting such a concert as may afford the best prospect of restoring general and permanent tranquillity; or, may, if necessary, furnish the means of repelling with vigour the continued encroachments on the part of the French Government, which threaten every day more and more the liberty and independence of all the nations of Europe.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read. After which the LORD CHANCELLOR said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

By virtue of his MAJESTY'S Commission under the Great Seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read; we do, in his MAJESTY'S name, and in obedience to his commands, prorogue this Parliament to Thursday the twenty-second day of August next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the twenty-second day of August next.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—July 13. 1805.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Dacres, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at Jamaica, to William Marden, &c.

SIR, Hercule, Port Royal, April 21. 1805.

Herewith you will receive the copy of a letter transmitted to me by Mr Smith, Midshipman of the Hercule, commanding the schooner Gracieuse, tender to my flag, giving an account of the destruction of a French national schooner that had just sailed from Santo Domingo.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's schooner Gracieuse,

April 12. 1805.

SIR,
I beg leave to inform you, at one P. M. on the 9th instant, I fell in with and captured a large Spanish schooner, from St Domingo to Porto Rico, with passengers. At six A. M. saw a strange sail to the eastward. She proved to be a sloop under French colours. I chased her, firing several shots at her, within gun-shot of the forts of St Domingo. Finding it impossible to take her, I gave chase to a brig to the westward. She proved to be an American. At half-past four, saw a schooner standing out of St Domingo, steering direct for us. I was informed by the Spaniards on board that she was a French national schooner. I immediately hauled out with my prize, that I might have sea room in case she attempted to retreat: this being accomplished, at eight shortened sail and hove to; with the prize under the lee-quarter. At half-past eight, the schooner, windward, edged down within musket shot, and opened a very heavy fire of musketry and great guns, which was immediately returned by the Gracieuse under my command. At nine, he bore down with an intention of boarding, but met with so warm a reception, that obliged him to haul his wind; he continued the engagement. At twenty minutes past nine made a second attempt to board. Finding it impossible, made all sail, firing his stern-chasers and musketry. At eleven he tacked, and stood in for the land. I immediately opened a very heavy fire of grape and cannon, with small arms, which continued till half-past three A. M. at which time he run on shore on Port Vizoa. Finding the reef all around him, I hove to, within half a mile from the reef, until half past four: I then saw him going along shore with his sweeps; made all sail in chase. At half-past seven, observed him haul in for the land. At a quarter past eight run her on shore on Point de Selina, and landed her crew off the bowsprit. I run in, and came to in four fathoms water, with springs on the cable; our boat, and sent a hawler on board her, with an intention, if possible, to get her off; but when I got on board, from the number of shot holes between wind and water, she had completely filled. She was as fine a vessel of her class as ever I saw, and would have done for his Majesty's service. Her force consisted in a beautiful long brass 12-pounder, mounted on a circle in midships, which I have got on board; two long brass 4-pounders, and four brass swivels, 3-pounders, with 96 men, armed with small arms.—Finding it impossible for the boats to do anything, from the heavy surf on the beach, I continued here until morning, and sent the boats at half-past three A. M. under the command of Messrs Higgins and McGill, in order to take out the long gun, and destroy the vessel, which was effectually completed by them. It is impossible to find words sufficient to express the general good and gallant conduct of the officers and crew. I feel pleasure in informing you we have not a man killed; the only persons wounded were Mr Robert Marley, midshipman; Thomas Knox and Joseph Ligo, seamen, which deprived me of a truly brave officer and two men; having on board three sick and three wounded; an officer of our seamen on board the prize. The number of the enemy's killed and wounded is unknown, but must have been considerable, as I could plainly see them carrying the wounded in the bushes.

I have the honour to be, &c.

T. B. SMITH.

J. R. Dacres, Esq. Rear-Admiral of the Red, &c. &c.

SIR, Hercule, at Sea, May 17. 1805.

I have the honour to inclose, for their Lordships information, the copy of a letter I have received from Captain Woolsey, of his Majesty's sloop Papillon, acquainting me of his having, by stratagem, caused one of the felucca-rigged privateers to be captured, that annoy the coast of the island of Jamaica.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

Papillon, Savannah La Mar, April 15. 1805.

SIR, Having anchored at Savannah La Mar, I gained intelligence from the master of a drogger, that a Spanish felucca-rigged privateer was off the West End, to the very great annoyance of the coast, and being very apprehensive she might make her escape should I go after her in the Papillon, I judged it best to try and take her by stratagem; I accordingly got one of the merchant ships shallops, and dispatched Lieutenant Prieur, with 25 men, disguising her as a drogger; at eight the same evening, he fell in with the privateer close under the land; Lieut. Prieur, in a very cool and brave manner, allowed her to row alongside, and make herself fast before the enemy discovered his mistake, he then ordered the men from below, fired a volley of musketry into her, and boarded; and I am happy to inform you, in four minutes she was completely in our possession. She proves to be the Conception, Spanish privateer, of one brass three-pounder and twenty-five men, well armed and equipped, about twenty-five tons burthen; out five days from Man-choneal harbour, in the island of Cuba, and had made no captures.

The loss of the enemy was considerable, having had seven men killed and drowned, and eight badly wounded; we, I am happy to say, had only two slightly wounded; four of her men swam on shore, and have since been taken up by the militia; the prisoners I landed here, who were taken charge of by the militia; the wounded are in the hospital with proper medical attendance.

The conduct of Lieutenant Prieur and Mr J. Christie, purser, (who volunteered his services,) the petty officers and men, on this occasion, I cannot too highly recommend to your notice.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WILLIAM WOOLSEY.

To Rear-Admiral J. R. Dacres, &c.

SIR, Hercule, at sea, May 17. 1805.

I have the honour to inclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter transmitted to me by the Honourable Captain Murray, of his Majesty's ship Franchise, acquainting me of his having captured the tender of the Dutch frigate Kilen Hafshler, which is lying in Curacao harbour.

I am, &c.

J. R. DACRES.

His Majesty's ship La Franchise, off Curacao, April 25. 1805.

SIR, I have the honour to inform you, that on my arrival off the town of this island, on the 24th instant, we observed a schooner to leeward of us; on standing for her she hauled in under the fort of Port Maria, and came to an anchorage; we followed; and, after about an hour's firing at the fort and her, we had the satisfaction to get her out; she proved to be a tender to the Dutch frigate Kelen Hafshler, now lying at Curacao, and commanded by a Lieutenant, with thirty-five men, twenty-four of which, with the Lieutenant and Surgeon, were on board when taken possession of, the former wounded; the rest made their escape on shore: we have, unfortunately, one man very badly wounded, and two slightly; some of our rigging cut, but not materially damaged.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JOHN MURRAY.

To Rear-Admiral J. R. Dacres, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Rear-Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at the Leeward Islands, to William Marshall, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship Northumberland, at Barbadoes, the 4th of June 1805.

SIR,

I herewith inclose you, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of two letters I have received from Captain Nourse, of his Majesty's ship Barbadoes, and Captain Cribb, of the King's Fisher, having captured the French schooner privateer La Desirée, and Spanish privateer Damas.

I am, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

His Majesty's ship Barbadoes, at Sea, April 8. 1805.

SIR, I beg leave to inform you, that his Majesty's ship Barbadoes, under my command, this day captured, in sight of the island of Barbadoes, La Desirée French privateer schooner, of 14 guns and 71 men, out four days from Guadeloupe, and had not made any capture. She had the temerity, after being decoyed within musket-shot, to return the fire of several broadsides with musketry, by which she suffered in seven men killed and wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) JOSEPH NOURSE.

To His Rear-Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief, &c.

His Majesty's Sloop King's Fisher, off Cape St Juan, April 11. 1805.

SIR,

Two boats from the ship under my command, under the direction of Lieutenants Standish and Smith, brought out from the anchorage of the above Cape the Damas Spanish privateer, pierced for 4 guns, mounting 1 eight-pounder, 40 muskets, with a crew of 57 men. Though the crew made some resistance both from the vessels and on shore, I have the pleasure to add it was without loss. She was equipped ten days ago at Cumana, for a cruise off Demerary. This is her first and unsuccessful effort. I am, &c.

W. R. CRIBB, Commander.

The Hon. Admiral Cochrane, Commander in Chief, &c.
