

Appeals to the said Appeal Court, whether in the Court of Gambia or in the Appeal Court, and whether before or after the final judgment of the Appeal Court, and all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations, and also all Rules, Orders, and Regulations contained in the Appendix to this Order, from time to time to revoke, alter, amend, or renew as occasion may require. Provided always, that all such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall forthwith be transmitted by the President of the Appeal Court to the Governor of the Colony of Sierra Leone, to be by him transmitted to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, and shall be subject to disallowance by His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, but, until so disallowed, shall have as full effect as if they had been contained in the Appendix to this Order in Council.

5. Any person who feels himself aggrieved by any final judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the Appeal Court, on appeal, may, subject to the Rules, Regulations, limitations, and conditions which, for the time being, shall be in force respecting Appeals to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors in Council from any judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the said Full Court of the Supreme Court of Sierra Leone, and subject to such other regulations and conditions as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors shall be pleased to direct, appeal to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, in His or their Privy Council, against any such final judgment, sentence, decree, or order of the Appeal Court. The Court of the Gambia shall in all cases of appeal to His Majesty, His heirs, and successors in Council, execute and carry into immediate effect such judgments and orders as His Majesty, His heirs, and successors shall make thereupon in such manner as any original judgments and orders of the said Court can or may be executed.

6. The said Order in Council of the 24th day of November 1891 is hereby revoked, but such revocation shall not affect the validity of anything lawfully done thereunder, or revive any Order in Council revoked thereby.

7. All Rules and Regulations relating to the Supreme Court of the Gambia (save and except only Rules relating to Appeals therefrom to the said Appeal Court) which are in force when this Order in Council takes effect, may be repealed or altered by any Rules, Orders, or Regulations to be made under any Ordinance of the Colony of the Gambia, but shall continue in force until so altered or repealed.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

APPENDIX.

RULES REGULATING APPEALS TO THE FULL COURT OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE COLONY OF SIERRA LEONE FROM THE SUPREME COURT OF THE COLONY OF THE GAMBIA.

Where Appeal Lies.

1. Any party aggrieved by any decision of the Supreme Court of the Colony of the Gambia (hereinafter called the Court below) may apply to the Court below for leave to appeal to the Full Court of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Sierra Leone (hereinafter called the Appeal

Court), and thereupon leave to appeal shall, subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter contained be granted to the applicant, but not otherwise. Provided always that, in every final judgment, the Appeal Court may give leave to appeal on such terms as that Court thinks fit.

Interlocutory Orders.

2. The Court below shall not give leave to appeal from an interlocutory order, unless it shall consider such Appeal to be reasonable and proper, and in such case it shall transmit to the Appeal Court, along with the Record of Appeal, a brief statement of the grounds upon which the Appeal has been allowed. Any doubt which may arise as to what decrees or orders are final, and what are interlocutory, shall be determined by the Appeal Court.

Exparte Orders.

3. An Appeal does not lie from an order made "exparte." Any person aggrieved by such an Order may apply to the Court by which it is made to vary or discharge it, and an Appeal lies from the decision on that application in like manner as from other orders or decisions.

Order as to Costs or by Consent.

4. No order as to costs only, or order made by consent of parties, shall be subject to any appeal, except by special leave of the Court below or the Appeal Court.

Conditions of Appeal.

5. In no case shall leave to appeal be granted, unless within one month after his application for leave to appeal the Appellant shall have given security to the satisfaction of the Court below, in terms of the form of bond contained in the Schedule A hereto, for payment of all such costs as may be awarded to any Respondent by the Appeal Court and shall have paid into the Court below the amount of the expense of making up and transmission to the Appeal Court of the Record of Appeal, and shall have given notice of the Appeal to all parties directly affected by the Appeal and to such others as Respondents, as the Court below thinks fit to direct, and unless within seven days after the expiration of such month he shall have filed a further application for leave to appeal.

Provided that where the conditions of appeal have not been perfected within such period as aforesaid, or where the Appeal shall for any reason have lapsed, or been abandoned, and the Appellant shall again make application for leave to appeal, the Court may either refuse to grant leave or may impose any terms that it thinks proper, in addition to the terms above mentioned.

Limitation of Time for Appeals.

6.—(1) After fourteen days from the date of an interlocutory order, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained.

(2) After three months from the date of a final judgment, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained by the Court below.

(3) After six months from the date of a final judgment, application for leave to appeal shall not be entertained by the Appeal Court: Pro-
