To define the powers of the Society and particularly (but not exclusively) to confer powers with respect to the granting of assurances and annuities, the effecting of re-assurances and the undertaking of risks by way of re-assurance, the acquisition and holding of lands without licence in mortmain, the sale, exchange, mortgage, charging, leasing, maintenance, development and other dealings with and dispositions of lands and buildings, the erection and alteration of buildings, the borrowing of money, the entering into and carrying into effect of agreements for purchasing or amalgamating with other societies, associations or companies, and the undertaking, paying and performing of all or any of the assurances, annuities and engagements of other societies, associations or companies.

To provide that the Society may sue and be sued by its corporate name.

To enable the Society to change its name and to prescribe the mode in which and the conditions subject to which any such change may be effected.

To make provision for the administration of the business and affairs of the Society and the appointment and removal of officers, auditors, trustees, agents, and others, and to define the powers and duties of directors of the Society and to make provisions as to their appointment, remuneration, retirement, vacation of office, number, qualification and liabilities.

To make provisions with respect to the general and special meetings of the Society, the election of auditors and consulting actuaries, the regulation of the rates of contributions or premiums for assurances to be charged by the Society, and as to the alteration of the tables of contributions or premiums, the inspection of books of the Society by the directors and members, the execution or signature of deeds, policies, contracts, cheques, and other instruments, documents and papers and the authentication thereof.

To define the rights of members of the Society as to the conduct of the affairs of the Society, and the powers of the Society as to the investment of funds, and to alter, amend, extend or enlarge the provisions of the existing Acts, rules and regulations of or relating to the Society with respect to such investments, and to confer powers upon the directors of the Society as to the investment of funds, the keeping of banking accounts and the formation of special funds.

To vest or provide for the vesting in the society of all or any property real or personal, rights, interests, obligations, securities, things in action and powers vested in or held by trustees or others on behalf of the Society or to continue in the hands of such trustees or other persons or transfer to and vest in other trustees or persons all or any such property, rights, interests, obligations, securities, things in action and powers, and to provide for and prescribe the stamp duties to be paid in respect of any such vesting or transfer, and to make provision with respect to the rights, interests, liabilities and obligations of the Society and trustees for the Society and of members of the Society and other persons or, if thought fit, to release and discharge such trustees from all or any of the obligations and liabilities arising out of or attaching to the office of a trustee of the Society and to indemnify such trustees in respect of such obligations and liabilities.

To provide for the periodical valuation of the assets and liabilities of the Society and as to the mode of application of any surplus.

To define the extent of and to limit the liability of directors, officers, members and others of or connected with the Society, and to indemnify the directors, trustees, officers, clerks and servants of the Society against costs, charges, damages, losses and expenses incurred in the execution of their offices and duties.

To make provision with respect to claims against the funds of the Society and the time and place of payment thereof, and as to the making of payments to executors, administrators, trustees and other persons standing in a fiduciary or representative capacity.

To authorize the surrender of or other dealing with policies of assurance vested in any person, including mortgagees, trustees and others holding in a fiduciary or representative capacity, and of bonus additions to any such policy.

To provide for the settlement by arbitration of disputes between the Society and the members or persons claiming through members.

To define the rules and regulations of the Society, and to authorize the alteration of such rules and regulations in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as may be specified in the Bill.

To confer upon the Society all such further or other powers, rights and privileges, and to enact all such further or other provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for or with respect to the business or affairs of the Society or otherwise for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of the intended Act.

To vary or extinguish all rights or privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with or prevent the execution of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1913.

WESLEYAN AND GENERAL ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

(Incorporation of Society; Definition and Extension of Objects and Powers; Transfer of Property; Exemption from Stamp Duty; Application of Revenue and Allocation of Surplus; Confirmation of Bonus Additions to Policies; Discontinuance of existing Sickness Department and Application of Funds; Appointment of Directors and other Officers; Government, Direction and Administration of Society; Making and Alteration of Rules; Determination and Payment of Premiums; Exemption from Liability; Change of Name; Repeal, Exclusion, and Incorporation of Acts; and other Matters.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Wesleyan and General Assurance Society (who are hereinafter called "the existing Society") for an Act for all or some of the purposes, amongst others, herein-after mentioned.

1. To incorporate the members of the existing Society and others, and to confer upon the Society as incorporated (hereinafter referred to as "the Society") all such powers as are usually conferred upon similar bodies or as may be indicated in the intended Act, including powers relating to the acquisition and holding of the lands and to prescribe the constitution, objects, and powers of the Society.

2. To provide that the objects of the Society shall include all or any of the objects and purposes of the existing Society and shall include the granting of assurances for the payment of money on the happening of any events, whether connected with life or not, the granting of annuities and the reassuring of risks.

3. To confer upon the Society such powers as may be deemed expedient to enable them to carry on their existing businesses and such extensions thereof and such new businesses as may be thought fit and generally to carry their objects and purposes into effect and to confer powers upon them relating to the granting of assurances and annuities, the effecting of reassurances, the undertaking of risks, the becoming an approved society or the formation of approved societies under the National Insurance Act, 1911, and the Acts amending the same, the sale, exchange, mortgage, charging, building upon, development and disposal of lands and other property, the acquisition of any business, property, rights and liabilities of or amalgamation with any other society, association or company, or the sale or disposing of all or any business, property, rights, or liabilities of the Society, the establishment and support of associations, institutions, trusts or funds for the benefit of employees of the Society or the existing Society, the payment of pensions and other allowances, the subscription of money to charitable, benevolent and other general or useful objects and to exhibitions, the drawing of and dealing in bills of exchange and other negotiable or transferable instruments, the borrowing of money, the issue of debentures, debenture stock and other securities, the charging of properties and rights, the making of arrangements for sharing profits and co-operation with, and the subsidising and assisting of persons and companies, the registration or recognition of the Society in countries, states and places outside the United Kingdom, and the carrying on of business in any such country, state or place, the formation of societies or companies and the holding and disposal of shares, stock, debentures or other interests therein, the discontinuance of any branch of business of the Society, the lending of money, the promotion of, and opposition to, Bills in Parliament and the doing of any other things incidental to the Society's objects.

4. To provide for separate departments for the several classes of business carried on by the Society.

5. To provide for discontinuing the granting of assurances out of the existing sickness department and for the transfer to the ordinary life insurance department of any surplus of the said sickness department after providing for all present and future claims thereon.

6. To make provision for the transfer to, vesting in, and holding by the Society of all or any of the property of every description, real or personal, including interests and rights, obligations, securities and things in action now belonging to or held by or in trust for the existing Society, or in which that Society are in any way interested, for the substitution of the Society for the existing Society in all conveyances, contracts, agreements and other documents, for the continuance of actions, arbitrations and other proceedings, and for the continuance, as evidence, of books and other documents.

7. To exempt the Society from the payment of stamp duties in respect of the intended Act, and the transfer and vesting of property thereby or thereunder, and in lieu thereof to provide for the payment of such sum, if any, as may be indicated in the intended Act.

8. To make provision for the application of the surplus revenue or profits of the Society, and the division thereof amongst the members, with power to permit all or any persons insured by the Society to participate by bonus, additions or otherwise, in such surplus revenue or profits, or any part thereof, in such manner and to such extent as the Society think fit, and to sanction, confirm and legalise any such bonus, additions or other participation in surplus revenue or profits that may have been made or declared before the passing of the intended Act.

9. To enact all necessary provisions relating to the government, direction and administration of the Society, including the appointment of directors to exercise all or any of the Society's powers subject to such restrictions as may be indicated in the intended Act, the appointment and removal of actuaries, managers, trustees, officers, agents and others, the determination of the principal office, the holding of meetings, the inspection of books, the authentication of documents, the keeping of banking accounts, the investment of the Society's funds, the formation, investment and application of reserve funds, the service of documents and the making of affidavits.

10. To make provision in regard to the rates of contributions and premiums for assurances, the alteration of tables of premiums and the payment of premiums, and for the payment of sums becoming due to policy-holders, their executors, administrators or other representatives, for enabling the Society to make payments under policies in certain cases on such evidence as they may require, and to provide for the surrender or conversion of policies.

11. To provide that members of the Society, directors, trustees and officers shall not be liable for the Society's debts, and to provide for exoneration and indemnification of such persons.

12. To enable the Society to change its name.

13. To enact such provisions as may be necessary or expedient for saving interests under any existing insurances or other contracts.

14. To enact rules for the management and regulation of the affairs of the Society, and to empower the Society from time to time in such manner as may be prescribed to make rules and to alter rules (whether enacted in the intended Act or not), relating to the management of its affairs, including the holding of annual and other meetings of the members, the business to be transacted thereat, the voting of members, the requisition and taking of a poll, the numbers, qualification, election, continuance and retirement of directors, including the chairman, deputy-chairman and vice-chairman, the remuneration and the powers and duties of the directors, chairman, deputy-chairman and vice-chairman, the appointment and regulation of committees, the investment of funds, the issue of policies and the conditions thereof, the sealing of documents, the appointment and powers of general managers, managing directors, trustees and auditors, the formation and powers of local boards, the periodical investigation of the Society's financial position, the distribution of profits, the keeping and audit of accounts, the service of notices and the reference of disputes to arbitration.

15. To make such other provisions, and to confer upon the Society such other powers, rights and privileges as are incidental or ancillary to the objects and purposes herein before stated or referred to, or necessary or expedient for carrying on the business or objects of the Society, or for the management or administration of the affairs of the Society, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with, or which would interfere with, the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

16. To exclude the Society from the operation of the Friendly Societies Discharge Act, 1854, and from any other Acts relating to friendly societies, including 10 Geo. IV., c. 56; 4 and 5 Will. IV., c. 40; 3 and 4 Vict., c. 73; 9 and 10 Vict., c. 27; 13 and 14 Vict., c. 115; and 17 and 18 Vict., c. 56; to repeal the provisions of the Wesleyan and General Assurance Society's Act, 1866, and the rules of the existing Society, with such exceptions, if any, as may be indicated in the intended Act, and to re-enact and to make applicable to the Society such of the said provisions and rules as may be indicated in the intended Act, and to incorporate certain of the provisions of the Companies Clauses (Consolidation) Act, 1845, relating to the accountability of officers, the recovery of damages and penalties, and other matters.

And notice is hereby further given that on or before the 17th day of December next, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

BEIRA RAILWAY COMPANY, LIMITED.

(Power to Beira Railway Company, Limited to make adjustments of Accounts; Definition of Form of Balance Sheet and Accounts as adjusted; Further Provisions as to Redemption of Four-and-a-Half per Cent. First Mortgage Debentures; Application of Existing Sinking Fund; Provision for additional Sinking Fund and as to Application thereof; Maximum of Annual Amount Payable to additional Sinking Fund; Power to Redeem all Outstanding Debentures at any time; Cesser of Obligations as to Provision of Sinking Funds; Cancellation of Debentures Redeemed or Purchased; Provisions as to Debentures not Redeemed at Date of Maturity; Variation of Rights of Holders of Four-and-a-Half per Cent. Debentures and of Six per Cent. Income Debenture Stock; Provisions as to Outstanding Six per Cent. First Mortgage Debentures; Alteration of Trust Deeds and of Memorandum and Articles of Association; General and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Beira Railway Company, Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following purposes amongst others (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to make all such adjustments and alterations of and in their accounts as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purpose of increasing or adjusting the amount at present appearing in those accounts as having been expended on capital account to an amount representing or more nearly representing the present value of their undertaking, and to confer upon the Company and the directors thereof all such powers, and to make all such provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for securing that object and for effecting such adjustments and alterations or otherwise as a consequence of the making of such adjustments and alterations.

The Bill will or may provide for and authorize the making of such adjustments and alterations by sanctioning the retention or inclusion in and as part of the total amount expended by the Company on capital account of sums which are not represented or are not fully represented by assets of the Company, and by bringing into account assets the value of which is not represented in the accounts of the Company, and by increasing to their true value the value as now entered in those accounts of other assets which are undervalued therein, and by directing and sanctioning the making in the accounts of the Company of all such transfers and adjustments as may be necessary or expedient for that purpose, and the Bill will or may specify all or some of the particular sums of which the whole or part is so to be retained, included and transferred.

To make all such provisions (if any) as may be thought fit for defining the form of the balance sheet and accounts of the Company in consequence or as a result of the making of such transfers and adjustments as aforesaid and (if thought fit) to provide that the balance sheet and accounts in the form so defined shall be deemed for all or any purposes to be substituted for the balance sheet and accounts of the Company relating to the year ending on the 30th September, 1913.

To make further and other provisions with respect to the redemption and repayment of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum first mortgage debentures of the Company (hereinafter referred to as "the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures") and in connection therewith the intended Act will or may (inter alia) confer all or some of the powers and enact all or some of the provisions hereinafter referred to.

To provide for and authorize and require the application by the Company of the sinking fund for the redemption from time to time of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures which the Company are now under obligation to provide (hereinafter referred to as "the existing sinking fund") in the redemption at a premium (hereinafter referred to as "the prescribed premium") of 3 per centum or such other amount (if any) as the intended Act may prescribe of so much of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures as such sinking fund shall from time to time be sufficient to redeem, and to prescribe the date or dates (whether annual or at any other period or interval and whether the same as those fixed by the trust deed for securing the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures hereinafter referred to or not) at which the existing sinking fund shall be so applied, but so that except as hereinbefore mentioned the existing sinking fund shall continue to be applied in the manner in which the same is now applicable under the said trust deed.

To provide that before paying any dividend to the shareholders of the Company out of the profits of any year the Company shall out of so much of such profits as shall be available for the payment of such dividend set aside and appropriate a sum (in addition to the annual sum which they are now under obligation to pay to the credit of the existing sinking fund) bearing such proportion as may be defined in the Bill to the amount proposed to be distributed in dividend and to pay such sum to the credit of a separate fund (hereinafter referred to as "the additional sinking fund") to be formed by way of further provision for the redemption of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures and to provide for the application from time to time of the additional sinking fund in the redemption of so much of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures as that fund shall be sufficient to redeem either by purchase on the market at a price not exceeding the price at which such debentures are under the intended Act to be redeemable by means of the existing sinking fund, together with any accrued interest on the debentures redeemed, or (at the option of the Company) by drawings at the prescribed premium, and to make such provisions as may be deemed necessary with respect to the dates and mode of effecting such purchases or drawings and otherwise with respect thereto.

To prescribe the maximum amount which the Company are to be required to pay to the additional sinking fund in any one year and to authorize the Company after so paying such maximum amount in any year to distribute as dividends to their shareholders or otherwise apply the profits of that year free from any obligation to set aside and appropriate thereout any further sum for the purposes of the additional sinking fund.

To empower the Company at their option to redeem at any time at the prescribed premium (whether by means of the existing sinking fund or of the additional sinking fund or otherwise) the whole or any part of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures for the time being outstanding.

To require the holders of such of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures as may be redeemed under the provisions of the intended Act to deliver up such debentures to the Company and to provide for the cesser of interest upon the debentures so redeemed from the date or respective dates of their redemption.

To provide that as from the date on which the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures are wholly discharged either by the payment at the date of maturity of the amounts thereby respectively secured and the premium hereinafter referred to or by the previous redemption of such debentures, the obligations of the Company as to the provision of the existing sinking fund or the additional sinking fund or otherwise with respect thereto shall cease and determine.

To provide for the cancellation of all debentures to be redeemed or purchased under the provisions of the intended Act before the date of maturity and to prohibit the re-issue of such debentures or the issue of other debentures in the place thereof.

To provide that such of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures as shall not at the date at which they will mature for payment have been redeemed by means of the existing sinking fund or the additional sinking fund or otherwise under the intended Act shall be paid off at that date at the prescribed premium instead of at par, but in all other respects upon and subject to the terms and conditions upon and subject to which those debentures were issued subject to any variation of those terms and conditions which may have been or may hereafter be made in accordance with the provisions of the trust deed for securing the same hereinafter referred to.

To make all such alterations in and modifications of the rights of the holders of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures whether under the trust deed for securing the same hereinafter referred to, or otherwise, and in and of the rights of the holders of the 6 per centum Income Debenture Stock of the Company whether under the trust deed for securing the same hereinafter referred to or otherwise as may be deemed necessary or expedient for giving effect to the objects of the intended Act or otherwise in consequence or as a result of the enactment of the provisions thereof.

To make all such provisions (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient with respect to such of the 6 per centum first mortgage debentures of the Company and the holders thereof respectively as have not been or may not before the passing of the intended Act be converted into $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum debentures pursuant to the scheme of arrangement for such conversion adopted by and binding upon the holders of the said 6 per centum first mortgage debentures and the Bill will or may provide that any of the said 6 per centum first mortgage debentures so remaining unconverted shall be dealt with as though they had been converted pursuant to the said scheme of arrangement and that the holders of such unconverted debentures shall be deemed to be the holders of the securities of the Company into which the said 6 per centum first mortgage debentures are to be converted pursuant to the said scheme of arrangement.

To make all such alterations in and modifications or extensions of the provisions of the indentures next hereinafter referred to as may be necessary or expedient for giving effect to the objects of the intended Act as hereinbefore indicated, and to repeal or annul such of the said provisions as may be inconsistent with or would interfere with the carrying into effect of the said objects.

The said indentures are the following (that is to say):—

An indenture dated the 21st day of November, 1900, and made between the Company of the one part and Robert Benson and Carl Meyer of the other part, being the trust deed for securing £1,100,000 $4\frac{1}{2}$ per centum first mortgage debentures of the Company.

Another indenture bearing the same date and made between the same parties, being the trust deed for securing £613,125 6 per centum income debenture stock.

To make or to authorize and provide for the making of all such alterations (if any) in the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company as may be necessary or expedient in connection with or as a consequence of the enactment of the intended provisions.

To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1913.

RAILWAY CLEARING SYSTEM SUPER- ANNUATION FUND CORPORATION.

(Increase of and Additional Contributions to Fund by Railway Clearing House, Subscribing Railway Companies and Joint Committees and Clearing House Committee (Ireland); Further Powers of Investment; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To make provision with reference to the Fund established in pursuance of the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Acts 1873 to 1897 (hereinafter referred to as "the Fund"), and to empower and if thought fit to require the Railway Clearing House and the Railway Companies and Joint Committees for the time being subscribing to the Fund and the Clearing House Committee (Ireland) (hereinafter collectively referred to as "the contributing bodies"), to increase, vary and alter their contributions thereto and in respect thereof.

2. To alter and prescribe the rate at which and the basis upon which all or any of such contributions shall be made and to empower the contributing bodies in certain cases to make contributions to the Fund for or on behalf of any contributing member in their service.

3. To empower and if thought fit to require the contributing bodies upon such terms and conditions (if any) as may be prescribed by the intended Act to make such additional payments as may be necessary for securing to all or any of the contributing or superannuated members of the Fund such benefits as may be agreed or as the intended Act may prescribe and to provide for the manner in which and the persons or bodies to which any such contributions or payments as aforesaid shall be made and for the allocation thereof amongst and payment to the persons who may be entitled thereto.

4. To enlarge and increase the powers of the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Corporation and the Committee thereof to regulate the Fund for the investment of moneys in such stocks, funds and securities as the intended Act may prescribe, and to empower them from time to time to vary such investments and otherwise to confer further powers upon them with reference to the holding, investment and application of their funds and other property.

5. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal all or any of the provisions of the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Acts, 1873 to 1897, and the rules made thereunder, and the Railway Clearing Committee Incorporation Act, 1897, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Corporation, or the Committee thereof, or the Fund, or the contributing bodies, or any of them.

6. To alter, vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.
