FABRICS (MISDESCRIPTION) ACT, 1913.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND, DATED 12TH FEBRUARY 1914, UNDER SECTION 1 OF THE FABRICS (MISDESCRIPTION) ACT, 1913.

In pursuance of Section 1 as read with Section 7 of the Fabrics (Misdescription) Act, 1913, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. A textile fabric shall be deemed to conform to the standard of non-inflammability if, when tested in accordance with the prescribed method of testing, it is not set alight, or if set alight, burns without a flame or with a flame which does not spread but converges and dies out.

2. The prescribed method of testing shall be as follows:—

A sample of the fabric measuring not less than one square yard shall be taken, and, after it has been four times in succession thoroughly washed with soap and water, dried and ironed, shall be suspended vertically without folds or creases and so that the lower edge shall not be a selvedge or a folded edge. The flame of a wax taper not less than  $\frac{1}{8}$  inch or more than  $\frac{3}{16}$  inch in thickness shall then be brought in contact with the fabric at its lower edge and shall be kept in contact for not less than twelve or more than fifteen seconds.

BURGH OF LESLIE.

AN Initial Writ has been presented to the Sheriff of Fife and Kinross at Kirkcaldy, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Leslie, in which they crave the Court—

(1) To revise, alter, and extend the Boundaries of the said Burgh for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Acts, and the Town Councils (Scotland) Acts, and to define in a written Deliverance the new Boundaries of the said Burgh in manner following, viz. :—Commencing on the north side of the Path leading from the High Street of the Old Town of Leslie to Rothes West Lodge at a point where the southwest corner of the Manse Garden abuts on the said path, along the south and east walls of said garden, around the east and south sides of the Manse outhouses, then along the east dyke of the Churchyard to the Common, and along the extreme boundary of the Common till it reaches the point marked A. on the plan produced, thence northwestwards to the public road leading to Ballinbreich Terrace, then across the said public road, thence northwards on the west side of the said public road to the southeast corner of the feus called Ballinbreich Terrace, along the south wall of said feus to the northwest corner, then northwest by the barbed wire fence to a point in the middle of the field, then southwestwards by the fence on the ridge to the footpath leading to Balsillie Farm, then southeastwards by the fence on the north side of the footpath, then south by the fence to the northeast corner of the whinstone wall at the Slaughter House Feu belonging to Pursuers, then eastward along the said last-mentioned wall to the northwest corner thereof, then southward till it meets the Common, then along the extreme boundary of the Common till it reaches the public road leading from Leslie to Auchmuir Bridge, thence along the north side of said public road till it reaches a point opposite the western boundary walls of the feus on the western side of Mansfield Road, then crossing the said public road and thereafter proceeding southwards along said boundary walls till they reach the boundary wall separating the lands of Bank Place from the ground formerly part of the Commonty of Leslie and now the property of the School Board of Leslie, thence westward along said last-mentioned boundary wall till it reaches the wall bounding the property of the School Board of Leslie on the west, thence southward along said boundary wall of the School Board property till it reaches the northmost pillar at the entrance to Prinlaws, thence along the northwest, west, and south boundaries of the Ryehill Feus to the field formerly part of the Commonty of Leslie and some time ago excambied by the Burgh of Leslie to the late Countess of Rothes, thence along the west boundary of said field till it reaches the southwest corner thereof, thence along the south boundary of said field till it reaches the public road leading from Leslie to Kinglassie, thence along the west side of said public road until it reaches the Fettykil Road, thence across the said public road and thereafter along the south boundary of the field known as Fluthers until it reaches the southeast corner of said field, and thereafter along the boundary between the lands of Fettykil and the south boundaries of the feus on the south side of the New Town and Old Town of Leslie eastward to the road leading down to Tamswell Baulk, across and down the said road straight to the old Paper Mill Lade, and along the Lade to the River Leven, thence along the north side of the River Leven to the boundary of the Rothes Estate, and along that boundary northward till it reaches the dwelling-houses on the south side of the High Street of Leslie at the extreme east end thereof, thence along the east side of said houses till the foresaid boundary reaches the High Street, thence eastward along the south side of the High Street of the Old Town of Leslie till it reaches a point immediately opposite to the point of the path first above mentioned, and thence crossing the said path to the said point first above mentioned; and (2) to find and declare that the whole expenses incurred by the Pursuers and by the Court in carrying out the proceedings hereunder shall be defrayed out of the Burgh General Assessment to be levied within said Burgh in terms of the said Acts.

On which Initial Writ the Sheriff has been pleased to pronounce the following Deliverance, viz. :—

Kirkcaldy, 18th February 1914.—The Sheriff having considered the foregoing Writ, appoints intimation thereof and of the boundaries proposed for the revised, altered, and extended boundaries of the said Burgh as set forth therein, and of this Deliverance, to be given by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the People's Journal and Fifehire Advertiser newspapers, and also by Handbills to be posted within the Burgh and also within the area proposed to be included within the said revised and extended boundaries; and directs all persons desiring to oppose the prayer of the said Writ, or desiring to be heard in connection therewith, to lodge a Notice of Appearance in the hands of the Clerk of Court at Kirkcaldy, within ten days from the latest date of intimation; appoints the plan referred to in the said writ to remain in the hands of the said Clerk of Court for inspection. (Signed) JAMES A. FLEMING.

Of all which Intimation is hereby given.

GEO. WILKIE, Solicitor, Leslie, Agent for Pursuers.
