TUESDAY, OCTOBER 6, 1914.

PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE, October 2, 1914.

PRIZE COURTS ACT, 1894.

NOTICE is hereby given that, after the expiration of forty days from the date hereof, it is proposed to submit to His Majesty in Council the Draft of an Order in Council for the amendment of the Rules of Court regulating the procedure and practice of Prize Courts, approved as provisional Rules under section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, by Order in Council of the 5th August 1914, and confirmed by Order in Council of the 17th September 1914.

The said amending Rules were approved as provisional Rules under section 2 of the last-named Act by Order in Council of the 30th September 1914.

Notice is hereby further given that, in accordance with the provisions of the last-named Act, copies of the proposed Rules can be obtained by any public body within forty days of date of this Notice at the Privy Council Office, Whitehall.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of September 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Islington.

Lord Emmott.

Sir William Carrington.

WHEREAS by the first section of the Colonial Probates Act, 1892, it is enacted as follows:—

“ Her Majesty the Queen may, on being satisfied that the Legislature of any British Possession has made adequate provision for the recognition in that Possession of Probates and Letters of Administration granted by the Courts of the United Kingdom, direct by Order in Council that this Act shall, subject to any exceptions and modifications specified in the Order, apply to that Possession, and thereupon, while the Order is in force, this Act shall apply accordingly.”

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that the
