

other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of commencement of the War.

"Where an alien enemy carries on, or purports or continues to carry on, or is a member of a partnership or firm which carries on, or purports or continues to carry on, any trade or business under any name other than that under which the trade or business was carried on at the date of the commencement of the War, he shall, for the purposes of this Order, be deemed to be using, or purporting or continuing to use, a name other than that by which he was ordinarily known at the date of the commencement of the War.

"Nothing in this Article shall affect the right of a woman who, after the commencement of the War, marries an alien enemy to use the name which she acquires on her marriage.

"A Secretary of State may, if it appears desirable, in any particular case, grant an exemption from the provisions of this Article."

2. This Order may be cited as "The Aliens Restriction (Change of Name) Isle of Man Order, 1914."

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of November 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 30th day of October 1914, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we are of opinion that the duties and responsibilities of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men belonging to the Royal Marine Garrison at Cromarty in certain cases warrant the grant of additional remuneration :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the Rates of Allowances and Extra Pay shown in the annexed Schedule, with retrospective effect so as to cover payment in respect of any of those duties which have actually been carried out since the Garrison has been in occupation.

"We would further submit that such Allowances and Extra Pay may be payable, at our discretion, to any additional men whose employment on the duties specified may become necessary.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.
