

under this section, he may appeal therefrom to the Staff of Government Division of the High Court of Justice in manner provided by section 14 of the Petty Sessions Act, 1864.

(3) The District Licensing Court shall have power to make an Order under this section at their yearly Session or at any special Sessions held by them for the purpose of their duties under the Licensing Acts, 1876 to 1909, or at any Meeting specially called for the purpose under this Act.

The Clerk to the District Licensing Court shall specially call such a Meeting if an application in writing is made to him for the purpose either by the High Bailiff of the District or by the Chief Officer of Police for the District.

Interpretation.

2.—(1) In this Act the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

“Club” means any club which occupies a house or part of a house or any other premises habitually used for the purposes of a club, and in which any intoxicating liquor is supplied to members or their guests.

“Retailers’ licence” means a public-house licence, a retail liquor licence, or a transfer licence as defined by the Licensing Act, 1876, or a short term licence as defined by the Licensing Act, 1895.

“Chief Officer of Police” means the Chief Constable of the Isle of Man, and, in the case of his absence from duty on the ground of illness, absence from the Island, or otherwise, the Superintendent of Police of the Isle of Man.

(2) This Act may be cited as the Intoxicating Liquor (Temporary Restriction) Act, 1914.

(3) This Act shall remain in force during the continuance of the present War, and for a period of one month after the close thereof.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Viscount Knollys.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Edward Goschen.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council by Order to direct that sections 34, 35, and 36 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, shall extend, with or without any exceptions, adaptations, or modifications in the Order mentioned, to any foreign country in which for the time being His Majesty has jurisdiction, and that thereupon those sections shall, to the extent of that jurisdiction, operate as if that country were a British Possession, and as if His Majesty in Council were the Legislature of that Possession:

And whereas by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has power and jurisdiction in the East Africa Protectorate, the Nyasaland Protectorate, Southern Rhodesia, Swaziland, Wei-hai-Wei, and Zanzibar:

And whereas it is expedient that sections 34, 35, and 36 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, should be extended to the said Protectorates:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that sections 34, 35, and 36 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, shall from the date of this Order apply to the East Africa Protectorate, the Nyasaland Protectorate, Southern Rhodesia, Swaziland, Wei-hai-Wei, and Zanzibar, as though each of the said Protectorates were a Colony within the meaning of the said sections.

And the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, His Majesty’s Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November 1914.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 12th day of November 1914, in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas we have had under our consideration the desirability of establishing a new rating of Signal Boy, Royal Naval Reserve, (Trawler Section):

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction provision being made for the payment of Signal Boys, Royal Naval Reserve (Trawler Section), at the rate of 1s. a day, this rate to be payable to all Signal Boys already enrolled in the Trawler Reserve.

The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in the foregoing proposal.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.
