

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
5430	Company-Quartermaster-Serjeant	Bailey, W. J. ...	1st Battalion, Loyal North Lancashire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 8th November at Veldehoek, in returning to his company, although wounded, and rendering valuable aid in retaking trenches.
9276	Serjeant ...	Baillie, W. ...	2nd Battalion, Highland Light Infantry	For gallant services rendered especially at night-time. Was always eager to volunteer for patrol or other dangerous duty requiring nerve.
1914	Corporal ...	Baker, D. G. ...	5th Lancers ...	For gallantry and great ability in action, and on reconnaissance duty on several occasions.
9736	Acting-Corporal	Baldwin, R. ...	2nd Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For gallant conduct in continually rendering most valuable assistance in superintending the collection of the wounded, whilst exposed to heavy rifle and artillery fire.
9954	Private ...	Banner, J. W. ...	2nd Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For gallantry in rendering valuable assistance to his unit at a critical period under a heavy fire.
8145	Private ...	Barclay, W. ...	1st Battalion, Scottish Rifles	For gallantry on 24th October near La Boutillerie, in bringing a wounded comrade into cover of the trenches under a heavy fire.
10564	Private ...	Barnett, L. ...	2nd Battalion, Coldstream Guards	For conspicuous gallantry on 5th November in Reutel Wood, when he went out voluntarily with a small party to enfilade a trench, the fire from which was causing many casualties. The risk was very great on this occasion, and he was severely wounded.
20101	Serjeant ...	Barnfield, J. L. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps, Special Reserve	For conspicuous gallantry in leading his stretcher-bearers in a fearless manner under fire in darkness, collecting the wounded, especially at La Boutillerie on 24th October.
12075	Corporal ...	Barry, F. ...	59th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous ability and gallantry during the operations around Ypres from 6th to 20th November, especially in the arduous and trying work of re-trenching our second line, in close proximity to the enemy.
7548	Acting-Company-Quartermaster-Serjeant	Barton, J. ...	2nd Battalion, Essex Regiment	For leading his platoon in a conspicuously gallant manner on 13th October when in independent command.
7440	Private ...	Beale, A. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Sussex Regiment	For gallant conduct on 10th September at Courchamps, where the casualties were very heavy from shell fire, he managed to continue attending the wounded although one of his fingers was then blown away.
5396	Serjeant ...	Bennett, J.	2nd Battalion, Leinster Regiment	For gallantry and coolness in handling a machine gun on 20th October, under a heavy fire, and by his ability securing an unbroken supply of ammunition for the troops throughout the day.
25354	Driver ...	Bianchi, F. ...	23rd Field Company, Royal Engineers	For conspicuous courage near Ypres on 9th November, in voluntarily remaining alone for two hours with the horses, under continuous high explosive shell fire. Fifty horses were killed or wounded in his immediate vicinity.
8725	Private ...	Black, R. ...	1st Battalion, South Wales Borderers	For gallantry on 31st October in assisting to collect unattached men and bringing them to the trenches under a heavy fire, and again on 2nd November, in gallantly assisting to extricate men who had been buried by a shell, under heavy fire.