

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
752	Serjeant ...	Cobb, A. J. ...	5th Lancers ...	For gallant conduct on 30th October near Hollebeke, when he carried important messages to our gunners under heavy shell fire, which resulted in the enemy's advance being checked.
4395	Private ...	Coe, G. H. ...	3rd Battalion, Cold-steam Guards	For gallantry on 21st October at St. Julien, in voluntarily assisting to rescue a badly wounded man under very heavy fire.
7335	Lance-Corporal	Colgrave, J. ...	5th Lancers ...	On 30th October near Hollebeke, showed great presence of mind and coolness during an emergency, in rallying several bodies of Indian soldiers who had lost their Officers.
4030	Squadron-Serjeant-Major	Cordwell, C. E. ...	3rd Dragoon Guards ...	For gallant conduct and coolness on 17th November, during the attack on the trenches.
8394	Serjeant ...	Cox, H. ...	1st Battalion, Dorsetshire Regiment	For gallantry on 22nd October near Violaines, in carrying a wounded Officer from the trenches into cover under a very heavy fire.
28089	Corporal ...	Cremetti, M. A. E.	4th Signal Troop, Royal Engineers (Motor Cyclist);	For conspicuous gallantry on 31st October, during the attack on Wytshaete - Messines, in taking messages under a dangerous fire, showing great resource and never failing to achieve his object.
37911	Bombardier	Crompton, J. W. ...	71st Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct on 21st October, in remaining in attendance on a mortally wounded comrade under shell fire. He was wounded an hour later whilst on duty in the observing station.
20323	Lance-Corporal	Curtis, W. J. ...	5th Field Company, Royal Engineers	For gallantry on 11th November, in remaining at his post, after his Officer had been killed under a very heavy machine-gun fire, until compelled to fall back owing to shrapnel fire assailing his trench from the rear.
7820	Serjeant ...	Curzon, H. ...	2nd Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps	For gallant conduct on 31st October (then a private), in attempting to carry a wounded Officer under heavy rifle and machine-gun fire; and again on 7th November, at Klein Zillebeke, when he obtained valuable information as to enemy's movements. Has been conspicuous for coolness and gallantry on all occasions.
10129	Corporal ...	Cyster, P. G. ...	1st Battalion, Bedfordshire Regiment	For gallantry on 10th November, in assisting to recover one of our abandoned machine guns.
62339	Gunner ...	Davidson, J. ...	71st Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry on 22nd October, in remaining with a mortally wounded Officer and attending to him whilst the building in which he lay was being subjected to a very heavy high-explosive shell fire.
8055	Lance-Corporal	Davies, T. ...	1st Battalion, Liverpool Regiment	For gallant conduct on 23th October, in going into a house in front of our lines and doing excellent work for two days, sniping the enemy in their trenches 80 yards away.
5018	Acting-Corporal	Day, H. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Berkshire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 15th November, in leaving his trench under fire to obtain water for a wounded man. He was immediately wounded himself, but brought back the water to his comrade.
2853	Lance-Corporal	Delaney, W. ...	1st Battalion, Irish Guards	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during the fight for Reutel Ridge on 26th October, when his untiring efforts were used to rescue the wounded, who no doubt owe their lives to his gallant behaviour.