DISSOLUTION OF THE COPARTNERY
 OF
JOHN ROBERTSON and CO. BREWERS in the Haugh, near Inverness.
 THE said John Robertson intimates, That by the failure of JOHN GRANT, Merchant in Inverness, the Copartnery is, in terms of a clause of the contract, Dissolved from and after the 19th day of May 1804; and that the BREWING BUSINESS, in all its branches, is now carried on by the said JOHN ROBERTSON, who begs leave to return his grateful thanks to the Public for the patronage hitherto bestowed on the Haugh Brewery, and to solicit a continuance thereof.
 The debts of the Company will be paid by the said John Robertson, who, to enable him to do so, will gratefully receive and discharge those due to the Company.
 HAUGH, near Inverness, Sept. 20. 1805.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
JOHN KING, Shoemaker and Innkeeper in Kilmarnock.
 Peter Bishop, Shoemaker in Kilmarnock, trustee confirmed by the Court of Session on the sequestrated estate of the said John King, hereby intimates to the creditors, that upon the trustee's application, the Sheriff Substitute of Ayrshire has named and appointed Monday the 7th day of October next, and Monday the 21st day of the said month of October, for the public examination of the bankrupt, his wife, family, and others acquainted with his business, and that within the Sheriff Court-house at Ayr, at 12 o'clock noon each day.
 The trustee further intimates, that a general meeting of the bankrupt's creditors is to be held, within the house of John Begbie, vintner in Kilmarnock, upon Tuesday the 22d of said month of October; at 12 o'clock noon (being the first lawful day after the last diet of examination), for instructing him as to the management and recovery of the bankrupt estate; for choosing commissioners, and to consider of an offer of composition that is intended to be made by the bankrupt. The creditors who have not already produced their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with their oaths to the verity thereof, are required to produce the same, in the trustee's hands, at or previous to the said meeting; certifying, that such as fail to do so betwixt and the 25th day of May 1806, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.—Of all which intimation is hereby made in terms of the statute.
 Kilmarnock, 24th Sept. 1805.

JOHN KAY, Wright and Builder in Glasgow.
 David Keay, accountant in Glasgow, the trustee, advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette a meeting of the creditors, to be held in his office on the 16th inst.; but as only two of the creditors attended, the meeting was adjourned until the 25th inst. which adjourned meeting was advertised in the Edinburgh Gazette and Glasgow Courier. As at this meeting, however, none of the creditors attended, it is requested the creditors will meet, in his office, No. 132, Trongate, on Friday, the 4th October, at one o'clock, to take into consideration the present state and disposal of the heritable property which belonged to the bankrupt; and the trustee intimates, that unless the creditors attend this meeting, he will be under the necessity of resigning.
 —GLASGOW, 26th September 1805.

ALEXANDER ALLAN, and ALEXANDER ALLAN & SON, Merchants in Glasgow.
 The trustee upon the sequestrated estates of the said Alexander Allan, and Alexander Allan and Son, hereby requests a general meeting of the creditors, to be held in the Star Inn, Glasgow, on the 11th of October 1805, to determine upon an offer made by the bankrupts for a discharge; to consider a scheme of ranking of the different sets of creditors who have lodged or may lodge claims upon the estate; to fix the periods and principles of the future dividends; and to give the trustee instructions in regard to his future management. Such of the creditors of the above bankrupts, or either of them, as have not hitherto lodged claims upon the estate, in terms of law, are hereby requested to do so immediately, otherwise they will receive no share of the future dividends.
