

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
9933	Serjeant ...	Fenelly, P. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal Irish Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 15th October 1914, when he led his platoon in a most able manner until the end of the attack, although his hand was fractured in the early stages.
8797	Private ...	Fenner, G. ...	3rd Battalion, King's Royal Rifle Corps (attached 19th British Field Ambulance)	For gallant conduct near Festubert in collecting and attending to the wounded whilst under fire.
8886	Acting-Company-Serjeant-Major	Filby, T. C. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal West Surrey Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and ability on 7th November 1914, at Zillebeke. Although wounded, he continued at his duty the whole day.
8430	Lance-Corporal	Finney, F. B. ...	2nd Battalion, King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry	For conspicuous courage on the night of 19th January 1915, at Dranoutre, when he climbed through three lines of the enemy's barbed wire entanglements under heavy close range fire, and obtained useful information relative to the German positions.
6123	Quarter-master-Serjeant	Fisher, W. ...	1st Battalion, East Surrey Regiment	For gallant conduct at Richebourg and at Fauquissart, on many occasions, when he erected barbed wire fences close to the enemy whilst exposed to heavy fire.
13282	Acting-Serjeant	Fisher, W. ...	4th Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For gallant conduct on the night of 17th-18th November 1914. During digging operations in front of our trenches our men were assailed by a heavy fire which caused some confusion. Serjeant Fisher went out in front exposed to the fire of both sides, and by his coolness and promptitude at once restored order.
239	Lance-Corporal	Flannery, M. ...	1st Battalion, Manchester Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on the night of 20th-21st December 1914, in the attack on the enemy's trenches near Givenchy, when he continued to conduct operations successfully, after his Officers had been killed.
10117	Lance-Corporal	Flynn, M. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Irish Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and great coolness at St. Eloi on 15th February 1915, in assisting in the rescue of the wounded in daylight from in front of the trenches, whilst under fire all the time. Three men of this small rescue party were wounded.
7335	Serjeant ...	Foister, P. R. ...	2nd Battalion, Leicestershire Regiment	For the gallantry displayed in the operations on 23rd and 24th November 1914.
8313	Private ...	Folkes, J. W. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps	For gallant conduct in the performance of his duties, collecting the wounded whilst under fire.
71584	Trumpeter	Follett J. C.	24th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallant conduct near Chapel D'Armentières on 8th February 1915, when he continued to work a field telephone under severe shell fire, thereby admitting of an important message going through which resulted in the silencing of a German Battery.
7158	Serjeant (Acting Company Serjeant-Major)	Foster, C. R. ...	54th Field Company, Royal Engineers.	For gallant conduct on 25th November 1914, when, in company with an Officer, he succeeded in blowing up a house containing German snipers who were causing many casualties.
