Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
26038	Corporal ...	Foulger, F. ...	2nd Siege Company, Royal Garrison Artillery	For gallantry and good work performed on 12th and 13th November 1914, on reconnaissance duties.
9059	Private ...	Fox, M. J. ...	4th Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on 26th August 1914, at Audencourt, in voluntarily attending on the wounded with great coolness under heavy shell fire.
7992	Private ...	Francis, R. C. ...	Special Reserve, Attached 2nd Battalion, Suffolk Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 15th December 1914, near Kemmel, in voluntarily taking a message over very dangerous ground. His destination was 150 yards in front, and he was killed after covering 80 yards of this distance.
468	Private ...	French, J. ...	4th Battalion, Middlesex Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry, great initiative, and coolness at Vierstraat on 26th February 1915. A German bomb having been thrown into our trenches with consequent great destruction and confusion, Private French at once took charge, had the parapet manned, rapid fire opened on the enemy, wounded collected, and the fire in the dug-out extinguished—all this with the utmost promptitude. Subsequently he gave his attention to dressing the wounds of his comrades.
9577	Corporal ...	Frost, A. H. ...	1st Battalion, East Yorkshire Regiment	For gallant conduct on 27th October 1914, at Rue du Bois, when he conveyed messages during a heavy attack by the enemy, whilst exposed to shell and rifle fire.
6682	Private ...	Fuller, R. ...	2nd Battalion, Suffolk Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty near Kemmel on 14th December 1914, in leaving his trench voluntarily and assisting in the rescue of a wounded Officer. He was himself wounded in so doing.
66791	Gunner ...	Fyfield, E. ...	84th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on 22nd-23rd December 1914, near Givenchy, when he repaired the telephone lines seven times under heavy fire.
56920	Bombardier	Gallivan, J. P. ...	41st Battery, Royal Field Artillery.	For gallantry on numerous occasions, in repairing telephone wires whilst exposed to heavy fire.
10356	Private ...	Gamble, H. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry at Le Gheer on 21st October 1914. Although himself wounded he remained in attendance on other wounded men.
9316	Private ...	Gambrill, S. J. ...	2nd Battalion, Royal West Surrey Regiment	For gallant conduct on two occasions in conveying messages under heavy shell fire, after a man had been killed in attempting this duty.
9139	Lance-Corporal	Garton, F. E. ...	2nd Battalion, Leicestershire Regiment	For conspicuous gallantry on 20th November 1914, near Neuve Chapelle, in leaving his trench at great risk and rescuing an Indian soldier of the 107th Pioneers, who had been blown out of his trench by a bomb from the enemy, who were only 70 yards distant.
71219	Driver ...	Gates, W. J. ...	80th Battery, Royal Field Artillery	For gallantry and coolness in the engagement at Givenchy on 24th October 1914, when the teams were under a heavy fire, and also for conveying a message into the trenches which were under attack by the enemy.
1056	Lance-Corporal	Gavins, C. A. ...	1st Battalion, Manchester Regiment	For gallant conduct and resource on 20th and 21st December 1914, at Givenchy, when he carried messages under a very heavy fire until he was wounded.
