

Distinguished Conduct Medals—continued.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
—	Private ...	Grouchkowsky, M....	Zion Mule Corps. (Recruited from refugee Jews from Jerusalem.)	On 5th May during operations near Krithnia, for gallantry in delivering ammunition and food to the trenches. His mules stampeded under heavy fire, but, although wounded in both arms by shrapnel bullets, Private Grouchkowsky kept hold of the animals and delivered the ammunition.
1286	Bugler ...	Hall, D. ...	1/5th Battalion (Queen's Edinburgh Rifles), The Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment), T.F.	On 2nd May 1915, during operations near Krithnia, for exceptional gallantry. Volunteered to carry up ammunition under heavy fire, and succeeded in doing so. He was also engaged in carrying messages over exposed ground, in doing which he showed great daring and rendered valuable service. Eventually, while carrying a message to Brigade Headquarters, he was wounded, but proceeded and delivered it. He volunteered to carry back a reply, but was not permitted to do so.
4096	Serjeant-Major	Holdway, T. ...	2nd Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment	On 28th April 1915, during operations near Krithnia, for distinguished service and ability in organising a line of defence and superintending ammunition supply. Exhibited great personal bravery.
1293	Private ...	Humberston, R. ...	3rd Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales)	On 25th April 1915, and subsequently during operations near Kaba Tepe, for conspicuous coolness and bravery in volunteering on many occasions for dangerous missions and for judgment in carrying them out.
—	Staff-Serjeant	Jackson, H....	Australian Army Medical Corps	From 25th April until 5th May 1915, during operations near Kaba Tepe, for exceptionally gallant work and devotion to duty under heavy fire.
1369	Corporal ...	Jones, J. W. ...	Royal Army Medical Corps (T.F.)	On 26th April 1915, during landing operations at Cape Helles, for conspicuous bravery in attending wounded and supplying them with water under heavy fire.
75	Lance-Corporal	Kennedy, T. ...	1st Australian Infantry Battalion (New South Wales)	On 25th April 1915, and subsequent dates, during operations near Kaba Tepe, for displaying the greatest coolness and pluck in running round under heavy fire and collecting stragglers, whom he formed and led into the firing line. This he did time after time, with excellent results.
741	Lance-Corporal	Kenyon, J. ...	9th Australian In- fantry Battalion (Queensland)	On 25th April 1915, during operations near Kaba Tepe, for conspicuous courage and initiative in returning from the firing line under heavy fire, collecting reinforcements, and assisting in leading a successful bayonet charge to the top of a hill, which was eventually held against great odds.
9483	Private ...	Loftus, P. ...	1st Battalion, The Royal Munster Fusiliers	On 26th April 1915, at Sedd-el-Bahr, for gallant conduct in volunteering to advance to a forward position under very heavy fire, where he established himself, thus enabling the attack to make headway when the position was captured.
