

War Office, 5th August 1915.

HIS MAJESTY the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty whilst serving with the Expeditionary Forces in France and Flanders, The Dardanelles, and Turkey in Asia.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name.	Corps.	Action for which commended.
10807	Serjeant ...	Albone, W. ...	2nd Battalion, Grenadier Guards	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty at Cuinchy on the night of 21st June 1915, in going down a mine and assisting in the rescue of four men under circumstances of great risk. On the morning of the 22nd June the enemy exploded a mine, entombing about nine of our men, and this Non-commissioned Officer went down the mine, time after time, with the greatest courage, and assisted in bringing out all the men. He was badly affected by the poison fumes.
7762	Lance-Corporal	Alexander, A. W. ...	2nd Battalion, The Hampshire Regiment	For coolness under fire on the 8th May 1915, south-west of Krithia (Dardanelles), in reforming the men in the firing line, and going back for reinforcements for an isolated position.
13388	Corporal ...	Allbut, P. ...	4th Battalion, Worcestershire Regiment	For gallant work on the 25th May 1915, during operations south-west of Krithia (Dardanelles), when constructing a trench in the firing line. He had previously shown great gallantry under fire and encouraged his section to advance when hard pressed.
2378	Private ...	Allen, H. J. W. ...	24th County of London Battalion, The London Regiment (The Queen's), T.F.	For conspicuous gallantry on the 25th and 26th May 1915 at Givenchy. After taking part in a successful assault, he went back repeatedly under heavy fire to give first aid and water to men who had been wounded in the charge. On each occasion he returned to the captured trench, bringing a considerable amount of ammunition, which he had collected from the dead and wounded.
9969	Private ...	Allen, I. ...	1st Battalion, Royal Welsh Fusiliers	For conspicuous gallantry on the 16th May 1915, at Festubert, when, in company with a Serjeant-Major and two other men, he volunteered to assist in bombing down a German trench, 500 yards of which they captured together with 102 prisoners, including three officers.
8088	Lance-Corporal	Allen, R. J.	19th Hussars ...	For great gallantry on the 24th May 1915, east of Ypres. He continually carried messages between Headquarters and the 9th Cavalry Brigade, between 3 a.m. and 11 p.m., under an exceptionally heavy shell fire. He displayed throughout the day the greatest courage and presence of mind.
3947	Company Serjeant-Major ...	Allister, B. ...	1/6th Battalion, Lancashire Fusiliers (T.F.)	For good leading of his platoon on the 4th June 1915, south of Krithia (Dardanelles), under heavy rifle and shrapnel fire, to take a Turkish trench. He cleared one flank himself, killing eight Turks.
10412	Private ...	Anderson, G. ...	2nd Battalion, East Lancashire Regiment	For gallant conduct on the 9th May 1915, near Rouges Bancs, in assisting to bring in wounded under very heavy fire. On many previous occasions, and notably on the 10th, 11th, and 12th March 1915, at Neuve Chapelle, he carried and delivered messages under a heavy fire.
