NOTICE.

To the CREDITORS of CLAUD ALEXANDER, Mullin Manufacturer in Paisley.

FRANCIS MARTIN, writer in Paisley, trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said Claud Alexander, hereby intimates to all concerned, that a state of the bankrupt's affairs and of his intramissions with the bankrupt's estate, lies at his Writing Office for the inspection of the creditors, and that he will be ready to pay such as have proved their debts, and been ranked on the estate, a second and final dividend upon Thursday the 26th day of December next.
PAISLEY, Nov. 21, 1805.

NOTICE.

To the CREDITORS of JOHN CAMPBELL, and Co. Distillers in Glenloine, in the county of Argyll, of JOHN CAMPBELL, at Colleshan, and of HUMPHREY and DUGALD MACFARLANES, at Kahain, individually.

AS 5th December 1805, the day formerly fixed for a meeting of these creditors, has been appointed for the purposes of celebrating a national thanksgiving for our late naval victories, the trustee on the said sequestrated estates hereby intimates, that in place of the said 5th December, a general meeting of creditors is requested on Friday, 13th December, 1805, and that at one o'clock afternoon, within the house of John Moody, vintner at Helenburgh, in Dunbartonshire; and as an offer is to be made for a composition, and for a final settlement of all claims on the estates under sequestration, & full attendance of all the creditors, or of persons authorized to act for them, is earnestly intreated.

To the CREDITORS of JAMES M'CAUCHIE, late Merchant in Dumfries.

JAMES THOMSON, writer in Dumfries, trustee upon the said James M'Cauchie's sequestrated estate, hereby gives notice, that a state of the bankrupt's affairs made up in terms of the statute is in his hands for the inspection of the creditors. But that no dividend can at present take place. And the trustee hereby notifies that a general meeting of the creditors is to be held within the George Inn, Dumfries, on the 28th day of December next, for the purpose of directing as to the future management of the bankrupt's affairs.
22d Nov. 1805.
