Published by Authority.

FROM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26., TO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29. 1805.

ST JAMES'S, NOV. 25.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Hon. Lord Hawkesbury, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

" MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Edinburgh, desire to approach your Throne with our most cordial Congratulations upon the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Arms over the combined Fleets of France and Spain.

At a time when the domineering power of our inveterate foe was subjecting unresisting nations, and concentrating, in view of our own shores, immense armies, with the desperate design of subverting our liberty and independence, the wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the gallant conduct of your fleets and armies, seconded by the patriotic zeal and indignation of a free and loyal people, opposed such a resistance as, we trust, would have defeated all the attempts of our enemies to enslave us. The prosperity and happiness which the inhabitants of these realms have long enjoyed under your Majesty's paternal care, and the successful opposition which your Majesty's fleets and armies have always made to the restless enemies of mankind, have, by stimulating our adversaries to more than common exertions, added new trophies to the British name.

While we behold the combined navies of France and Spain reduced, by repeated defeats, to an inconsiderable force, and their ships and sailors dragged in triumph to our shores, we participate in those lively sensations of joy with which the unrivalled success of those gallant warriors, who fought and conquered in defence of your Majesty's Throne, of our happy Constitution, and of the liberties of Europe, have inspired a grateful people. We do, at the same time, sympathise most deeply in the loss which the nation has sustained by the death, however glorious, of that illustrious Hero, who so often led your Majesty's fleets to certain victory.

Other nations, roused to a sense of their rights, and to a consciousness of their common danger, have, we perceive with pleasure, united with your Majesty in the glorious design of rescuing Europe from the ambition and tyranny of an unprincipled Usurper. We trust that the great and decisive victories obtained by your Majesty's fleets off the coasts of Spain and France, which, under Almighty God, have proved so glorious to this nation, and so humbling to our enemies, will also prove the means of inspiring other less fortunate nations with equal zeal and courage to combat and conquer in their own defence.

Signed in name, and in presence of the Council, and by their appointment, and the Seal of the said City is hereto affixed,

WILLIAM FETTES, Provost.

Edinburgh Nov. 1805.
