

30. The hostile destination referred to in Article 29 is to be presumed immediately—

(a) if the goods are destined to be unloaded in a hostile port or to be delivered to the hostile army forces;

(b) if the ship is to call only at hostile ports or if it is to call at a port hostile or join the armed forces of the enemy before reaching the neutral port to which the goods are consigned.

Without considering the port of destination of the ship the hostile destination referred to in Article 29 is to be presumed in the absence of conditions to the contrary if the shipment is consigned—

(a) directly or indirectly to an enemy authority or the agent of such; or

(b) to order or to a consignee not specified in the ship's papers, or directly or indirectly to a person residing in territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy, or who during the present war has supplied contraband goods to territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy, or to an enemy authority or the agent thereof directly or indirectly.

33. In the absence of conditions to the contrary, the hostile destination referred to in No. 32 is to be presumed when—

(a) the goods are consigned to an enemy authority or the agent of such or to a dealer known to have supplied articles of the kind in question or products thereof to the armed forces or the administrative authorities of the enemy State;

(b) the goods are consigned to order or to a consignee not specified in the ship's papers or indirectly to a person residing in territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy or who during the present war has supplied contraband goods to territory belonging to or occupied by the enemy or to an enemy authority or the agent thereof directly or indirectly;

(c) the goods are consigned directly or indirectly to a fortified place belonging to the enemy or to a place serving as a base of operations or supplies to the armed forces of the enemy.

Merchant vessels as such are not to be considered as destined for the armed forces or the administrative authorities of the enemy merely for the reason that they are on a voyage to one of the places referred to under letter (c).

This ordinance takes effect the day of its promulgation.

Chief Headquarters, July 22, 1916.
