"If any person, except as authorised by the Admiralty or Army Council or Minister of Munitions, discloses or makes use of any information obtained in consequence of any requirement made under this regulation or communicated to him by the person by whom it was so obtained, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

"No communication of an invention made in consequence of any requirement under this regulation, or the use thereof by any person authorised under this regulation to use it, shall prejudice any right of the inventor or owner thereof subsequently to apply for or obtain a patent for the invention."

"If any such man produces any disease or infirmity in himself, or maims or injures himself, or causes himself to be maimed or injured, or takes or uses any drug or preparation, or does any other act, calculated or likely to render him, or to lead to the belief that he is, permanently or temporarily unfit for service, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations, unless he proves that he did not so act with the intent of escaping service.

"If any person—

"(a) wilfully produces any disease or infirmity in, or maims or injures, any such man of His Majesty's reserve forces, or any man belonging to any other of His Majesty's forces, whether or not he knew that the man was such a man as aforesaid; or

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 7th day of September 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of September 1916, in the words following, viz:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under consideration the Regulations governing the award of pensions and compassionate allowances to the Widows and Children of Officers of Your Majesty's Navy, Naval Reserve, and Naval Volunteer Reserve:

"And whereas under existing Regulations the Widows and Children of Officers on the Reserved and Retired Lists are, except in certain specified cases, eligible only for the pensions and compassionate allowances applicable to the Rank and Seniority of their Husbands or Fathers at the date they were last on the Active List:

"And whereas we have had under consideration cases, arising out of the present War, in which Officers, recalled from the Retired List, have served in a Rank superior to that held by them before retirement:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable to recognise such service for the purposes of the award of Widows' pensions and Children's compassionate allowances:

"We, therefore, beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the award to Widows, Children, and Dependent Relatives of pensions and compassionate allowances according to the highest permanent Rank held by the deceased Officers while on full pay, whether before retirement or during re-employment.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's

Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ALMERIC FITZROY.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 7th day of September 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 3rd day of September 1916, in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas we have had under consideration the Regulations governing the award of pensions to Widows and compassionate allowances to Children of Officers of Your Majesty's Coast Guard promoted on retirement to the Rank of Honorary Lieutenant:

"And whereas the existing Regulations provide only a single rate of pension for the Widows (viz. £40) and a single rate of compassionate allowance for the Children (viz. £5 to £10) of Officers of this Rank, and contain no special provision for the Dependants of Officers recalled to the Service and dying from causes in any way attributable to the Service:

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is desirable in the present circumstances to make such provision:

"And whereas under Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th February 1916, pensions of £50 a year and compassionate allowances of £8 to £14 a year, may, in cases arising out of the present War, be awarded to the Widows and Children, respectively, of Commissioned Warrant Officers of Your Majesty's Navy:

"We, therefore, beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the award of pensions and compassionate allowances to the Dependants of Officers of Your Majesty's Coast Guard, promoted on retirement to the Rank of Honorary Lieutenant, and called up for service in the present War, on the same scale and under the same conditions as apply in the case of Commissioned Warrant Officers of Your Majesty's Navy.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ORDER by the Secretary for Scotland approving Scheme for application of Funds.

WHEREAS the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have made a Gift to the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the Burgh of Ayr of the Funds (as detailed in Schedule hereto annexed) derived from the Estate of the Ayr Merchant Company on condition that a Scheme for the application of said Funds be previously approved by the Secretary for Scotland.

AND WHEREAS the Town Council of the Burgh of Ayr at a meeting held on 8th May 1916, unanimously resolved to hold in trust and apply the funds of the said Estate when received by them in the following manner, namely:—

1. To use the income of the Estate so far as may be necessary in paying annuities of £20 each to Mrs. Mary Ida Annie Drury or MacCallum, Mrs. Janet Pollock, and Mrs. Helen Tosh, widows of former members.
2. To accumulate the balance of revenue, if any, and add it to the capital sum of the Estate.
3. On the death of the annuitants the Council (1) to pay to the Trustees of Carnegie Public Library, Ayr, the sum of £500 towards the building of a reading room and library for juveniles and to provide additional exits from the lecture hall, or if these have been then carried out, for reduction of the debt on the library; and (2) to apply the balance in reduction of the debt on the Infectious Diseases Hospital at Heathfield belonging to the Corporation.

4. Should it be found that the funds in the Estate are more than sufficient at any time to meet the annuities then payable, the Town Council to have power, with the written consent of the Secretary for Scotland, to apply any portion of the Estate not required to meet the annuities in payment to the Carnegie Library Committee of the sum above mentioned or for public health purposes as above, either wholly to the one or to the other or jointly to each of them in such proportions as the Secretary for Scotland may approve.

NOW THEREFORE I, the Right Honourable Harold John Tennant, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, do hereby signify approval of the foregoing scheme.
