ADMIRALTY-OFFICE, Dec. 10, 1805.

Copy of a letter from the Honourable Rear-Admiral COCHRANE, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels at the Leeward Islands, to WILLIAM MARSDEN, Esq. dated on board the Northumberland, in sight of Barbadoes, 23d October 1805.

SIR,

I beg leave to inclose to the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of a letter from Captain Tobin, giving an account of the capture of his Majesty's late sloop the Cyane; and I am happy to acquaint their Lordships, that I am just informed by a ship, that left Barbadoes last night, that the Naiad has been captured by his Majesty's ship Jason.

I am, &c.

ALEX. COCHRANE.

Princess Charlotte, at anchor off the Gulph of Paria, 8th of October 1805.

SIR,

I beg to acquaint you, that, on the 5th inst. near Tobago, his Majesty's ship under my command captured the Cyane French corvette (late in his Majesty's service) of twenty six-pounders, two fours, and six twelve-pound carronades, with a crew of one hundred and ninety men, commanded by Monsieur Mefnard, Lieutenant de Vaisseau; the Naiad brig, of eighteen long twelve-pounders, and two hundred men, was in company, commanded by Monsieur Hamou, Lieutenant de Vaisseau (the senior officer), but, by taking a more prudent situation and superior sailing, effected her escape without any apparent injury. When discovered, they were so distant, I saw no chance of overtaking them by an avowed pursuit, I therefore disguised the Princess Charlotte as much as possible, which had the desired effect of bringing them down.

Captain Mefnard defended his ship in a very gallant manner; and I am happy in saying, that her loss in men has been inconsiderable. The Second Captain, Monsieur Gautier, and two seamen, are killed; an Enseigne de Vaisseau and eight seamen wounded, some of them severely.

The sails and rigging of the Princess Charlotte are much cut, which was evidently the aim of both vessels. She had one man killed and six wounded, one of them mortally.

I have every reason to be satisfied with the officers and ship's company (at the time above thirty short of complement) upon this occurrence. To Mr Patrick Warner, the First Lieutenant (whose exertions I have been deprived of since he took possession of the Cyane, owing to a severe bruise he received by the falling of her main yard), I am much indebted.

The Naiad and Cyane left Martinique on the 29th ult. stored and victualled for three months, but had made no captures.

I am, &c. (Signed) GEORGE TOBIN.
The Rear-Admiral Cochrane, &c.
Barbadoes.
