ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—Dec. 31. 1805.

Copy of a letter from Lieutenant Phillips Cosby Handfield, of his Majesty's ship the Egyptienne, to William Marfden, Esq. dated in Cawland Bay, the 29th instant.

SIR,

I have the honour to enclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a copy of my letter to Admiral Cornwallis, respecting the capture of the French frigate La Libre by his Majesty's ships Loire, Captain F. L. Maitland, and Egyptienne, at present under my command, on the 24th inst. off Rochefort.

I have the honour to be, &c.

P. C. HANDFIELD, Lieut.

His Majesty's ship Egyptienne, off Ushant, Dec. 23. 1805.

SIR,

I have the honour to acquaint you with the capture of the French frigate La Libre, on the afternoon of the 24th inst. off Rochefort, by his Majesty's ships La Loire, Captain F. L. Maitland, and Egyptienne, at present under my command, both coming up at the same time, and joining in the attack.

La Libre, commanded by Monf. Descorches, capitaine de fregate, mounts 24 18-pounder guns on the main deck, 6 36-pounder carronades, and 10 9-pounder guns on the quarter deck and fore-castle, with a complement of 280 men. She submitted, after an obstinate defence of half an hour, having 20 men killed and wounded, and received so much damage that all her masts went overboard soon after we took possession. She sailed from Flushing on the 14th November, in company with a French frigate of 48 guns, from whom she parted in a gale of wind, on the 9th inst. on the coast of Scotland.

PRICE 6d.

I have much pleasure in communicating to you the good conduct of the officers and men of the Egyptienne in this affair, and have only to regret that the inferior force of the enemy did not give room for the full extent of their services.—Enclosed is a list of the wounded, and I am sorry to add that one is since dead.

Captain Maitland, of La Loire, has taken charge of the prize, from whom I parted on the 25th, when he had her in tow.

I have the honour to be, &c.

P. C. HANDFIELD, Lieut.

The Hon. Wm. Cornwallis, Admiral of the Red, and Commander in Chief, &c.

A list of the killed and wounded on board his Majesty's ship the Egyptienne, in the action with La Libre French frigate, the 24th of December 1805.

None killed.
