TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of April 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm Regulations"), under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915, and other enactments:

And whereas the said Regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendment be made in the said Regulations:—

After Regulation 2G, the following regulation shall be inserted:—

"2G.—(1) Where the Food Controller is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do so for the purpose of his powers and duties, he may by order apply the provisions of this regulation to factories and workshops and other premises in which any article of food specified in the order is manufactured or produced or adapted for sale; and any such order may apply either generally to all such factories, workshops and premises or to any class or description of such factories, workshops and premises, or to any special factories, workshops and premises.

(2) Any factory, workshop or premises to which this regulation is so applied, shall by virtue of the order pass into the possession of the Food Controller as from the date of the order or from any later date mentioned in the order, and the occupier of every such factory, workshop or premises, and every officer of such occupier, and where the occupier is a company, every director of the company, shall comply with the directions of the Food Controller as to the management and user of the factory, workshop or premises, and if he fails to do so, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

(3) It is hereby declared that the possession by the Food Controller under this regulation of any factory, workshop or premises shall not affect any liability of the actual occupier thereof, under the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901, or any Act amending the same.

(4) Any order of the Food Controller under this regulation may be revoked or varied as occasion requires."

HONOURS FOR ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the under-mentioned Officer

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:—

Flt.-Lieut. (actg. Flt.-Cdr.) Bertram Charles Bell, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in attacking hostile aircraft. Since 1st February 1917 he has taken part in fourteen aerial combats, notably:—

On 17th March 1917 on two different occasions during the same offensive patrol he attacked and drove down hostile machines, one completely out of control and the other in flames.

On 24th March 1917 he attacked a hostile machine which was diving on one of our machines. After he had fired about 30 rounds at a range of about 50 yards the hostile pilot fell back and his machine went down spinning and side-slipping completely out of control.

The KING has also been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Flt.-Lieut. (now act. Flt.-Cdr.) Charles Cyril Rogers Edwards, R.N.A.S.

Sub-Lieut. Charles Keith Chase, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of their services on the 1st March 1917, when they were attacked by two hostile machines whilst on a reconnaissance flight and brought them both down out of control. Flt.-Lieut. Edwards was hit by a bullet which passed through the left shoulder, fracturing the collar-bone, and at the same time was slightly wounded in both feet. Although suffering considerably, he brought his machine home safely, in spite of being again attacked by two hostile aircraft. By his determination and pluck he probably saved his own life and that of his observer.

Flt.-Cdr. Alfred William Clemson, R.N.A.S.

Sub-Lieut. James Leslie Kerry, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of their conspicuous gallantry on the 28th February 1917, when they carried out a reconnaissance of Rayak and Damascus in a seaplane. During this flight they crossed two mountain ranges whose lowest ridges are 4,000 feet high, and brought back valuable information.

Lieut. (now Lieut.-Cdr.) Erskine Childers, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services with the R.N.A.S. for the period January-May 1916. During this time he acted as observer in many important air reconnaissances, showing remarkable aptitude for observing and for collating the results of his observation.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Horace Ernest Philip Wigglesworth, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous gallantry and enterprise on the 23rd January 1917, during a bomb attack by aircraft when considerable damage was done to enemy blast furnaces at Burbach. During this flight he fought five engagements with enemy aircraft in formations of three, four and five at a time.

Sub-Lieut. (now Lieut.) Eric Bourne Coulter Betts, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services on the 1st February 1917, when he carried out a long reconnaissance and returned with extremely important information, shooting down an enemy scout machine which attacked him on his way back.

The following awards have also been approved:—

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

Act. Air Mech., 1st Grade, Walter Bunce, O.N. F.7088.

The following Officer has been mentioned in Despatches.

Flt.-Lieut. Henry Guy Holden, R.N.A.S.

Act. Lieut. John Herman Ritchie Elfert, R.N.R.
 Eng. Sub-Lieut. John Smith, R.N.R.
 Gnr. William John Hubbard, R.N.
 Art.-Eng. Ernest Thaxter, R.N.

The following awards have also been approved:—

To receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Ch. Yeo. Sigs. Albert Arthur Bishop, O.N. 201787 (Ch.).

Showed great devotion to duty in action during the Dardanelles Operations. After his left leg had been shattered above the ankle, this man raised himself into a sitting position and continued performing his duties and passing reports to his Commanding Officer.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

THE QUEEN'S PARK PICTURE HOUSE
(GLASGOW) LIMITED.

A PETITION having been presented by this Company to the Court of Session (First Division,—Mr. Paton, Clerk) for authority to order Meetings and sanction Scheme of Arrangement between the Company and Creditors under Section 120 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills has been pleased to pronounce the following order:—

“Edinburgh, 13th April 1917.—The Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills appoints the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book in common form; directs a Meeting to be summoned of the Creditors (other than (1) the Debenture Holders, and (2) Creditors who in a compulsory winding-up would be entitled to a preferable ranking on the assets of the Company) hereinafter referred to as Trade Creditors of the Queen's Park Picture House (Glasgow) Limited, for the purpose of taking into consideration, and, if so resolved, of approving the compromise or arrangement set forth in the Scheme of Arrangement annexed to the Petition; authorises the Board of Directors of the said Company to fix the respective time and place of the said Meeting, and appoints the Secretary of the Company, or its Agents, to give at least seven days' notice thereof to all concerned, by advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the Scotsman and Glasgow Herald newspapers; appoints the Secretary of the Company, or its Agents, to post, seven days at least previous to the day of said Meeting, a notice stating the place, day, hour, and object of the proposed Meeting, and accompanied by a form or forms of proxy, and a copy of the said Scheme of Arrangement, to every trade Creditor of the Company; appoints the terms of said notice and advertisement and relative proxies to be adjusted at the sight of the Clerk of Court; appoints such person as the Meeting shall appoint to act as Chairman, and directs the Chairman so appointed to report the result of said Meeting to the Court.

(Sgd.) “DAVID DUNDAS.”

In accordance with the Order of the Court, the Directors of the Company have fixed Monday, 7th May 1917, at 3 o'clock afternoon, within the Faculty Hall, St. George's Place, Glasgow, for a Meeting of the said Creditors of the Company.

At said Meeting the said proposed Scheme of Arrangement between the Company and its said Creditors will be taken into consideration, and, if so resolved, agreed to, and the result of said Meeting will be reported by the Chairman thereof to the Court.

Of all which Notice is hereby given.
