HONOURS FOR ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the under-mentioned Officer

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:—

Flt.-Lieut. (actg. Flt.-Cdr.) Bertram Charles Bell, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in attacking hostile aircraft. Since 1st February 1917 he has taken part in fourteen aerial combats, notably:—

On 17th March 1917 on two different occasions during the same offensive patrol he attacked and drove down hostile machines, one completely out of control and the other in flames.

On 24th March 1917 he attacked a hostile machine which was diving on one of our machines. After he had fired about 30 rounds at a range of about 50 yards the hostile pilot fell back and his machine went down spinning and side-slipping completely out of control.

The KING has also been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Flt.-Lieut. (now act. Flt.-Cdr.) Charles Cyril Rogers Edwards, R.N.A.S.

Sub-Lieut. Charles Keith Chase, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of their services on the 1st March 1917, when they were attacked by two hostile machines whilst on a reconnaissance flight and brought them both down out of control. Flt.-Lieut. Edwards was hit by a bullet which passed through the left shoulder, fracturing the collar-bone, and at the same time was slightly wounded in both feet. Although suffering considerably, he brought his machine home safely, in spite of being again attacked by two hostile aircraft. By his determination and pluck he probably saved his own life and that of his observer.

Flt.-Cdr. Alfred William Clemson, R.N.A.S.

Sub-Lieut. James Leslie Kerry, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of their conspicuous gallantry on the 28th February 1917, when they carried out a reconnaissance of Rayak and Damascus in a seaplane. During this flight they crossed two mountain ranges whose lowest ridges are 4,000 feet high, and brought back valuable information.

Lieut. (now Lieut.-Cdr.) Erskine Childers, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services with the R.N.A.S. for the period January-May 1916. During this time he acted as observer in many important air reconnaissances, showing remarkable aptitude for observing and for collating the results of his observation.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Horace Ernest Philip Wigglesworth, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous gallantry and enterprise on the 23rd January 1917, during a bomb attack by aircraft when considerable damage was done to enemy blast furnaces at Burbach. During this flight he fought five engagements with enemy aircraft in formations of three, four and five at a time.

Sub-Lieut. (now Lieut.) Eric Bourne Coulter Betts, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services on the 1st February 1917, when he carried out a long reconnaissance and returned with extremely important information, shooting down an enemy scout machine which attacked him on his way back.
